SOME MAY
Some day of days, some dawned yet to be,
I shall be clothed with immortality!
And in that day I shall not greatly care
That this split candle greases upon the stair.
It will not grieve me then, as once it did
That careless hands have chipped my lamp.
I grow, being burdened, but in that glad day
I shall forget the weight of the way,
Be for this day I lay low at thy feet,
Oh, keep me sweet, my Master, keep me sweet.

Some are born great, some have greatness thrust upon them, and the rest strive on their nerves.

AN OLD-FASHIONED VALENTINE
To-day, were I to walk for miles,
And search the shops in every town,
I could not buy with tears or smiles,
Or with my silver coins laid down,
So sweet a thing—and call it mine—
As this old-fashioned valentine.

White, gleaming satin, frail clasped hands,
The ivory of old paper lace,
A tiny, flower-tipped stand,
A thing of fragrance and of grace:
A shepherds—with silver crook—
Stands poised beside a meadow

In coat of rose and lavender,
A shepherd led across the stream
Holds eager, reaching arms to her,
His face alight with love's white gleam.
Oh, shepherd boy—it has grown late!
The years, the years, are long to wait!

Pale pink, bright blue, and deep
violet blue,
No other in the world more clear,
The notes a silver trumpet blow,
The breathless feel of wings is here
All clean, bright things that shine
and shine
Are held in this old valentine.

JESUS' POWER TO HELP
International Uniform Sunday School Lesson

GOLDEN TEXT: "I will have mercy, and not sacrifice; for I am not come to call the righteous, but sinners." Matthew 9:13.

LESSON PARABLE: Matthew 9:1-13. Love thyself last. Look not, behold thy duty.

To those who walk beside the downy life road:
Make glad their days by little acts of beauty,
And help them bear the burden of earth's load.

Love thyself last. Look far, and find the stranger
Who staggers with his sin and his despair;
Go lend a hand and lead him out of danger,
To heights where he may see the world is fair.

A Band of Followers:
It is not fanciful for occupational groups to think of Jesus as interested in themselves. Carpenters do not forget that Jesus worked in a carpenter's shop. Fishermen recall that on one occasion he directed the placing of their nets, and that he called Nathanael to become a fisher of men. Farmers delight in his parables of growth. A cowboy was impressed by the fact that Jesus rode upon an Arabian stallion. Naturalists bear him saying, "Consider the lilies," and "Behold the birds of the air." The student of the life of Jesus as a preacher, and missionaries quote the saying, "God had only one Son, and that Son was a missionary. Through Jesus lived among non-believing people, the fathers have bonded with him. General times he crossed the Sea of Galilee with his disciples. He preached from a boat on the lake, he slept through a stormy wave, and he had a fire on the shore awaiting the landing of his weary father folk. He has a name, not a High Priest who cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities. His personal example on earth gave him sympathy with our vocational interests and problems.

ONTARIO LEGISLATURE
Continuing criticism of the Government's educational policies and procedure in its recent session, Premier Henry charged the Liberals with deliberately attempting to convince the public that education was being neglected, while at the same time, the department is being administered as efficiently as it ever has been. He pointed out that the present $10,000,000 loan, the Premier struck back at the Liberals' charge that the Premier's budget was a "budget of the Drury administration," the province would have been able to pay the money today at less cost, and far more cheaply, in the Drury government, the rate had been six per cent in comparison to the present cost of 4 1/2 per cent.

The Premier also indicated that the Premier's budget was a "budget of the Drury administration," the province would have been able to pay the money today at less cost, and far more cheaply, in the Drury government, the rate had been six per cent in comparison to the present cost of 4 1/2 per cent.
