OBITUARY

WILLIAM STARK

William Stark, a well-known farmer, died at his home, Lot 4, Con. 2, Esquesing, Tuesday, in his sixty-seventh year. Deceased was a member of the United Presbyterian Church, Maplewood, and in politics was a Conservative. He is survived by his widow and one son, Meldrin, at home. Interment was made in Evergreen Cemetery, Milton.

LIEUT.-COL. WILLIAM P. MOORE

A resident of West Toronto for many years, Lieut.-Col. William Patterson Moore, died on Sunday in the Western Hospital. Colonel Moore came to Georgetown with his parents, the late James and Agnes Moore, when quite young. After being in business here for some years he moved to West Toronto. While in Georgetown he took great interest in military work in connection with the 30th Halton Battn., starting in as private and rising to Lieut.-Colonel. He volunteered in 1914, but was not accepted, and assisted in recruiting. He was also an early member of the Rifle shooting team, winning many prizes. After coming to Toronto he engaged in real estate, but had lived retired for some years. His pleasure in later life was travelling, having visited South America and several Oriental countries. During the visit of the present King and Queen to Toronto in 1908 he formed the honor guard at the reception at the City Hall, and was chosen by the late Sir Sam Hughes to take the Western Ontario militia division to Quebec for the Tercentenary, when the grand military and naval review was held before H.R.H. the then Prince of Wales. He was a Past Master of Credit Lodge, No. 319, A.F. & A.M., Georgetown; life member of the Canadian Institute, member of the Canadian Club, and the Islington Golf Club. Left to mourn are two sisters, Mrs. E. H. Middleditch, Toronto; Mrs. J. H. Morton, Stirling, and one brother, John T. Moore, Baby Point, Toronto; one nephew and several nieces. The funeral took place on Tuesday afternoon to Georgetown Cemetery where the officers and members of Credit Lodge A.F. & A.M. were assembled and the Masonic service was conducted at the grave by Worshipful Master H. C. Dayfoot. There were quite a number of old Georgetown friends present at the burial service, as well as those who came by motor from Toronto.

BASEBALL

Georgetown journeyed to Oakville on Saturday last and defeated the Lakeshore boys by the score of 9 to 7. It was a real game of ball and the local boys certainly deserved the two run margin. There was no scoring in the first two innings, as both pitchers were being right down, but in the third, fourth and fifth Georgetown piled up seven runs on a barrage of hits and the opposition just couldn't stop them. However, in Oakville's half of the fifth inning things began to look a little different. McNally walked two batters and with three hits in a row they tied up the score.

Walters then took up the pitching duties and held these scoreless for the remainder of the game, striking out some of their best hitters, and Georgetown pushed over a couple more runs to put the game in the bag.

Oakville played good ball in the field, but were not as powerful with the bat, Georgetown collecting 13 hits to their 6. Oakville got on base 7 times on walks, which really kept them in the hunt until Walters checked them with his left-handed slants. The loss puts Oakville in the cellar position and Georgetown are running a close race for second.

Next place for us on Saturday afternoon, so don't miss this game.

Following is the summary:—

Batteries—Oakville — Bannon and Ramsay; Georgetown—McNally, Walters and Ward.

Firemen and Council Worship at St. George's

INSPIRING ADDRESS BY THE RECTOR—URGING CLOSE ADHERENCE TO STABILIZING INFLUENCES

Headed by the Lorne Rifles (Scottish) Band, the officers and members of Georgetown Fire Brigade, accompanied by the Town Council and visiting Firemen, paraded from the Public Library to St. George's Church for divine service last Sunday evening.

"To this retined body of Firemen, Council and their guests in the name of the Churchwardens and the church we extend a very cordial welcome. St. George's is ever at your disposal." With these words of welcome Rector W. G. G. Thompson addressed the congregation on Sunday evening. The text was selected from Matthew, the fourth chapter and the 38th verse: "Master carest Thou not that we perish."

"These two splendid bodies of men have merited the sincere appreciation of the citizens of Georgetown," said Mr. Thompson. "They are not paid men, but volunteers, gathered together in the interests of public welfare. They give a great deal of unrequited service. The Firemen are ever ready to sacrifice for humanity in danger. They fight fire and control water—two great servants of mankind, but fearful masters."

"We know these men—ordinary men like ourselves—but men from whose is often required acts of surprising heroism. Then the will is not lacking. They have never been found wanting. When the need sometimes arises they forth in the night, in the intense cold of a winter's night, these men rush forth to save the property of some poor widow, perhaps. It is a Christ-like service. It is a stabilizing influence in the community. It sets minds at rest.

