OBITUARY

MRS. GEORGE CLEMENCE

The funeral of the late Mrs. George Clemence, who died in Bronte on Thursday, Aug. 17th, in her 78th year, was held Saturday afternoon from her late residence. Rev. William Brenner, pastor of Brenner Baptist church, Galt, conducted the service, assisted by Mr. Hales of the Bronte Baptist, and Rev. Dr. Howard, of Georgetown. The pallbearers were all relatives, Leroy Sargant, E. Borland, H. Carpenter, of Bronte; Thomas Clemence and Arthur Garneau, of Hamilton, and John D. Clemence, of Burlington. Interment was made in St. Jude's Cemetery, Oakville. Deceased was formerly Elizabeth Baird, and a sister of Mr. A. H. Baird, Palmerston; Misses Emma and Jessie and the late Lovina Baird of Georgetown.

The funeral of the late Lovina Baird took place on Aug. 16th from her late home on Wesleyan street, when the service was conducted by Rev. Dr. Howard, assisted by Rev. Ross Cameron of Streetsville. The pall-bearers were Wm. Cook, Alex Hume, Fred McNally, S. Harrison, F. Kersey and J. H. O'Neill. There were many beautiful floral tributes from the church, relatives and friends.

COLIN BROWN MITCHELL

An esteemed and respected resident of Stewarttown for many years in the person of Colin B. Mitchell, passed away at his home in London, on Wednesday, Aug. 23rd. Deceased was born in Stewarttown in 1859 and educated at the public school. He followed his father in the cooperage business in Stewarttown, where he made flour and apple barrells. He also conducted a general store in the village for many years. About 23 years ago he disposed of his business and moved to West Lorne where he engaged in farming for a few years, later moving to London where he has since resided. Of late years he had not enjoyed the best of health. Besides his wife who was formerly Florence Johnston he is survived by three sons and one daughter, Gordon, Howard, Fred and Otara, all of London. Another daughter Alberta died some years ago. The funeral took place on Friday to Greenwood Cemetery, Georgetown, and was attended by many relatives and old friends in this community. The service was conducted by Rev. Mr. Thompson of the United Church, London.

LIMEHOUSE

Mrs Mills and daughter Helen, who have been visiting with Mrs. Lepoldevin, returned home last week end.

Mr. Mark Given is exhibiting three horse at the Canadian National Exhibition this year. We hope he brings home some good prizes with him.

The Women's Association of the Presbyterian Church held a very successful social evening at the home of Mrs. John Newton on Thursday evening, Aug. 17th. A good musical program was much enjoyed by all and last but not least, a bountiful lunch served by the ladies. The heavy thunderstorm which capped off the evening did not greatly dampen the pleasure of the evening, as every one rejoiced in the rain, which was greatly needed.

Rev. O. Stephenson and family returned home last week from their trip through Western Ontario, and are now spending a few days with friends in Toronto and vicinity.

In the absence of Mr. Stephenson last Sunday, Mr. Johnson, superintendent of the Sunday School, took charge of the service in the United Church.

Mrs. C. Cole visited her brother in Toronto last week and attended the trousseau tea of her niece, Miss Marguerite Iwana.

Mrs. Alf. Marshall and daughter Eileen returned to Toronto on Sunday evening after spending a couple of weeks with her mother, Mrs. Jas. McDowell.

The Girl's Lookout Club held their monthly meeting on Friday evening last at the home of Misses Olive and Jean Given. Miss Willis Price gave a most interesting history of the life of "Ruth" and Miss Olive Given an instructive talk on "How to set a table." Plans were made for holding a concert during the last week in September.

The Women's Institute held an "Antique" tea on Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Wm. Clowdy. Many of the ladies dressed in old fashioned costumes and brought antique articles for display. There were articles exhibited which were anywhere from seventy to one hundred years old. Mrs. Marshall exhibited her first pair of shoes' and wore these to the tea. An enjoyable program was given by members and [illegible] Appleby gave an interesting address and Mrs. Johnson and Miss Sutherland, a very amusing skit, "Taking Photographs." A very pleasant afternoon was finished off by lunch, which, while not altogether 'antique,' was very satisfying.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Milliere of Toledo, are visiting relatives and friends here this week.

Mr. J. Swindlehurst of Ballinafad visited his cousin, Mrs. Marshall, during the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Smethurst attended the wedding of their niece, Miss J. Smethurst, in Acton on Saturday.

Miss Bessie Smethurst of Stewarttown visited her parents during the past week.

Master Stanley Troman of Guelph is spending a week or two with his aunt, Mrs. Arthur Hill.

