Description (Section 1984) Section (Section 1984) try Paper Most Emportant. Arthur Brisbane, the recognised dean of American editorial writers, to a recent artisle cays:

The smaller newspapers of the country are the most important newspapers, and incidentally in proportion to their circulation their advertising results are biggest and their advertry. They are read through from sad to end Every copy of circulation means an entire family, not a family that lives in eas room with a can opener, but a family that owns its house and lands around it, at least ninety times out of a hundred; a family that buye everything from the roof on the house, to the rement on the cellar floor, from hate on melbor's head to show on the boy's feet. the service that their publishers resider to the publis, is in my opinion, the most important service by any class of citizens in Canada. The country editors are distributors of informaation; they reach the minds of the boys that leave the farms, and they are the nation's mental police fores," -Lindsay (Ont.) Post.

sold until it has reached the hands of the man or woman who actually intends to use it. "The manufacturer, in order to sell the right people the right article at the right price in the right place at the right time, must not leave his marketing to the haphazard channels by which so many excellent commodities to-day reach the consumer. Marketing must advance step by step with making. The methods employed must sell more goods at less cost to informed customers who demand them. The modern factor in this business which alone can secure the co-operation of distributors, can find markets, can inform customers, and can reduce the cost of the whole operation, is advertising.

"The United States was the first country to discover that selling is made easier by the creation of 'pull' from the customer than by the exclusive use of 'push' from the manufacturer.

"One of the effects of the advance of popular education has been to make the reading of newspapers a universal habit. This in turn has built up the very large aggregate sales of newspapers to-day, and has placed at the disposal of advertisers the most economical producer of 'pull' so far discovered.

"Markets, I say, are only people, and newspaper advertising is demonstratably the most certain and economical and the simplest method of placing a sales message before the people. As an Englishman I take off my hat to those Americans who have led the way in sales publicity. We in Britain are benefitting by their example. We try to get right through to the people."
