"A man and woman will be happy if they can be made each other happy."
 — Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt.

"The crowd loves strong men."
 — Benito Mussolini.

"As in our lives, so also in our studies, it is most becoming and most wise to temper gravity with cheerfulness; the former may not be too far from the latter, the latter the former's necessary complement."
 — Benito Mussolini.

AFTER ALL

A blinding fire in winter and a garden in the spring... A bed of pansy blossoms and a tree where robins sing... Some larks in the corner of the little house we have...

The House with the Open Door

BY MRS. M. GILCHRIST

"BUY if the door stood wide open," Estelle argued, "and you don't take anyone about, wouldn't you take a peek?"

"Huh!" said Fritz. "An open door wouldn't make it your house, would it?"

"I don't see any real difference," Louise said. "It was never walking in to a house through a door that is already open and opening a shut door doesn't make a difference at all."

"An open door says, 'Come in,' Estelle said. "A closed door says, 'Keep out.'"

"All open doors don't say 'Come in to you,'" Louise answered. "An open door that says 'Come in' is open to you, but an open door that says 'Come in' is open to everyone."

Ontario Legislature

A majority of sixty-one was recorded in the House of Commons on the second division of the present session when the division was taken on the adoption of the motion of the address in reply to the Speech from the Throne, the voting being 11-30. On the third division, W. M. Sinclair, Opposition leader, accepted a motion for the amendment of a resolution in school grants, while the original vote of 11-30 was maintained.

RELATIONSHIP AND DEFERENCE

In his address before the English Club of Toronto last Thursday Professor Gilbert M. Jackson of the Department of Economics of the University of Toronto, Ontario, stated that economic adjustment must come primarily from a change of heart in the individual rather than merely by tricks of economic adjustment.

MEMORY

There's not a health, however fine,
 But has some little power
 To brighten up its holder's life,
 And send the evening glow.

CHICKEN MAKING

To spoil what is good by introducing a little bit of the wrong into it.

THE HOUSE WITH THE OPEN DOOR

The girl with the bright eyes and light brown hair was caught up by a bit of her head and neck in the doorway of a house and laid on her back. In her dark eyes there was a gleam of surprise and joy. Her cheeks glowed with health and color.
