Birthday Party

Miss Nellie Parton was guest of honor at her home on Thursday last, the occasion being her 21st birthday. The evening was spent in games and contests, after which all sat down to a delightful supper. The table was centered with a birthday cake with 21 candles. The remainder of the evening was spent in dancing. Every one reports an enjoyable time.

Georgetown Woman Buried

The funeral of Mrs. Ethel E. McCann took place from her late residence here, Monday, to Omagh Presbyterian Cemetery, the Rev. O. M. Easter conducting the service. Mrs. McCann, who was in her 68th year, is survived by three daughters, Mrs. James Clark, Mrs. William Maybanks and Mrs. James Harding, all of Georgetown; and two sons, Milton, Georgetown, and Norman, Oakville. Mr. McCann predeceased her some years ago.

Bride Guest of Honor

Miss Irene Hall, a bride of this month was the guest of honor at a party given by the members of the Willing Helpers Class, St. George's Church, held at the home of Miss Alice Walker, president of the class, last Thursday evening. After indulging in games the class sat down to a dainty supper, following which the bride was presented by the president with a handsome green silk bed spread and pillow, with the good wishes of her classmates. Mr. P. McNally spoke on behalf of the Sunday School. Miss Hall suitably replied.

Miscellaneous Shower

Mrs. S. Walker and her daughter, Miss Alice Walker, entertained at a miscellaneous shower on Monday evening in honor of Miss Irene Hall, whose marriage takes place on Saturday. The house looked lovely with pink and white streamers and bells, centered with a shower bell of pink, white and silver. The gifts in a large clothes basket were brought in by Master George Walker on a wagon. Miss Hall received many beautiful and useful gifts. The evening was spent in cards and games, after which everyone enjoyed a delightful supper. Assisting were Misses Rosalo and Hazel Walker and Mrs. Alfred Collins. Out of town guests were present from Port Hope, Brampton and Toronto.

Social Evening at Limehouse

The Women's Association of the Presbyterian Church held a social evening at the home of Dr. and Miss Sutherland on Friday evening, Sept. 21st. There were about one hundred present. The president, Mrs. A. W. Norton was in the chair. The program opened by singing The Maple Leaf, followed by prayer by Dr. Howard. Piano-duet by Miss Helen McGowan and Miss Helen Meredith. Mr. S. Cosby contributed two solos. Miss McCullough delighted everyone with her recitations. Miss Zimmerman played the violin with Miss H. McGowan at the piano. Mr. and Mrs. J. Nickell also gave some splendid selections on the violin and piano. The Limehouse Orchestra also played and their selections were enjoyed by all. In the draw for the quilt, which the Association made, Mr. A. L. Marshall of Toronto held the lucky number. Following the program a delicious lunch was served.
