

Spring News

AT
SILVER'S

THIS YEAR, AS ALWAYS, LET SILVER'S SUPPLY YOU WITH YOUR NEW SPRING OUTFIT.

A visit to our store will readily show you that this Spring's selections at SILVER'S are more vast than ever. There are about three weeks till Easter and now is the time to get that suit, coat or dress.

Remember Silver's DEFERRED PAYMENT PLAN and Silver's unapproachable values make this the ideal store for Easter shopping.

H. Silver

"Where Your Dollar Goes Farther"

PHONE 378

PURE FOOD STORE...

24 lb. Bag Monarch Pastry Flour 75c

Cold Medal Brand Fancy Asparagus Tips, per tin 25c

Lynn Valley Golden Bantam Corn (buffet size) tin 8c

Tall Tin Red Star Brand Fancy Red Coho Salmon, tin 23c

Domolok Guaranteed Pure Molasses, tin 25c

9 oz. Bottle Rose Brand Stuffed Olives 25c

Guest Brand Choice Boneless Chicken, per tin 29c

Dunbar Brand Shrimp, tin 19c

5 1/4 lb. Bag Toasted Flaked Wheat Berries 25c

Kraft or Chateau Cheese (plain or pimento) pkg. 14c

Small Bottle Gold Medal Pure Marmalade 10c

2 x 1 lb. Pkgs. Pure Lard 21c

CHOICE FRESH FRUIT AND VEGETABLES AT RIGHT PRICES

A. E. FARRELL
PHONE 75 WE DELIVER

The Examination of Your Eyes

FUL-VU Glasses are in Style should wear. We employ the most modern scientific equipment, and the newest of proven methods of examination. The results, under our system, are as certain as human effort can make them.

O. T. WALKER, R.O.
OPTOMETRIST, EVERSHINE SPECIALIST, Brantford
who is at DANN'S DRUG STORE, Georgetown, the second Wednesday

Or you may consult O. T. Walker at his office in Brantford

I. D. A. Drug Specials

SEE OUR I.D.A. AD IN WEDNESDAY, MAR. 14th DAILY STAR AND MAR. 15th TELEGRAM FOR FULL LIST

Squibb Tooth Paste 3 for 54c Absorbine, Jr. 54c
Lifeshop Soap 3 for 15c Bronchial Cough Syrup 66c
G. C. & B. Talcum 50c and $1.00 Italian Balm 22c, 25c, 27c
Castoria 54c Cream Roast 55c, 58c
Kleenex Tooth Paste 15c Gillette Blue Blades 5 for 25c
500 KOLYNOS TOOTH PASTE and SILVER TEASPOON 45c

DANN'S I. D. A. DRUG STORE
PHONE 327 PHONE US YOUR ORDERS GEORGETOWN
We Deliver Promptly

When Your RADIO Needs Attention

Please remember that you have a fully qualified Radio Service Engineer available locally.

HUGH LINDSAY
Member Radio Manufacturers Service and Official Radio Service Men's Association
PHONE 33-J GEORGETOWN

FARM IMPLEMENTS

We are again handling the famous PROBY and WOOD and COOKSBURG Farm Implements.

BINDERS, MOWERS, HAY LOADERS, DISCS, SEED DRILLS, HARROWS, SPRING TOOTH HARROWS, CULTIVATORS, PLOWS MANURE SPREADER, ETC.

We will supply repair parts for any of the above machines. Also a full line of shares for all makes of Cooksbury Plows

YOUR PATRONAGE WILL BE APPRECIATED

J. N. O'Neill & Son
Phone 14 Georgetown

DECEASED
BELL—At Halesworth, on Friday, Mar. 10th, 1934, Margaret Bell, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. George Bell, in her 84th year.

GILLIES—In Georgetown, on Sunday, March 11th, 1934, Mary J. Gillies, in her 80th year. Sister of the late John Gillies.

REED—At Regina Park, on Friday, March 10th, 1934, Lucinda Claridge, widow of the late Harry A. Reed, in her 81st year.

SPICHT—In Georgetown, on Tuesday, March 12th, 1934, Thomas J. Spicht, 60, husband of Cecilia McCauley, in his 71st year. The funeral will be held from his residence, 128 Queen Street, Georgetown, on Wednesday, March 13th, at 2:30 p.m., interment in Putney Cemetery.

