SCOUT NEWS
Week before last the Troop held its usual banquet with about twenty persons present. The meeting opened with the Star-Speak which was followed by an snappy inspection by the Scoutmaster. Afterwards the boys played several exciting games and they enjoyed themselves immensely. About 8:45 the camp fire was officially opened by Mr. C. J. Lusk, and several old songs were sung. Solos were sung by Scout Keith Spence in his usual pleasing manner and they were very loudly cheered. The Troop Leader also sang one of his Irish songs which was to the applause of all. Scout J. J. Danne played several mouthorgan solos by the green light of the camp fire.

The Troop Leader also sang one of his Irish songs which was to the applause of all. Scout J. J. Danne played several mouthorgan solos by the green light of the camp fire. An address was given by the guest of honor, Scoutmaster J. J. Danne, who received his Second-Class Badge from Scoutmaster C. J. Lusk. He congratulated him on his recent success. "All" was followed with one of his well-known three word speeches and took his seat amid cheers. The Troop Leader then spoke and the boys cleaned up about 10 o'clock.
Scout competition opened with a sudden show of energy from all three patrols. The Patrols, who were second-
