Last fall 30 of the 30 pupils contracted chicken pox, but classes were not discontinued.

Injured to Auto Accident
Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Ford had a narrow escape from serious injury on Saturday night when a car driven by a Brampton man, collided with their car. The accident happened between Brampton and Georgetown. Mr. and Mrs. Ford were out about the face, their wounds requiring several stitches and they were otherwise bruised and shaken up. They will both be confined to their homes for a few days. Their many friends wish them a speedy recovery.

Wallers at Orion Lodge
About thirty-five officers and members of Progress Lodge No. 184, Quins, visited Orion Lodge No. 100, I.O.O.F., on Monday, March 19th and conferred the first degree on a class of five candidates, three from Orion Lodge No. 304 and two from Orion Lodge. The degree team was under the capable direction of Past Grand E. Southy with Past District Deputy Grand Master Bro. H. Hunter taking the Noble Grand. Music for the degree was supplied by Bro. J. Sims, H. King and H. McCreighton. District Deputy Grand Master Bro. S. Patterson of District No. 25, District Deputy Grand Master Bro. A. H. Parr and Past District Deputy Grand Master Bro. J. Kennedy of District No. 33 were present. Bro. H. Watkins, Noble Grand of Orion Lodge welcomed the visitors and acted as chairman during the social hour at the close of the lodge. District Deputy Grand Master Bro. S. Patterson spoke on the teachings of the first degree. Bro. K. Zeller of Quins rendered two vocal solos. All joined in singing the National Anthem and so another bright night at Orion Lodge came to a close.

PERSONALS

Mr. J. H. MacKenzie of Georgetown and Mr. Eric Taylor of Paris are on a motor trip to Washington and Atlantic City.
Mr. E. L. Homerville of Hockwood was a visitor in town on Monday. Mr. Homerville has just entered his 81st year and is enjoying the best of health. His many friends in town were pleased to see him.
Last week we received a copy of the American Gladiolus Society Review from our old townman Mr. Frank J. Barber of Charlotte, N.C. Mr. Barber Vice-president of the American Gladiolus Society and the Review contains a long article from his pen on "Successful Varieties in the South." Frank still appreciates the Herald and wishes to be remembered to old friends in town.

Many Enjoyed Irish Play
A large audience viewed the play "Sports, What would you Do?" put on by the Hamilton Players, under the auspices of Holy Cross Church in the Oratory Theatre last Thursday evening. It was full of interest and kept the large audience in continuous laughter. It was one of the best plays seen here in some time. The acting was above the average and was professional in many respects. Those who enjoyed the play were: James V. Kennedy, H. Kain, P. O'Brien, H. Hume, J. O'Keefe, M. Burke, E. Conway, A. O'Rourke and Mrs. H. Conway. Master J. H. MacKenzie, Misses J. Hume, L. Carney and Joseph Wilcox, soloists, entertained the audience to several selections. The play was much enjoyed and appreciated before the curtain rose. Before the last act Master O'Rourke on behalf of Holy Cross Church, thanked the audience for their patronage and the actors for their splendid entertainment. At the close of the play those who took part were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hume.

Mr. Lewis' Lecture
On Monday evening, under the auspices of the Daughters of the Church, a most interesting illustrated lecture, "What would you Do?" put on by the Hamilton Players, under the auspices of Holy Cross Church, in the Oratory Theatre last Thursday evening. It was full of interest and kept the large audience in continuous laughter. It was one of the best plays seen here in some time. The acting was above the average and was professional in many respects. Those who enjoyed the play were: James V. Kennedy, H. Kain, P. O'Brien, H. Hume, J. O'Keefe, M. Burke, E. Conway, A. O'Rourke and Mrs. H. Conway. Master J. H. MacKenzie, Misses J. Hume, L. Carney and Joseph Wilcox, soloists, entertained the audience to several selections. The play was much enjoyed and appreciated before the curtain rose. Before the last act Master O'Rourke on behalf of Holy Cross Church, thanked the audience for their patronage and the actors for their splendid entertainment. At the close of the play those who took part were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hume.

Statistics prove that of 2522 fatal accidents in Great Britain, in only 25 cases was excessive speed on the part of a driver, motor or car responsible. While only 17 motor-cars and sixteen motor-cycles were travelling at more than forty miles an hour.

INDIGESTION GONE
After Years of Agony
Mr. Robert Henry Ivers, of 275 Bloor Ave., Toronto, writes: "I give you pleasure to tell you how satisfactory your 'Personal' has been to me. I have been troubled for a long time with Gas and Sour Stomach. After taking one bottle of your 'Personal', it gave me instant relief and I feel a different man altogether."
"Personal" will do not just as much good for indigestion, gas, flatulency, headache, and other stomach disorders. The first dose gives relief. The second dose restores the stomach to its normal condition. Hundreds of testimonials are on hand. No matter how long you have been troubled, 'Personal' will help you. $1.00 a bottle.
