Address and Presentation

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Anthony was the scene of a very happy event. Tuesday evening when Mr. and Mrs. Arnold McHenry (nee Kathleen Evans) were tendered a shower in honor of their recent marriage. Mr. James Cree acted as chairman. A short programme of music was followed by all. Mr. Cree then called on Miss Mary Burrows to read the following address: Dear Kathleen and Arnold: It is with mingled feelings of love and esteem that we, your friends and neighbors, gather round you in this hour of your happiness to extend to you our sincerest congratulations on your recent marriage, and to wish you the most wonderful as well as health, wealth and happiness. You, Kathleen, have lived among us but a few short years, but by the example you set in your home, by the loving devotion and the unswerving care you bestowed on your invalid mother, you have won for yourself our love and respect. You, Arnold, the son of a well-known and respected farmer of the adjoining neighborhood, we have known from childhood and have proved yourself a young man of fine qualities. We rejoice that you are establishing a new home for yourselves and that you are not going far from us. We anticipate with pleasure our continued association with you and wish you every success in your new life. As the hands of time move along may you and your charming young bride always remain bright and shining jewels of the community, and be a type of all that is true and beautiful in which consists all our happiness. Accompanied with our good wishes we ask you to accept this set of dishes as a token of our good will. May you as you use them remind you of your many friends and of this happy occasion. Signed on behalf of your friends and neighbors: William Anthony, Archie Kerr, Frank Freeman, William McDonnell.

Georgetown Juniors Win in First Game of Season

5 TO 3 AGAINST BURLINGTON

Georgetown Juniors easily won the first game in the Junior O.H.A. series by defeating Burlington 5 to 3. There was a good crowd for the game and the spectators were treated to a fine brand of hockey by the local warriors.

The team this year has a lot of new recruits, who are making a promising start in their new role. They are all hard-working players and it will take a good deal of time to get them all back into the game.

So let's all get behind them and give them the support they deserve. Hickey, Wheeler, Lusk, Bradley and Bradley were the goal-keepers of the evening.

Georgetown—Goal, Alcott; defense, Critch and Dewhurst; centre, Ritchie; wings, Mc-Nally, Richardson; alternate, Wheeler, Lusk, Bradley and Collier.

Burlington—Goal, Hadden; defense, Critch and Dewhurst; centre, Ritchie; wings, Mc-Nally, Richardson; alternate, Wheeler, Lusk, Bradley and Collier.

Community Christmas Tree

OVER 500 CHILDREN PRESENT TO GREET MANY A CLAM

There was a large crowd in town on Friday night to greet Miss Clara on her annual visit to the community Christmas tree which was sponsored by the town club.

The tree light procession came down Main Street headed by the Lorne Club Band, followed by the members of the Fire Brigade under the direction of Mr. Long, drawing the real Santa Claus in a sleigh decorated with evergreens, and halted at the corner of Main and Mill Streets.

Miss Clara distributed over 500 packages of toys and candies to the children of Georgetown and vicinity. The band played several selections during the evening.

W. H. Long, chairman of the occasion, invited all a Very Merry Christmas to all the children of the town and vicinity. He also invited the children to contribute to the tree for the coming year.