THOMAS J. SPICHT
IN LOVING MEMORY OF CHARLES NORTON, WHO DIED MARCH 12th, 1929
"Not one day forgotten"—Wife and Family

THOMAS J. SPICHT

Georgetown to day mourns the loss of another good citizen in the person of Thomas J. Spicht, who passed away yesterday morning at his home on Queen Street. The funeral service will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 p.m. at the United Methodist Church, Georgetown. Action Obituary will be published next issue.

MRS. JANE ROBERTSON

In the death of Jane Fisher, widow of the late James Robertson, who passed away Monday, March 12th, 1934, at her home, she was a well-known and highly esteemed citizen, who will be mourned by a wide circle of friends.

Her husband died about two years ago, leaving three sons and one daughter, John, of Acton, and Bill, Harry, Horace, and Mrs. H. M. Pettit, Burlington. The funeral took place yesterday afternoon at 2:30 p.m. at the United Methodist Church, Georgetown. A large number of people largely attended, the service being conducted by Rev. Mr. Hoyd.—Champus.

MARY JANE GILLIES

Another of Georgetown's oldest and most highly esteemed citizens, she passed away at the home of Mrs. J. A. Tracy, Georgetown, where she had made her home for the past eight years. She was the only daughter of the late Neil Gillies and Joann Reid and was born in Georgetown 70 years ago on the farm now owned by Mr. and Mrs. John Reid.

The deceased was a widow of Mr. Neil Gillies, who died in 1911, and John and Duncan, who was a member of Knox Church, Georgetown for many years. The funeral service was conducted by Rev. Mr. Hoyd, the pall-bearers being conducted by Rev. Mr. Hoyd, Mr. Walter Lawson, H. P. Larson, J. J. Thompson and John Standish. Interment was made in Greenwood Cemetery, Georgetown.

MRS. H. A. REED

On Friday evening, at a Regina home, there passed away, after an illness of three months, Mrs. H. A. Reed, 204 Rossland St. She had been home one week ago, from the effects of which she had never fully recovered.

Mrs. Reed was born April 10th, 1865, at the home of Mrs. Henry Clarendon, early settler near Brampton, in Peel County, Ontario, where she spent her early years and received her education at the local school.

