Dr. Oswald C. J. Withrow of To-ronto, addressed a Georgetown audi-ence in the town hall last Thursday night, under the ausices of the local 28.50 COP. Club. The speaker was introduced by Councillor A. Maclaren, chairman of the evening. In a vivid description of prison life and alleged injustices endured by the many men confined within the stone walls of Kingston, Dr. Withrow restarked: "It is no wonder riots occur. We should have a greater growth of statesmen and less of politicians," he asserted in arguing that the penal institutions in Canada should not be

The High School Rugby Team was defeated in an exhibition game by a West Toronto team, 14 to 5. The visiters were a much heavier team than the locals and used their weight to good alvantage. The power plays of the Toronto team were very effective and netted them two touchdowns, both of which were converted. Georgetown's only score came in the third quarter when Duncan received a forward pass from Farnell and raced over the line for a major score. For the visitors, Dennis, the centre-half was the outstanding player, while for the locals, Orichton and Kentner were effective on the defension
