Every week finds something new at Huttonville Park. Two black bears have been edied to the park, and now a motor-boat will soon appear on the lake. The management report the greatest June in the higher of our patrons, states the manager, as if conditions are improving. Most seem to be in a better state of mind, and judging from the picnics already booked and the enquiries. July will be another record breaker. Last Friday night three two-pound boxes of chocolates were given away in lucky agot dances. See ad in this week's issue
