DIED
BENNETT—In Peel Memorial Hospital, Brampton, on Sunday, Dec. 5th, 1937, Elizabeth Annie Metcalf, widow of the late Rev. Clifford T. Bennett and mother of M. Sybil Bennett of Georgetown.

McDONALD—In Georgetown, on Sunday, December 5th, 1937, Nellie Maria Maw, beloved wife of the late William McDonald, in her 70th year.

OBITUARY

NELLIE MARIA MAW
 Death has claimed another of Georgetown's most highly respected citizens in the person of Nellie Maria Maw, widow of the late William J. McDonald, in her 70th year. Deceased was a daughter of the late Mark Maw, sr., and Sarah Gamble and was born in Georgetown, where she lived her entire life with the exception of a few years spent in Hamilton and St. Catharines. About forty-nine years ago she was married to William J. McDonald who predeceased her thirty-three years ago. She is survived by three sons, Kenneth R., Ewen and William, all of Georgetown; also one brother, Joseph Maw of Madison, Wisconsin. She was a member of the Presbyterian Church, a true Christian, good neighbor and kind motherly lady, beloved by her family and all who knew her. The funeral took place this afternoon from her late home on Market St., when the service was conducted by Rev. W. D. Davidson. The pallbearers were Hodgkin Barnes, Wm. Emmerson, Roof Barber, F. D. McNally, R. C. Adams and N. H. Brown. There were numerous beautiful floral tributes from relatives and friends. The remains were interred in Greenwood Cemetery, Georgetown.

On Friday evening of last week, December the third, the club held its annual banquet in the parish hall at Normal with over a hundred people in attendance. Formerly held in private homes of the members, the banquet was found to be even a greater success this year in the hall. Supper finally being ended, the rest of the evening was spent with eucure and dancing. Nelson's orchestra very capably supplied music for the dance. Old and young alike report one of the most enjoyable evenings of the season.
