IN MEMORIAM
TRACY—In loving memory of James Herbert Tracy, who died October 2nd, 1918, Driver, 6th Battery. We loved him, all, no tongue can tell how much we loved him and how God loved him, too, and thought it best to take him home with Him to rest.—Father, Mother and Brothers Glen Williams

ASHGROVE

A young people's rally was held in Hornby United Church on Thursday evening, Sept. 27th, for the young people's societies of the whole circuit with Rev. H. Byre presiding. Four groups, namely, devotional, missionary, citizenship and social were formed, and a set of suitable questions given to each group to answer. Miss Ruth O'Brien led the community singing, which all young people enjoyed. Social hour followed, and all were together.
Mr. and Mrs. Boynton of Port Perry dined at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. V. Wright a few days ago. Rally Day was observed in the Sunday school on Monday evening, the theme of the Rally Day service—Sunday Schools Around the World—was treated in a most interesting manner. Mrs. Frank Huddell and her daughter, Olga, spent a week with her mother, Mrs. A. Christian of Orangeville.
Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Elwood, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Wilson

BALLINAPAD

The Blue Mountain school was well represented at the school fair which was held at Linscombe school on Tuesday and was successful in bringing home a creditable share of the prizes.
This community was largely represented at the anniversary services at Churchhill on Monday evening, also at the supper and entertainment on Tuesday evening. All report a very enjoyable and enjoyable time.
Thanksgiving services in the United Church on Sunday at which Mr. Woodell will preside. He has already preached his seventy-seventh birthday and desires to celebrate the birthday in this way.
The W.M.S. of the United Church met at the home of Mrs. J. P. Kirkwood on Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. W. F. Booth presiding. Mrs. Kirkwood took the scripture lesson, which was a continuation of the study in the gospel of St. John. Two of the Missions girls, Margaret Binclair and Norma McKernie sang a very pleasing duet. Miss Heta Skirrett gave a very interesting and instructive paper on "Christian Internationalism." The response to the roll call was a very helpful part of the meeting, as each member responded by relating why she was interested in Missions. Arrangements were made for the Autumn Thank-Offering to take place about the middle of October and a very kind invitation was received from the Georgetown Auxiliary to meet with them at their Thank-Offering meeting. The October meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. A. McKay.

LIMEHOUSE

The first real frost of the season visited the vicinity on Sunday night. The vegetable tops and flowers were withered and brown on Monday, giving evidence of the coming cold night and warning us to gather in the garden harvest.
The School Fair held at Limehouse on Tuesday of last week was a wonderful success from every angle. It is estimated there were over 400 people in attendance. The entries in all departments were exceptionally large and of splendid quality, despite the summer drought. The principal prizes were represented and each school carried off a good quota of points and prizes. Limehouse school received some 400 points which is very gratifying in view of the competition in all the entries, especially having over 50 points to its credit. We extend congratulations to Miss Doris Mitchell, who carried off first prize in her class for story-telling.
Mr. and Mrs. Novak from London were visitors with Mrs. E. Marshall on Sunday.

Owing to anniversary services at Churchhill there was no church service at the United Church here on Sunday. Church service will also be withdrawn next Sunday in view of anniversary services in Glen Wiltshire.
