

A New Year Dawns

May this, the New Year, be a brighter day dawning for all of our friends and patrons. We want to thank all for their hearty co-operation during the year just coming to a close. We wish them all happiness and health for the New Year. We want to assure all that we shall earnestly strive to serve them better during 1938.

Century-old records of the first Peel county council, on file at Brampton, reveal that any person who "voluntarily leaves employment" was liable to a jail sentence. According to the records, the first "offence" was committed in 1869. A man was found guilty and jailed.

Addition to Report
In our report of the Lion Club's annual ladies' night last week we omitted to state that Mrs. Gilroy of Milton and Mrs. H. C. McClure of Georgetown, were presented with beautiful flowers on behalf of the Lions by G. W. McIntock; also that W. H. Long very ably impersonated Santa Claus and that his gifts to everyone present were the cause of much merriment and appreciation.

Peel Pioneer Passes
A Peel pioneer, Mrs. Charles Armstrong, died Dec. 26th at her home on the first line east. She was born 76 years ago on Dundas St. near Trafalgar. Her husband died five years ago. Two sons and two daughters survive. They are Miss Pearl Armstrong, Brampton; Mrs. Sylvester Shirley, Niagara Falls; Robert Armstrong, Ypsilante, Mich.; and Harvey Armstrong at home. There is one brother, J. H. Conover, Brampton. The funeral took place from her late home to Brampton cemetery Tuesday afternoon.

Recital
The annual Christmas recital of the pupils of Miss Margaret Dickie, A.T.C.M., was held in the Public School auditorium, Saturday afternoon, Dec. 18th, at 8 o'clock. The table at the front was prettily decorated with a small lighted Christmas tree and red candles. Those present were the pupils and their mothers. First, a demonstration of class work was given, consisting of beating time and rhythm band work, followed by piano playing by the members: Shirley Macleart, Donald McMurphy, Violet Mackay, Doreen Mulholland and Geraldine Tyers. The following private pupils gave piano selections: George Walker, Douglas Peck, Jean Dickie, June Clarke, Peggy Kelly, Roy Peck, Bernice Hughes, Nora Cleave, Mary Dobson, Doris Armstrong, Alva Cripps, Dick Crighton, Agnes McClure, Lois Hieseen, Margaret Bradley, Isabel Dobson, Verna McIntock, Helen Blackburn and Helen Williams. Following the recital a social time was spent when Miss Dickie, assisted by Miss Hilda Erwin, treated the audience with home-made Christmas candy.

CHRISTMAS HAMPERS
Generous hampers were packed by the Women's Institute on Dec. 23rd in the waterworks building to bring Christmas cheer to less favored homes in town. Hampers were packed for 27 families, with a total of 158 persons. The hampers were delivered by the town's officers, Chief Marshall and Engineer Gray of the Hydro. Those in charge wish to convey their heartfelt thanks to the United Church and the Baptist Church for their generous contributions of white gifts, and to all individuals, firms and societies who so generously donated food and money to make these hampers possible. Thanks are due also to the Mayor and Council for their hearty and generous co-operation.

"My dear, I've had such wonderful news. My husband has had a breakdown and we're going to the Riviera for three months."
Lester: "Where did you get the notion that Cleopatra was a flirt?"
Bill: "Caeser! says in this book: 'Mare Antony pressed his suit with Cleopatra.'"

THIS AND THAT IN SPORT

By G. "Mac" McGilvray

ANOTHER big game of the week is the Milton Georgetown Junior game at the arena to-morrow Thursday night. Milton questioned the calibre of the Junior team, owing to them scoring during a penalty, but you be the judge and come out and see these boys 'go to town.' We are expecting much from the Juniors—can they expect your attendance to-morrow night.

ACTON JUNIORS handed Oakville a defeat in their first game with the Lakeshore boys last night up in Acton. Last Wednesday night Acton journeyed to Orangeville and suffered a 4 to 2 setback. By the various scores it looks as though the Junior teams are very evenly matched.

MONDAY night, Acton Intermediates 'A's' opened the season up in Preston, when they handed out a 3 to 1 defeat to the Riverides. Acton have had the services of one of the best players Georgetown has ever turned out up until the present—but it is doubtful whether they will be able to play him all season. "Sheehey" Tost has served Georgetown hockey clubs well and we would like to see him get a break in the higher rating. However we hear that the O.H.A. residence rule may force him to continue playing there even though the Georgetown club has given him his release.

INTERMEDIATE GAMES THIS WEEK
Monday, Jan. 3—Milton at Brampton. (Game to be played here).
Monday, Jan. 3—Georgetown at Bolton.

Junior Games This Week
Wednesday, Dec. 29—Orangeville at Fergus.
Thursday, Dec. 30—Milton at Georgetown.
Monday, Jan. 3—Fergus at Orangeville.
Tuesday, Jan. 4—Acton at Milton.
Wednesday, Jan. 5—Oakville at Fergus.

Midget N.H.L. Games This Week
Tuesday, Jan. 4, 7:30 p.m.—Black Hawks vs. Maroons; 8:30 p.m. Rangers vs. Redwings.

INTERMEDIATE STANDING

	P.	W.	L.	P.
Georgetown	1	1	0	2

HURT IN FALL FROM TRUCK

Jack Stewart, Georgetown, suffered painful bruises and lacerations about the knees when he was thrown from a truck driven by Harold McClure, Georgetown, to the pavement of King street last Friday afternoon. Stewart was holding a radio in the back of the truck when it was in a collision with a car driven by K. McMillan of Georgetown. Chief W. C. Marshall investigated the accident. No charges were laid. Mr. Stewart was not seriously injured and we are pleased to see him around again as usual.

"Able, what you mean by blaying mit matches on de sidewalk. Come right away in de store and blay mit 'em."
