

Feathered Stowaway

Let us find and find! Behold each thing
Is ready for the moulding of our hand
Long have they all waited our command
Some other will they ever turn for Until we come to bid them try to Nor any one his power may over-stand
No birds are on the trees; in every
Your names—year some things, some spring,
Some indeed shall bid us undo us
What part is ours? To take what all things give;
Yes, it is time—high we were level
To feel the whole world growing for our sake;
To have the knowledge of the marvellous;
To laugh and love—let us rise up and live!

CANADIAN MOSQUITOES

There are about sixty species of mosquitoes in Canada, many of which feed on the blood of man. Although the majority of them, particularly the kind known as Anopheles, are blood-suckers, some do not feed on blood, but on other parts of the body, such as the eyes, nose, and mouth. The most annoying of these mosquitoes are the ones that feed on the blood of man. They are the ones that cause malaria, a disease that is still a major health problem in many parts of the world.

WOMEN RETAIN YOUTH

Women of Today More Advantageous
Drew Those of Past Decades
An authority on hygiene and physical development, author of the statement that women are younger today at forty than ever and, at all ages, healthier than women of preceding generations.
A generation ago the average woman of forty was an old lady who wore a shawl across her shoulders while she sat by the fire and crocheted. She was well past the prime of life and "all tired out."
Today the woman of forty looks thirty. She plays golf and tennis and drives an automobile during the day, and dances or plays cards far into the night, and then is down first to breakfast in the morning, fresh and ready for another day which would have been a killing day to grand-mother's day.

INTERNATIONAL BOUNDARY

Marked by 4,000 Monuments
Many references at gatherings in Canada show that the United States are made to the "4,000 miles of underground boundary" between the two countries. The boundary is marked by 4,000 monuments and a vast cut through the woods in all forest-covered areas; the water boundary is identified by 3,500 reference marks.
The monuments used on the several sections of the boundary are of several types and of different materials. In the mountains of Alaska and British Columbia, where mountains of aluminum ore are used; in the most accessible parts of the interior, granite and concrete. Along the larger waterways the reference marks are of iron, steel, and copper. Along the smaller waterways, small solid aluminum bronze marks are used. The monuments are placed at intervals of one mile, and in some cases of a half mile, for the purpose of identifying the boundary. GOOD PRINTING

is a Good Salesman

Remember when you send out a circular, broadside, prospectus, letterhead, business card or in fact any piece of printing, that it stands for YOU. You can't make money for it. If it's in bad taste, if its face is dirty, so to speak, because it is poorly printed, your advertisement will be a detriment rather than a help. Good printing is a good salesman—see that it is good by having it done here and you will get satisfactory results every time—at a fair price.

FRATERN UNION

This suggestion of prairie union will raise again the question of a union of the Maritime Provinces. While this question has never gotten beyond the stage of academic discussion, still there are those in the Maritime who are earnest protagonists of the scheme, notably Senator J. L. Stewart of New Brunswick. The suggestion of prairie union will raise again the question of a union of the Maritime Provinces.

WOMEN'S MEET THE KING

Rightists who thronged St. Paul's Cathedral recently were surprised to see the King walking down an aisle accompanied by Queen Mary. The King's visit to the cathedral was private and informal. He went to the King's Memorial Chapel where he inspected the roll of honor of men who fell in the war. He expressed his pleasure at the beautiful way in which the chapel was furnished. He then went to the chapel of St. Michael and St. George, which contains the banner of the Knights of the Order with the King's banner in the centre.

Canadian Concrete Industry

All told, 600 companies, curing establishments, and reduction plants are operated in connection with the building industry in Canada. In capital investment they represented the sum of $10,010,000.

Here and There

Gasoline sold in Canada during 1932, according to figures compiled by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics, was valued at $1,000,000,000.

The recent Canadian census reveals that of the population of Canada fifty-two per cent are of British origin; twenty-eight per cent are of French origin; and about four per cent are of other European or other origins.

The Saskatchewan Department of Natural Resources reports that about 2,000 blue-winged teal are nesting throughout the province of Saskatchewan during the coming summer. The birds are nesting in the marshes and swamps of the province.

Despite a somewhat later season this year crop conditions throughout the Prairie Provinces appear cause for optimism in the opinion of J. M. McKay, general agricultural agent, Canadian Pacific Railway. He based his view on the improved moisture conditions and generous growth everywhere, which at some points was the best since 1922.

Completing a sensational successful visit to the United States lasting several months, the Oxford Group sailed recently aboard the Empress of Australia for England under the leadership of Rev. H. Allen Vinay. Their Canadian visit terminated with a house party at the Chateau Frontenac at which 500 members were present.

The death at Vancouver recently of F. W. Peters, former general superintendent British Columbia district, Canadian Pacific Railway, severed one of the last remaining links on this continent with the pioneering railroad days of the early settlement. His service extended to nearly 33 years. He was born in Saint John, March 25, 1866.

Grant Hall, senior vice-president Canadian Pacific Railway, back from three-weeks' inspection trip that took him to the Pacific Coast, stated that he had seen and heard much of an encouraging character during his trip and nothing of a contrary nature. He added that there was distinct revival of hope and restoration of confidence.

Farm management through the application of business principles, practical and theoretical knowledge and ordinary business sense to farm problems is a necessity of this day of lowered prices. T. C. Y. Hooper, manager Canada Colonization Association, told the Winnipeg Kiwanis at the Royal Alexandra Hotel. The Association has extended its activities to Saskatchewan, where it has 16 farm managers with 1,144 farms of a total of 447,000 acres under supervision.

More than 300 scientists from 31 countries attended the fifth meeting of the Pacific Science Congress opened at the Empress Hotel, Victoria, June 1, and continued at the Vancouver Hotel, Vancouver, until June 14. It was the first time the Congress has met on the Pacific Coast. Lord Rutherford addressed the Congress from his home in Edinburgh, his speech being carried by radio, 8,000 miles to Vancouver.
