The bridesmaid, Miss Vivian Hustler, cousin of the bride, were a corn colored taffets dress and black satan turban and carried sweetheart roses and delphinuim. Mr. John Bird, brother of the groom acted as groomsman. During the signing of the register, Mrs. Hector Bird sang "Because," At the reception which followed, the bride's mother were a gown of black georgette and lace and the groom's mother, black satin and lace. Both were corsage bouquets of roses and ferus. A buffet luncheon was served to about sixty guests. Later the bride and groom left on a motor trip to Muskoka, the bride travelling in a skipper blue rabbit's hair swapper suit with gray hat and accessories. Upon their return Mr. and Mrs. Bird will reside on the groom's farm in Esquesing.
