Oddfellows and Rebekahs at St. George's

The annual church parade of Orion Lodge, No. 169, I.O.O.F. and Verdun Rebekah Lodge, No. 134, took place on Sunday evening, for Evensong at St. George's Church. Unfortunately the young hurricane, promising a bad storm, which swept across this country about 8.30, interfered greatly with the numbers of visitors and local brethren.

However, the service was conducted according to announcement, the beautiful musical service was rendered with heart and voice by choir and congregation, the hearty congregational singing being almost a feature of the service.

The Rector, Rev. W. G. O. Thompson, preached from the text St. James 2: 23, "He was called the friend of God." After welcoming the attending Lodges in the name of the Churchwardens and congregation, as well as himself, Mr. Thompson developed the theme of friendship from personal and lodge friendship, through the bond joining townspeople, people of the nation, international friendship, to the foundation of all, being the friends of the Blessed Trinity.

Personal friends are those who stand by each other at all times, and have the courage to tell each other, not only their virtues, but their failings; and have the fortitude to receive with gratitude the unpalatable truths which friend may find it his duty to tell. Faithful are the wounds of a friend.

Towns have their own attitudes towards the townspeople. In some is a spirit of dislike and distrust. In others the people like, trust and help each other. The latter attitude is self-evident. Lodges can do much to promote a kindly feeling in the town.

As to national friendship, patriotism is a noble virtue, and many splendid lives have been offered in defence of country. There is suitability deserve our support, without consideration of party. Those among us of many nations claim our friendship, that the people of this land may be welded into one godly nation.

Expanding the thought to the whole world, the great world-trouble today is selfishness and distrust by nations towards the rest of the world. The personal hatred between soldier is the exception. What we are, in national honour, good faith and reasonableness, let us credit the other nations with the same attributes. If nations will give to each other the credit due for good intentions, the world will be healed.

The foundation of all friendship is that which Abraham exemplified, in that it could be said of him "he was called the friend of God." Jesus has said, "I have called you friends." The people of the whole world are God's children and His friendship is proved.

Is it visionary to think we can do anything in our small sphere towards the improvement of town, country and world? Great units are made of units as small as the individual. And national sentiment, which directs the course of the world, is the product of the thought of the individuals who compose a nation.

Then may God the Blessed Trinity, Father, Son and Holy Ghost, whose unity we have in mind today, guide us into the path of true friendship with each other, our townspeople, our Lodge brethren, our countrymen, the people of this world, and with Himself.

The excellent choir of St. George's, under the leadership of Mr. Jack Thompson, and with Mrs. W. F. Bradley at the organ, sang during the offering the beautiful anthem "At Even when the Sun was Set." Mrs. Wilfred Preston taking the solo parts.

When the recessional hymns had been sung, and the congregation left the Church, it was to find that the menace of the storm had passed, the temperature had dropped to comfort, and they could go to their homes in the peace of a perfect Sabbath evening, meditating on the message of the recessional, "Best be the tie that binds."

W.C.T.U. MEETING

The June meeting of the W.C.T.U. was held at the home of Mrs. Vanalter last Thursday. After the usual form opening arrangements were made for a tea to be held on July 14th at the home of Mrs. Preuss.

Mrs. Caldwell spoke of the Convention to be held in the United Church, Burlington, on Thursday, June 15th. The sessions will be held morning, afternoon and evening, and every lady in the district is given a cordial invitation to attend. The registration fee will cover the cost of the supper but those going will provide a basket for the noon meal. A number of the members expressed their intention of going if means of transportation could be found.

It was decided to withdraw the August meeting.

Great regret was expressed when Mrs. Caldwell informed the meeting that owing to her removal to Merriton in the very near future, she would have to tender her resignation. The Rev. Mr. Caldwell and Mrs. Caldwell will be very greatly missed not only by this organization but in many other organizations, and in many homes in this community and surrounding district. The members of the Georgetown Union feel greatly honored in having had Mrs. Caldwell as their first and only president. The inspiration and counsel that she has brought to them and the whole hearted way in which she has given herself to this work has meant much in founding and carrying on of the work in this district. The election to fill the vacancy caused by Mrs. Caldwell's resignation will be left over until the September meeting, the first vice-president, Mrs. Marshall, to act until that time.

Halton County C.C.F.

The meeting, which included representatives from town and county, expressed themselves as anxious to work with every one in the county who wants conditions of life more pleasant and comfortable for the common people.

The executive committee asked those present to make it known that the new organization sincerely invite every voter to co-operate with them in this great work.

A nominating convention was arranged for the near future.—Com.

MINISTER RETIRING AFTER FIFTY YEARS

SCOUT NEWS

Last Wednesday evening, despite the stormy weather, the troop held their banquet which closed the two months' competition. The evening opened with flag-break at 8 o'clock and this was followed by a very impressive ceremony in which R. Firestine, formerly troop leader, was officially made Assistant Scoutmaster of the Troop. Also A. Keen, former leader of the Fox Patrol was promoted to the rank of Troop Leader. The ceremony was conducted by Scoutmaster C. Davis, assisted by Mr. C. Stacey, Hon. S. M.

At 8.30 a light luncheon was served by four members of our local Wolf Cub Pack, and was much enjoyed by the many parents and Scouts present. Afterwards, a very interesting half hour was spent around an indoor Council Fire. At 10 o'clock the flag was lowered by the new Troop Leader and the evening came to a happy close. The speakers of the evening were: Rev. Mr. O. Seymour of Toronto, Rev. W. G. O. Thompson, who is chaplain of the troop; Mrs. W. G. O. Thompson, Scoutmaster C. Davis, R. Firestine, assistant Scoutmaster; A. Keen, Troop Leader.

With Rev. Mr. Thompson as chairman, the council fire programme consisted of: clarinette solo, Scout J. Dann; cornet solo, Scout E. Male; vocal solo, R. Firestine, A.S.M.; clarinette solo, A. Keen, T.L.; vocal solo, Scout K. Spence; also several old songs in which all present joined.

The flowers around the War Memorial certainly don't look much like blooming, but the boys are going up on Thursday and add the finishing touches to their work.

On Tuesday evening, June 20th, Mr. E. Y. Jones will be down with his Jamboree Pictures, and the public are cordially invited to be present. There will be no charge, with the exception of a silver collection, which will be taken up to defray the expenses involved. The programme will take place in the basement of St. George's Anglican Church and those who attend are guaranteed an enjoyable evening.

Fishing Trees Kills Girl

Crushed by a large basswood tree which was uprooted in the severe gale last Sunday, Miss Ruth Cowley, 25, 118 Argyle St., Toronto, was almost instantly killed in Riverside Park, Streetsville. The tree also struck two motor cars nearby and virtually demolished them. In company with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Cowley, and other members of the family, the young woman had driven to the park and was preparing lunch when the wind storm arose and the party decided to seek shelter. Almost immediately a blast of wind uprooted the large tree which fell on the girl.
