LOCAL NEWS

Nominations one week from Friday. —Everyone had a good time at the Lions Club dance in the Arena last Friday night.

The Georgetown nominations will be held in the Public Library, on Friday, November 26th.

For five consecutive years Pool county has not had a single criminal case at the Assize Court sessions.

Nearly 800 carloads of fruit and vegetables were shipped from Ontario to the dried-out areas in the West.

The Local Council of Women will meet in the Public Library room on Friday, Nov. 19th, at 3 o'clock.

The Lions Club Community Christmas Tree and the Firemen's Ball are two big events to be held next month.

Dr. Black, M.O.H. for Nassarawya Township, has resigned his position in order to take up new work at London.

Everyone interested in choral work turn out and help make a bigger and better choral society for Georgetown.

The Lorne Scots Band will hold their postponed concert and lucky number draw in the Town Hall, on Friday evening, Nov. 19th. Everyone invited.

Eight of the fourteen properties offered at a tax sale ordered by Brampton council were bought up. The remaining six lots will be offered for sale at the adjourned sale.

The Lorne Scots Band of Georgetown, with Bandmaster Perrott in charge, was at Port Credit on Sunday attending the Regimental parade and Armistice Service.

All Oddfellows are invited to attend a meeting in the Town Hall, on Thursday evening, November 18th, to discuss the formation of a District Encampment. Cars will leave the Oddfellows Hall at 8 p.m., Thursday.

It's a long road that has no turn, and if you and you do not turn up at the DANCE of St. George's Women's Auxiliary, you'll miss a perfectly "scrumptious" evening of dancing to Willis Tipping's music.

Abolition of all departmental examinations in the form of Ontario secondary schools was announced yesterday by George F. Rogers, Chief Inspector of Secondary Education for the Department of Education.

It is rumored that a number of pheasants have been shot by boys in this neighborhood lately. A citizen reports finding a wounded bird near the town reservoir last week. We understand this matter has been reported to the Game Warden.

The Record of Performance Branch of the Federal Department of Agriculture just announce a sensational record completed by the Holstein cow, Rose Posch Echo Girl, owned by Robinson Bros., Georgetown, Ont. At six years of age, on twice-a-day milking this great cow gave 23,879 lb. milk and 784 lb. fat.

Harold Bingham of Georgetown, is reported by the Record of Performance Branch of the Federal Department of Agriculture as completing an exceptionally high production record with one of his purebred Holstein cows. At three years of age, Meadow-brae Sylvia Polly produced 18,224 lb. milk and 624 lbs. fat on twice-a-day milking. She was bred by Quincy D. Whaley of Alma.

Midget Boys Take Notice — Registration cards for boys playing Midget hockey will be out this week, and they are asked to be at the town hall, Saturday, Nov. 20th at 1:30 to register.

Tax Sale Adjourned — There was a small attendance at the Tax Sale, held at the Municipal Office, on November 16th. No offers were received for the properties listed and the sale was adjourned until November 24th, at 10 o'clock.

Lions Club Luncheon — At the regular luncheon of the Lions Club held at the Hotel McElbannon on Monday night, Rev. Mr. Tebb of Burlington, was the guest speaker. He gave a very interesting talk and showed a number of pictures taken at the Lions International Convention held at Providence and Chicago. Rev. Tebb's visit and talk was very much appreciated by the Lions.

Remembrance Day Service — The members of Georgetown Branch of The Canadian Legion and the Ladies Auxiliary to the Canadian Legion held a Remembrance Day service in the Legion assembly hall last Wednesday night. A very appropriate address was given by Rev. W. G. O. Thompson, Chaplain of the Branch. At midnight the members paraded to the Cenotaph, where wreaths were deposited in memory of their fallen comrades.

Getting up in the World — Talk about getting up in the world, there are few men have anything on Roy J. Wiggins and Jas. E. Cain, Georgetown, who are two of the five men now painting the 647 ft. steel radio broadcasting tower at Hornby. The men go up on a steel ladder on the inside of the tower and paint from the top down. It's certainly a dizzy height to be working and few will envy them their job.

Held Annual Ball — Georgetown Lions Club held their annual ball in the Arena last Friday night and one of the best dances of the season was enjoyed by those present. The music for the occasion was supplied by The Skaters' Band of Newmarket and delighted the dancers. A dainty luncheon was served by the ladies during the evening. There were a number of guests from out-of-town present.

"WEE WILLIE WINKIE" FAMED KIPLING STORY, A THRILL-PAKED FILM

Adventure as only Rudyard Kipling could write it blazes from the screen in the Twentieth Century-Fox picturization of his "Wee Willie Winkie," which will play at the Gregory Theatre, on Saturday, Nov. 20th, with Shirley Temple and Victor McLaglen in the starring roles.

Adventure-rugged as the killed Highlanders holding Khyber Pass, colorful as India's jeweled and brazen hues, strange as the skirling bagpipes on the roof of Asia, romantic as empires' last untamed frontiers, fills every moment of this exciting film, the most spectacular production in which Shirley Temple has ever appeared.

When the bonnie plaid of Scotland flashes on India's saffron hills, and war-mad tribesmen strike from Khyber Pass, when the rifles crack and the Pathans raid, when the bagpipes skirl and the regiment charges—you'll know that you're seeing one of the greatest pictures ever made, with a Shirley Temple whose power to stir your emotions will be the wonder of your life.

See this amazing picture at the Gregory Theatre on Saturday next.