"The Council performs much the same function. They are a voluntary board selected to serve and govern. They are subjected to much criticism favourable and adverse, but they sometimes to serve the best interests of the town faithfully and unselfishly. They undertake another debatable factor—taxes in the community. As a citizen of Georgetown and Rector of one of the churches, I offer you my thanks for your excellent services."

In connection Mr. Thompson drew to the attention of the audience the fact that post-war influences had had an unhealthy effect upon the nation and the individual. We developed sloganic tastes of "War weary," "Peace without victory," "Peace at any price." To-day we are "Depression weary." We hope that the end is in sight. But how have come more eloquent and "doctrinaire solutions" which the proponents claim will solve our troubles. How unlike things they claim will save our people. They suggest that we abandon the old for the new. Drop the things that are old, that we know well, that have been tried and trusted through generations. "It is the abandoning the best—jumping into the sea and grasping at driftwood," said Mr. Thompson. The Master, he explained, had met the same situation. The ship was plunging in the heavy seas, the wind was beating the waves into white capped mountains, the rain was lashing the ship, but Jesus was there all the time. He joined the men and rebuked the disciples for their lack of faith, "should we not take counsel in these words," said Mr. Thompson. There are those who would today throw Jesus overboard to lighten the ship. But He bids us be still and trust implicitly. A first trust in God, His power and goodness, therein lies the only hope of the world. It is the one stabilizing factor in the present world chaos.

"Let me call upon you brethren, Firemen, Council, everyone, to do that most important thing when safety is jeopardized. Trust in God, exercise self-control and self-government."

On their return from the serving a vote of thanks was passed by the Council and Firemen to Rev. Mr. Thompson for his cordial welcome and splendid sermon.

Marshall Re-union

On Saturday, July 1st, the fourth annual re-union of the Marshall clan was held at the home of Mr. Richard Marshall, Limehouse. Members of the family tree from North Bay, Toronto, Hamilton, Erin, Orton, Acton, Georgetown, Scotch Block and Asbury Park, N.J., attended. In all about 84 members spent a very happy afternoon making and renewing acquaintances. The afternoon was spent in games, contests and races. About six o'clock, a happy, hungry bunch sat down to well-filled tables of good things.

After supper prizes were distributed to those who were successful in the sports of the afternoon, and a prize was presented to Mrs. Andrew Scott as the oldest lady present, to Richard Marshall as the oldest gentleman present, and to Col. and Mrs. Stephen Marshall who came the greatest distance to attend.

With the President, Mr. Alfred Marshall, in the chair, the business part of the programme was given its place. After considerable discussion it was decided to hold the next re-union on July 1st, 1934, at the same place. The following officers were elected for next year:—

President—Thos. Marshall, Erin.
Secretary—Allan Marshall, Acton.
Sports Convenor—Gordon Marshall, Erin.
Lunch Convenor—Mrs. Thos. Marshall, Erin.

A hearty vote of thanks was tendered all who took part in making the afternoon a success, and to Mr. Richard Marshall in particular, for the use of his home. A wonderful day was finished up by participation in a softball game by both young and old.

CORRESPONDENCE

Georgetown, July 4th, 1933.

Editor Herald.

Dear Sir:

The Band with their wives, sweethearts and children have been invited to Wilcox Beach on July 18th. The difficulty is transportation. We would welcome the co-operation of the citizens who have cars and time to communicate with the President, Mr. Magloughlen.

It would be a pleasant trip for all those who care to go. The Band will be playing.

If the citizens could help us in this matter we would be pleased.

Yours,
A Bandsman, W. Diggins.

SCOUT NEWS

Last week a very successful meeting was conducted by Mr. C. Davis, S.M., despite the inclement condition of the weather. The meeting which lasted from 7.30 until 8.15 was filled with scout activities and several outdoor games were also enjoyed.

Two important additions have been made to the scout half-dozen, a bugle, and a dog. And both these help greatly to keep unwelcome visitors away. However, the scout who intends upon blowing his bugle early in the morning, judging by his efforts, must certainly have been intended for some other artistic career.

On Thursday evening the group committee held its first meeting and plans were discussed for raising funds for a summer camp. The members at present are: chairman, Mr. G. Farmer; chaplain, Rev. Mr. W. G. G. Thompson; Mr. L. W. Dann, Mr. R. Kennerman, Mr. C. Emery.

The 1st Georgetown Troop will assist at St. George's Anglican Church Fair, on July 13th, and they also hope to take part in the parade.