BASEBALL

A new baseball league has been formed to finish off the season with teams from Georgetown, Acton, Fergus and Hillsburg. The fans will still have a chance to see some good games before the snow comes, as all these teams play good ball, and there will be a silver cup for the winner.

The local team will play two games at home this week, one to-morrow night (Thursday) with Acton and the other on Saturday afternoon with Fergus. Acton and Georgetown always put up a good game and don't miss it to-morrow night. The game starts at 6.15 p.m. sharp.

Following is the complete schedule:
Aug. 26—Fergus at Hillsburg;.
Aug. 28—Georgetown at Acton.
Aug. 30—Hillsburg at Fergus.
Aug. 31—Acton at Georgetown.
Sept. 2—Fergus at Georgetown.
Sept. 3—Hillsburg at Acton.
Sept. 9th—Georgetown at Hillsburg.
Sept. 9—Acton at Fergus.
Sept. 16—Hillsburg at Georgetown.
Sept. 16—Fergus at Acton.
Sept. 30—Georgetown at Fergus.
Sept. 23—Acton at Hillsburg.

GIRLS BEAT NUMBER BAY

The "Blazers" Georgetown Girl's Softball team played the S.O.S.A. team at Number Bay on Monday evening and defeated their opponents by 8 - 6. The girls have a good record this season, having only lost one game.

Presentation of Medals to Lorne Rifles Band

BY MR. C. P. THIELE, PRESIDENT AMATEUR MUSICIANS ASSOCIATION OF CANADA

There was a large gathering at the Park last evening when the Lorne Rifles (Scottish) band gave an excellent musical program and were presented with the medals won in the competition at Waterloo Musical Festival in July. Bandsman Oscar Diggins receiving the gold medal he won in competition at the same time.

Mr. C. P. Thiele of Waterloo, President of Amateur Musicians Association of Canada; also President of the Band Contest Committee of the Canadian National Exhibition was the guest of the evening. He was introduced by Mr. E. Wodson, musical critic of the Toronto Evening Telegram, and an esteemed summer resident of our town.

Mr. Thiele before presenting the medals gave a very pointed address that should be appreciated by our citizens generally. He spoke regarding the effort and enthusiasm necessary to carry on an organization that in three years had been in four contests and always in the money. He wondered if our citizens appreciated their effort and hours of hard labor necessary to establish such a record. He had expected to find a bandstand in Georgetown and said it was not fair to ask such an excellent musical organization to play on a platform such as that in the Park. Are they not worth it? Surely you do not feel that way. Bandsmen today are a high type of citizen and members of boys' bands become better men. Contests inspire bands and promote better musicians while the influence of music on people is inestimable. He would like to see the time come when every child would have a thorough course in music. Georgetown has an excellent band that can be greatly improved by better support. Let your bandsmen know you appreciate them, said the speaker. Give them the support. They have earned their place and deserve it. They deserve double credit for their achievement, having thus far financed themselves without a grant. When councilmen seek your support next year think of your Band."

The following members who took part in the competition at Waterloo were then presented with beautiful silver medals:—

Bandmaster A. H. Perrott.
Bandsman Albert Blanton.
Bandsman Chas. Willson.
Bandsman Ernest Simson.
Bandsman Kenneth Weston.
Bandsman Joseph Carter.
Bandsman Reuben Eason.
Bandsman Wilfred Gill.
Bandsman R. H. Thompson.
Bandsman Cyril Brandford.
Bandsman Roy King.
Bandsman Roy Bradley.
Bandsman Roy Norton.
Bandsman Harvey King.
Bandsman R. Riddall.
Bandsman Thos. Eason.
Bandsman Oscar Diggins.
Sgt. A. C. Herbert.
Bandsman John Shephard.
Bandsman E. R. Magloughlan.
Bandsman Harry Hale.
Bandsman Harold Wheeler.
Bandsman Walter Diggins.
Bandsman Waldo Diggins.
Bandsman Edward Hallingall.
Bandsman O. Stapleton.

The program rendered was as follows:—

The Maple Leaf—Band.
March—Punjaub—Band.
Trombone Solo—The Trumpeter—Oscar Diggins.
Overture—Champion—Band.
Cornet solo—Schubart's Serenade—Jois Wilcox.
Test Piece C.N.E.—Band.
O Canada—Band.
Regimental March.
Clove Save the King.

Mr. J. Young accompanied the soloists on the piano.

At the conclusion of the programme, Mr. Thiele, and Mr. and Mrs. Wodson were entertained to luncheon at the Golden Gate Cafe by the Committee.