After her marriage to Mr. Reed, she resided near Georgetown in Halton County. In 1911 her husband passed away, leaving the care of their two sons to Mrs. Reed. She then moved to Brantford, Ontario, where she worked for a short time, and then moved to Galt, Ontario, where she taught in the Methodist Church, and also taught in the public schools. After her marriage to Henry A. Reed, she resided near Georgetown in Halton County. In 1911 her husband passed away, leaving the care of their two sons to Mrs. Reed. She then moved to Brantford, Ontario, where she worked for a short time, and then moved to Galt, Ontario, where she taught in the Methodist Church, and also taught in the public schools. After her marriage to Henry A. Reed, she resided near Georgetown in Halton County. In 1911 her husband passed away, leaving the care of their two sons to Mrs. Reed. She then moved to Brantford, Ontario, where she worked for a short time, and then moved to Galt, Ontario, where she taught in the Methodist Church, and also taught in the public schools. After her marriage to Henry A. Reed, she resided near Georgetown in Halton County. In 1911 her husband passed away, leaving the care of their two sons to Mrs. Reed. She then moved to Brantford, Ontario, where she worked for a short time, and then moved to Galt, Ontario, where she taught in the Methodist Church, and also taught in the public schools. After her marriage to Henry A. Reed, she resided near Georgetown in Halton County. In 1911 her husband passed away, leaving the care of their two sons to Mrs. Reed. She then moved to Brantford, Ontario, where she worked for a short time, and then moved to Galt, Ontario, where she taught in the Methodist Church, and also taught in the public schools. After her marriage to Henry A. Reed, she resided near Georgetown in Halton County. In 1911 her husband passed away, leaving the care of their two sons to Mrs. Reed. She then moved to Brantford, Ontario, where she worked for a short time, and then moved to Galt, Ontario, where she taught in the Methodist Church, and also taught in the public schools. After her marriage to Henry A. Reed, she resided near Georgetown in Halton County. In 1911 her husband passed away, leaving the care of their two sons to Mrs. Reed. She then moved to Brantford, Ontario, where she worked for a short time, and then moved to Galt, Ontario, where she taught in the Methodist Church, and also taught in the public schools. After her marriage to Henry A. Reed, she resided near Georgetown in Halton County. In 1911 her husband passed away, leaving the care of their two sons to Mrs. Reed. She then moved to Brantford, Ontario, where she worked for a short time, and then moved to Galt, Ontario, where she taught in the Methodist Church, and also taught in the public schools. After her marriage to Henry A. Reed, she resided near Georgetown in Halton County. In 1911 her husband passed away, leaving the care of their two sons to Mrs. Reed. She then moved to Brantford, Ontario, where she worked for a short time, and then moved to Galt, Ontario, where she taught in the Methodist Church, and also taught in the public schools. After her marriage to Henry A. Reed, she resided near Georgetown in Halton County. In 1911 her husband passed away, leaving the care of their two sons to Mrs. Reed. She then moved to Brantford, Ontario, where she worked for a short time, and then moved to Galt, Ontario, where she taught in the Methodist Church, and also taught in the public schools. After her marriage to Henry A. Reed, she resided near Georgetown in Halton County. In 1911 her husband passed away, leaving the care of their two sons to Mrs. Reed. She then moved to Brantford, Ontario, where she worked for a short time, and then moved to Galt, Ontario, where she taught in the Methodist Church, and also taught in the public schools. After her marriage to Henry A. Reed, she resided near Georgetown in Halton County. In 1911 her husband passed away, leaving the care of their two sons to Mrs. Reed. She then moved to Brantford, Ontario, where she worked for a short time, and then moved to Galt, Ontario, where she taught in the Methodist Church, and also taught in the public schools. After her marriage to Henry A. Reed, she resided near Georgetown in Halton County. In 1911 her husband passed away, leaving the care of their two sons to Mrs. Reed. She then moved to Brantford, Ontario, where she worked for a short time, and then moved to Galt, Ontario, where she taught in the Methodist Church, and also taught in the public schools. After her marriage to Henry A. Reed, she resided near Georgetown in Halton County. In 1911 her husband passed away, leaving the care of their two sons to Mrs. Reed. She then moved to Brantford, Ontario, where she worked for a short time, and then moved to Galt, Ontario, where she taught in the Methodist Church, and also taught in the public schools. After her marriage to Henry A. Reed, she resided near Georgetown in Halton County. In 1911 her husband passed away, leaving the care of their two sons to Mrs. Reed. She then moved to Brantford, Ontario, where she worked for a short time, and then moved to Galt, Ontario, where she taught in the Methodist Church, and also taught in the public schools. After her marriage to Henry A. Reed, she resided near Georgetown in Halton County. In 1911 her husband passed away, leaving the care of their two sons to Mrs. Reed. She then moved to Brantford, Ontario, where she worked for a short time, and then moved to Galt, Ontario, where she taught in the Methodist Church, and also taught in the public schools. After her marriage to Henry A. Reed, she