"Optimyst" 79c Light Chiffon

"Prosperity" 79c Permanently Dull Light Service

Two New Creations in Lovely Hosiery by Mercury

"Optimyst" As unusually lovely crystal-clear chiffon. Silk to the picot top . . . a stocking that is durable as well as beautiful.

"Prosperity" A permanently dull stocking of light service weight. Recommended particularly for office, sport and general wear.

A length of Mending Silk with each pair

The makers have attached to the label of each pair of stockings a length of matching silk so that unfortunate "catches" can be mended immediately. Shades are:

—We thank the many who have renewed their subscriptions to the Herald during the past month.

—Chief Long, officers and members of Georgetown Fire Brigade attended the first annual church parade of Dundas Fire Brigade on Sunday.

—Norman Herbert is becoming a true Isaac Walton. One day last week he caught a speckled trout 16½ inches long.

—Clean up sale of Wallpapers this week at Richardson's Hardware. Some room lot remnants at less than cost. All lines reduced one third. 1t

—Mr. H. Cudden of the 7th Line presented the Herald with an exceptional fine box of strawberries. They will be on display in our window to-day.

—Georgetown Fire Brigade will attend divine service at St. George's Church next Sunday evening, July 2nd at 7 o'clock, d.s.t.

—Georgetown Women's Institute will meet at Mrs. Allatt's on Wednesday, July 5th at 3 p.m. d.s.t. This meeting will take the form of a picnic.

—The Wednesday night street dance has become so popular in town that a number of our merchants are clubbing together and will erect a permanent platform.

—The annual picnic of the Georgetown United Church Sunday School will be held on the afternoon of Thursday, July 13th, at Stanley Park, Erin.

—Tell your friends to spend July 1st at the big field day and garden party in Georgetown.

—Plants for Sale. Tomato, celery, cauliflower and all varieties of cabbage plants for sale at W. H. Godfrey's Hotels, Guelph St., wholesale and retail. 2t —Auctioneer Cyrus McClure conducted a successful sale at the Exchange Hotel last Saturday. He expects to hold another sale of furniture in the near future.

—Owing to the generosity of the C.P.R., school sections Nos. 16 and 18 will hold closing exercises in the form of educational films, in Stewarttown hall, Thursday evening, June 29th at 8.30. Everybody welcome. Silver collection. 1t

—Five Toronto men were caught fishing in Hager Brothers private pond on Sunday morning last. Chief Marshall was called and summonses were issued for the offenders to appear at court in Georgetown on Wednesday, July 5th.

—Don't miss the big field day and garden party at Georgetown, Saturday, July 1st. Come and bring your friends. You'll enjoy it.

—The mature Holstein cow, Pontiac Sylvia Pietertje, bred by Thomas F. Lasalle, Norval Station, Ont., and now owned by J. A. McKane, Georgetown, Ont., recently completed a record in the 365 day division of the R.O.P. with a production totalling 14,455 lbs. milk showing an average test of 3.54% fat.

—Verdun Rebekah Lodge held a successful strawberry and euchre at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Clawe on Monday evening. There was a good attendance and everybody had a good time. The refreshments were delicious. The prize winners were Mrs. Stacey and Mrs. Howard Kentner.

—It is the duty of the citizens of Georgetown and surrounding community to support both the Lorne Rifles (Scottish) Band and the Fire Brigade at their field day and garden party on July 1st, as half the proceeds will go towards the Firemen's expenses to their convention at Dundas this year, and the other half towards expenses of the Band to the musical contest at Waterloo on July 8th.

Dominion Day Saturday

In order to accommodate their many customers a number of our merchants will keep their places of business open on Saturday morning, closing for the afternoon and opening again in the evening.

Fire at Frank Barnes'

On Monday evening Georgetown Fire Brigade was called to a fire at the home of Frank Barnes, 5 miles east of town between the 8th and 9th lines. The fire started in the kitchen and considerable damage was done before the flames were extinguished by a bucket brigade of many willing helpers. It was a hard fight to save the house. It is reported that the damage will be in the neighborhood of $100.

CAMPBELL—WING WEDDING

A very pretty garden wedding took place last Saturday afternoon on the wide-spreading lawn at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Wing, Guelph, when their eldest daughter, Miss Kathleen Wing, became the bride of Mr. Grant Campbell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Duncan Campbell, of Moffatt. Rev. W. J. Gallagher, pastor of Chalmers United Church, officiated.

Most orchestral music was played while the guests assembled and then into the strains of the wedding march as the bride, charming in wedding attire, entered the garden on the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage, and took up her position before a semi-circular banking of ferns and garden flowers arranged in the shade of a group of trees. Her lovely gown was made of ivory colored triple sheer crepe made on slender, graceful lines, the fullness flaring from the knees to touch the ground. The bodice ha da harness neckline and quaint puff sleeves, tight from the elbow to the wrist and trimmed with tiny buttons. Her veil, of ivory net, was fashioned into a turban with heavy rolled edge, and worn, tilted over one eye and caught at the back with orange blossoms to fall in very full folds to the knee, both front and back. She carried white orchids and white roses in an arm bouquet.

Miss Dorothy Wing, as bridesmaid, wore a frock in maize yellow triple sheer crepe, the bodice made with full sleeves joined to neckline in pleats in the centre of the ends dying in the back of a sash. The skirt was marked with diagonal tucking to the knees beneath which the fullness flared. She wore a hat of the same material as the dress with very wide brim and carelessly knotted bow of yellow velvet and carried an arm bouquet of delphiniums in two shades of blue, corn-flowers and sunset roses.

The flower girl, Miss Betty Merry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Harland Merry, of Oakville, was also in a maize colored frock, the replica of the bridesmaid's. She wore a wreath of yellow rosebuds, blue sweet peas and forget-me-nots and carried a French nosegay of the same flowers.

Mr. Gorman McConvey of London, was best man.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held under a marquee in the garden, Mr. and Mrs. Wing and Mr. and Mrs. Duncan Campbell receiving with the bridal party. The bride's mother was in pale green crepe frock, made on very slender lines, the only fullness inverted knife pleats in the centre back of the skirt which trailed the ground slightly. With the dress a jacket was worn with cape sleeves and very novel shoulder trimming. Her hat was in natural shade of linen and her flowers a corsage of Killarney roses. The groom's mother was gowned in crepe in mountain haze shade, made on long lines, touching the floor and with yoke and sleeves of lace in a matching shade. She wore a small grey hat and a corsage of mauve orchids.

After the reception, Mr. and Mrs. Campbell left by motor on their wedding trip, the bride travelling in a very smart brown and white outfit. The dress was made of african brown faille, with a white pique front trimmed with brown buttons, the coat of brown and white checked wool, made on swagger lines, with white pique cuffs and over which the white collar of the dress was worn. Her hat was of the same material as her dress, stitched in white and with white pique bow as trimming. Her shoes, gloves and bag were in brown.

On their return Mr. and Mrs. Campbell will reside in Moffatt.

Guests were present from Kitchener, London, Stratford, Toronto, Galt, Georgetown, Oakville, Campbellville, Hamilton, Ottawa and Guelph.—Mercury.
