Success is speaking words of praise.
In cheering other people's ways.
In doing just the best you can
With every task and every day.
It's silence when your speech would hurt.

Birds of a Feather
BY JANE OSBORN

There was always something about the atmosphere of Ontario's streets that made one of the corners where the state highway crossed the old Main Street the place called North Hill. It was there where always a group of people waiting for the bus, some who had bought cigarettes in an office to hang around waiting for the bus, some who were waiting for the bus, some who were waiting for the bus.

There has been much discussion among the scribes as to the meaning of the word "bird". It has been interpreted in many ways, but as a small gas through which came a lead to sleep to many a soul.

Spiritual Rewards, 27-30
In the past century, by reason of the vast natural resources of Canada, it has been an easy matter for some men to acquire great wealth.

Questions for Discussion
1. Are O'Grady's warnings about the dangers of riches taken seriously?
2. How does Jesus choose poor men as disciples?
3. What does it mean to surrender our hearts to Christ?
4. How does religion develop morality?

Our All for the Kingdom

GOLDEN TEXT: "It is more blessed to give than to receive." Acts 20: 35

The rich young ruler asked a good question. He wanted to know what good thing he should do in order that he might inherit eternal life. He had the idea that if he gave enough money faithfully to the poor, he would inherit eternal life.

At the end of the last crop year, July 1st, 1933, there were over 215 million bushels of wheat on hand. On top of that we harvested a crop last fall of over 200 million bushels.

With the onset of campaigns in the air, there is a tendency to forget the needs of the poor. The Liberals are making a show of their interest in the welfare of the people.

Farmers throughout the United States are being urged to reduce their production in order to relieve the surplus situation.

The Ottawa Spotlight
A WEEKLY REVIEW OF NATIONAL AFFAIRS
By William Kesteven
Ottawa, April 18—A bewildering chaos of activity without much accomplishment is the picture which an observer is inclined to apply to the Ottawa scene these days.

On the whole I confess I am not a fan of the Ottawa scene. It is a scene of a city that is trying to find out what the best way is to conduct an inquiry into how the public money is spent, but which is not doing it very well.

My days are years that lead to life's end.
And one by one I steadily ascend.
O'ercoming with purpose true the uphill road.
That brings me to the city of my God.

Sometimes it is a slippery slope I tread,
And have temptations make my soul
But hold me fast, O Christ, my God,
I'll stand firm, O Christ, my God,
I'll stand firm, O Christ, my God.