resided near Georgetown in Halton County. In 1911 her husband passed away, leaving the care of their two sons to Mrs. Reed. She then moved to Brantford, Ontario, where she worked for a short time, and then moved to Galt, Ontario, where she taught in the Methodist Church, and also taught in the public schools. After her marriage to Henry A. Reed, she resided near Georgetown in Halton County. In 1911 her husband passed away, leaving the care of their two sons to Mrs. Reed. She then moved to Brantford, Ontario, where she worked for a short time, and then moved to Galt, Ontario, where she taught in the Methodist Church, and also taught in the public schools. After her marriage to Henry A. Reed, she resided near Georgetown in Halton County. In 1911 her husband passed away, leaving the care of their two sons to Mrs. Reed. She then moved to Brantford, Ontario, where she worked for a short time, and then moved to Galt, Ontario, where she taught in the Methodist Church, and also taught in the public schools. After her marriage to Henry A. Reed, she resided near Georgetown in Halton County. In 1911 her husband passed away, leaving the care of their two sons to Mrs. Reed. She then moved to Brantford, Ontario, where she worked for a short time, and then moved to Galt, Ontario, where she taught in the Methodist Church, and also taught in the public schools. After her marriage to Henry A. Reed, she resided near Georgetown in Halton County. In 1911 her husband passed away, leaving the care of their two sons to Mrs. Reed. She then moved to Brantford, Ontario, where she worked for a short time, and then moved to Galt, Ontario, where she taught in the Methodist Church, and also taught in the public schools. After her marriage to Henry A. Reed, she resided near Georgetown in Halton County. In 1911 her husband passed away, leaving the care of their two sons to Mrs. Reed. She then moved to Brantford, Ontario, where she worked for a short time, and then moved to Galt, Ontario, where she taught in the Methodist Church, and also taught in the public schools. After her marriage to Henry A. Reed, she resided near Georgetown in Halton County. In 1911 her husband passed away, leaving the care of their two sons to Mrs. Reed. She then moved to Brantford, Ontario, where she worked for a short time, and then moved to Galt, Ontario, where she taught in the Methodist Church, and also taught in the public schools. After her marriage to Henry A. Reed, she resided near Georgetown in Halton County. In 1911 her husband passed away, leaving the care of their two sons to Mrs. Reed. She then moved to Brantford, Ontario, where she worked for a short time, and then moved to Galt, Ontario, where she taught in the Methodist Church, and also taught in the public schools. After her marriage to Henry A. Reed, she resided near Georgetown in Halton County. In 1911 her husband passed away, leaving the care of their two sons to Mrs. Reed. She then moved to Brantford, Ontario, where she worked for a short time, and then moved to Galt, Ontario, where she taught in the Methodist Church, and also taught in the public schools. After her marriage to Henry A. Reed, she resided near Georgetown in Halton County. In 1911 her husband passed away, leaving the care of their two sons to Mrs. Reed. She then moved to Brantford, Ontario, where she worked for a short time, and then moved to Galt, Ontario, where she taught in the Methodist Church, and also taught in the public schools. After her marriage to Henry A. Reed, she resided near Georgetown in Halton County. In 1911 her husband passed away, leaving the care of their two sons to Mrs. Reed. She then moved to Brantford, Ontario, where she worked for a short time, and then moved to Galt, Ontario, where she taught in the Methodist Church, and also taught in the public schools. After her marriage to Henry A. Reed, she resided near Georgetown in Halton County. In 1911 her husband passed away, leaving the care of their two sons to Mrs. Reed. She then moved to Brantford, Ontario, where she worked for a short time, and then moved to Galt, Ontario, where she taught in the Methodist Church, and also taught in the public schools. After her marriage to Henry A. Reed, she resided near Georgetown in Halton County. In 1911 her husband passed away, leaving the care of their two sons to Mrs. Reed. She then moved to Brantford, Ontario, where she worked for a short time, and then moved to Galt, Ontario, where she taught in the Methodist Church, and also taught in the public schools. After her marriage to Henry A. Reed, she resided near Georgetown in Halton County. In 1911 her husband passed away, leaving the care of their two sons to Mrs. Reed. She then moved to Brantford, Ontario, where she worked for a short time, and then moved to Galt, Ontario, where she taught in the Methodist Church, and also taught in the public schools. After her marriage to Henry A. Reed, she resided near Georgetown in Halton County. In 1911 her husband passed away, leaving the care of their two sons to Mrs. Reed. She then moved to Brantford, Ontario, where she worked for a short time, and then moved to Galt, Ontario, where she taught in the Methodist Church, and also taught in the public schools. After her marriage to Henry A. Reed, she resided near Georgetown in Halton County. In 1911 her husband passed away, leaving the care of their two sons to Mrs. Reed. She then moved to Brantford, Ontario, where she worked for a short time, and then moved to Galt, Ontario, where she taught in the Methodist Church, and also taught in the public schools. After her marriage to Henry A. Reed, she resided near Georgetown in Halton