DR. T. McCULLOUGH

Regarding the death of Dr. Thomas McCullough of Chatsworth, brother of Mrs. W. A. Wilson, Georgetown, the Owen Sound Sun-Times has the following:—

Dr. Thomas McCullough, Chatsworth's revered and popular physician for many years, has passed away. His death came on Monday following an illness extending over a period of years, during which time he had been able to be up and about from time to time. His last and fatal illness was of about two weeks duration.

The late Dr. McCullough had practiced his profession in Chatsworth from the time of his graduation, and he was known throughout the surrounding country in the highest esteem as a physician, a friend and a gentleman. His passing, while not unexpected, will be sincerely regretted in the community. He was in his 74th year.

The late Dr. McCullough was born in Halton county near Georgetown on September 30th, 1859, son of the late Hugh and Lily A. McCullough. He received his early education at School District No. 16, 7th Line, township of Esquesing, and at Brampton High School. He taught school near Elora, for a couple of years and entered Trinity College, Toronto, and graduated with the degree of M.D., C.M., in 1883. He took post-graduate work at the Royal College of Physicians at Edinburgh, Scotland (L.R.C.P.). He practiced for some months at Bedford, and then moved to Chatsworth, where he was in active practice for almost forty years.

In 1922 he contracted influenza, and from that time until his death he had not been enjoying good health, and had practiced very little since that time. He was married in September, 1886, to Miss Martha A. Breese, daughter of the late William Breese, of Chatsworth. There were two children born, T. Hugh B. McCullough, publisher of the Weyburn Review, Weyburn, Sask., and Vera, who died in infancy in 1900. He is survived by his wife and son, three grandchildren, Beth, Jean and Jacqueline, of Weyburn, Sask.; three sisters, Mrs. R. Barret, and Mrs. W. A. Wilson, Georgetown, and Miss L. A. McCullough, Owen Sound, and one brother, Allan McCullough, of Tacoma, Wash.

Deceased was a Presbyterian in religion, but went to the United Church when the union was effected in 1925, and was a Liberal in politics. He was a public-spirited and highly esteemed citizen, and was intensely interested in the welfare of the people of Chatsworth and surrounding communities. He served the village as its Reeve for one year, and was Medical Officer of Health for the village and the township of Sullivan until he gave up the practice of his profession.

In fraternal circles he was a member by affiliation of North Star Lodge, No. 320, A.F. and A.M., but his mother lodge is Roman Eagle, No. 6, Edinburgh, Scotland, one of the oldest Masonic lodges in existence.

Friends and former patients from all over the surrounding district, as well as many friends and relatives from a distance, gathered here on Thursday afternoon to pay a last tribute to Dr. Thomas McCullough, who passed away on Monday.

A service was held at his late residence at 2.30 p.m. and afterward the cortege left for Greenwood Cemetery, Owen Sound, the remains being laid to rest in the Mausolrum there. There were a great number of relatives and friends present at the house and many cars followed the remains to Owen Sound. At the cemetery some friends were found waiting to pay their last tribute to the deceased. A large number of floral tributes were a silent testimony to the high esteem in which deceased has been held.

Hundreds of old friends paid their respects during the days the body was lying at his home.

The honorary pallbearers were old friends of the deceased, Messrs. H. W. Horton, Jas. Minorgan, O. W. Collins, A. O. Ohlsholm, W. J. McNabb and A. McGillivray.

The pall-bearers were Messrs. Stephen, John and William Breese of Chatsworth, Wm. Breese and Wm. Norval of Owen Sound, and Mr. William Wilson of Georgetown.

Rev. Crossley Krug of Chatsworth United Church, of which the late Dr. McCullough was a faithful member, had charge of the service. He was assisted by Rev. John McKinnon of Owen Sound, a personal friend of the late Dr. McCullough, and a former minister at Chatsworth.

Rev. Mr. McKinnon paid a high tribute to the late Dr. McCullough, laying stress on the work deceased had done for the community in the conduct of his professional duties and calling attention to the high esteem in which deceased was held by all who knew him.

Rev. Mr. Krug, in his remarks, stated: "The confidence of the Christian should be the confidence of the Psalmist when he said: 'When I am awake I am still with Thee' (Psalm 139, vs. 18). Then we face the unknown without fear and triumph before the mystery of life and death. It is sad to lose one who played his part well. But because he lived as he did, our's is the greater challenge. In the midst of sadness let there be a deep sense of joy and rejoicing in the face of an unbroken spiritual fellowship." In closing Rev. Mr. Krug quoted Tennyson's "Crossing the Bar."
