"At a church annual social the minister had taken for the subject of his address 'The Perfect Man.' Pausing after an eloquent passage he put this question to his audience: 'Has anyone here ever seen or heard of a perfect man?' After a thrilling silence, a little man stood up at the back and piped:

"Yes, sir, I have."

"You mean to tell me that you have seen or heard of a perfect man?" demanded the incredulous minister.

"I've never seen him, sir, but I've tried hearin' about him," piped the voice.

"And who is he?"

"My wife's first man!"

Me—"Dancing is in my blood, you know."

She—"Then you must have a poor circulation. It hasn't reached your feet yet."

Life Saving Efforts

Nightly, for the lives of men, women and children, is never ceasing struggle in the slaughter-house of Toronto and the Queen's Hospital reports nearly a thousand patients are now being treated for tuberculosis.

Tuberculosis do not fully realize the magnificent work of the unfortunate victims of the dread disease, practically all of whom came from the families of the very poor.

Living in crowded quarters, where sunshine and fresh air are often as scarce as nourishing food, is it any wonder that consumption finds them out?

Tired and weak and tired, their pitiful plight is not a haven awaiting them, but a haven awaiting them, but a haven awaiting them, but