County. In 1911 her husband passed away, leaving the care of their two sons to Mrs. Reed. She then moved to Brantford, Ontario, where she worked for a short time, and then moved to Galt, Ontario, where she taught in the Methodist Church, and also taught in the public schools. After her marriage to Henry A. Reed, she resided near Georgetown in Halton County. In 1911 her husband passed away, leaving the care of their two sons to Mrs. Reed. She then moved to Brantford, Ontario, where she worked for a short time, and then moved to Galt, Ontario, where she taught in the Methodist Church, and also taught in the public schools. After her marriage to Henry A. Reed, she resided near Georgetown in Halton County. In 1911 her husband passed away, leaving the care of their two sons to Mrs. Reed. She then moved to Brantford, Ontario, where she worked for a short time, and then moved to Galt, Ontario, where she taught in the Methodist Church, and also taught in the public schools. After her marriage to Henry A. Reed, she resided near Georgetown in Halton County. In 1911 her husband passed away, leaving the care of their two sons to Mrs. Reed. She then moved to Brantford, Ontario, where she worked for a short time, and then moved to Galt, Ontario, where she taught in the Methodist Church, and also taught in the public schools. After her marriage to Henry A. Reed, she resided near Georgetown in Halton County. In 1911 her husband passed away, leaving the care of their two sons to Mrs. Reed. She then moved to Brantford, Ontario, where she worked for a short time, and then moved to Galt, Ontario, where she taught in the Methodist Church, and also taught in the public schools. After her marriage to Henry A. Reed, she resided near Georgetown in Halton County. In 1911 her husband passed away, leaving the care of their two sons to Mrs. Reed. She then moved to Brantford, Ontario, where she worked for a short time, and then moved to Galt, Ontario, where she taught in the Methodist Church, and also taught in the public schools. After her marriage to Henry A. Reed, she resided near Georgetown in Halton County. In 1911 her husband passed away, leaving the care of their two sons to Mrs. Reed. She then moved to Brantford, Ontario, where she worked for a short time, and then moved to Galt, Ontario, where she taught in the Methodist Church, and also taught in the public schools. After her marriage to Henry A. Reed, she resided near Georgetown in Halton County. In 1911 her husband passed away, leaving the care of their two sons to Mrs. Reed. She then moved to Brantford, Ontario, where she worked for a short time, and then moved to Galt, Ontario, where she taught in the Methodist Church, and also taught in the public schools. After her marriage to Henry A. Reed, she resided near Georgetown in Halton County. In 1911 her husband passed away, leaving the care of their two sons to Mrs. Reed. She then moved to Brantford, Ontario, where she worked for a short time, and then moved to Galt, Ontario, where she taught in the Methodist Church, and also taught in the public schools. After her marriage to Henry A. Reed, she resided near Georgetown in Halton County. In 1911 her husband passed away, leaving the care of their two sons to Mrs. Reed. She then moved to Brantford, Ontario, where she worked for a short time, and then moved to Galt, Ontario, where she taught in the Methodist Church, and also taught in the public schools. After her marriage to Henry A. Reed, she resided near Georgetown in Halton County. In 1911 her husband passed away, leaving the care of their two sons to Mrs. Reed. She then moved to Brantford, Ontario, where she worked for a short time, and then moved to Galt, Ontario, where she taught in the Methodist Church, and also taught in the public schools. After her marriage to Henry A. Reed, she resided near Georgetown in Halton County. In 1911 her husband passed away, leaving the care of their two sons to Mrs. Reed. She then moved to Brantford, Ontario, where she worked for a short time, and then moved to Galt, Ontario, where she taught in the Methodist Church, and also taught in the public schools. After her marriage to Henry A. Reed, she resided near Georgetown in Halton County. In 1911 her husband passed away, leaving the care of their two sons to Mrs. Reed. She then moved to Brantford, Ontario, where she worked for a short time, and then moved to Galt, Ontario, where she taught in the Methodist Church, and also taught in the public schools. After her marriage to Henry A. Reed, she resided near Georgetown in Halton County. In 1911 her husband passed away, leaving the care of their two sons to Mrs. Reed. She then moved to Brantford, Ontario, where she worked for a short time, and then moved to Galt, Ontario, where she taught in the Methodist Church, and also taught in the public schools. After her marriage to Henry A. Reed, she resided near Georgetown in Halton County. In 1911 her husband passed away, leaving the care of their two sons to Mrs. Reed. She then moved to Brantford, Ontario, where she worked for a short time, and then moved to Galt, Ontario, where she taught in the Methodist Church, and also taught in the public schools. After her marriage to Henry A. Reed, she resided near Georgetown in Halton County. In 1911 her husband passed away, leaving the care of their two sons to Mrs. Reed. She then moved to Brantford, Ontario, where she worked for a short time, and then moved to Galt, Ontario, where she taught in the Methodist Church, and also taught in the public schools. After her marriage to Henry A. Reed, she resided near Georgetown in Halton County. In 1911 her husband passed away,