MARRIED WILSON-BLAIR-On Baturday, June 30th, 1834, by Rev. T. Palmer, at Bt. Anne's Church, Toronto, Ivari third eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs James Illair, Ocorgetown, Mr. Thomas Wilson, Toronto.

OBITUARY

MES. J. IL DAVIDSON After a lengthy illness, the death occurred on Tursday last, July 17th. of Blanche B. Norton, dearly beloved wife of Mr. J. H. Davidson. Mrs. Davidson was born in Glen Williams and had lived in this district all her life. She was a good neighbor and a kind and loving mother, who will be greatly missed in the home. She is survived by four sons, John, Occil, Alefred and Kenneth, and one daughter, ducting the services. The pall-bearers were: Allan Norton, Pred Norton, Jaa. Norton, M. Reid, John Martin, Chrater Boott. There were many beautiful floral tributes from neighbors and friends.

MER GEORGE MULIIOLIAND Another of Acton's elderly residents and a native of Esquesing Township. passed on when Mrs. Ocorge Mulholland died at her home, Ohurch Bt., in har eighty-fifth year. She had been in gradually failing health for the past two or three years. Mrs. Mulholland was before ter marriage, Catharine Gibbons, a daughter of the late James Gibbons, and was born in Esquesing Township. She had spent all her life in this district. The farm at lots 23 and 34, on the first line in Esquesing, was the farm home of Mr. and Mrs. Mulholland until her husband's death, in January, 1911. About eleven years ago she removed with har family to Acton and resided in the comfortable home, at the corner of Churck and Eigin streets. She was a mother who put her home and her church interests first. She was a deyout member of Bt. Joseph's Church Acton. A family of nine children remain to revere the memory of this devoted mother. They are: John in Vancouver: Missee Annie, Nellie and Irene, and George, at home; Mrs. Traynor, Owen Bound: Mrs. O'Reilly Joseph and James in Georgetown. Two sisters, Mrs. Clancy of Rochester, N.Y. and Mrs. Egerton, Toronto; and one brother, James Oibbons, on the homestead, also remain. To these bereaved ones the sympathy of all goes out as this time. The funeral on Wednesday morning, in St. Joseph's Church was largely attended by friends from this district and from Toronto, Hamilton, Stratford, Rochester, N.Y., and Owen Bound. The service was in charge of Rev. Pather Mollride, at the church and the graveside in Dublin Cametery. The palibearers were Mesers, Donald Waldie, Duncan, Waldie. Wm. Mobertson, Joseph Plynn Thos. Gibbons, and Joseph Gibbons. Georgetown. The mass cards and floral tributes also bore testimony to the coteem of the deceased-Free Press.

EXCISE STAMPS MUST BE ATTIXED TO CIGARETTE PAPER

The excise department of the department of national revenue announces an amendment to the Special War Revenue Act governing cigarette The amendment stated that every retail and wholesale cigarette dealer shall amx to each unstamped packse tield by them for sale, an excise stamp of two cents per hundred leaves per hundred tubes or fraction. For disregarding the new amendment a fine not exceeding $500 will be imposed. Copies of the amendment have been sent out to all dealers listed in the directory, and due warning given, official stated.
