CORRESPONDENCE

HIGH SCHOOL GOLDEN JUBILEE Mr. Joseph M. Moore.

Pinding that the death of Helen Bonner, six-par-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roger Bonner, Noval, who was killed near her home recently when struck by an auto, was "an unavoidable accident," a Brampton coroner's jury found that no blame in the child's death could be statisfied to Hisroid E. Tylor, Toronic, or to Heroid and the Browner teachers and pupils. Personally I look back to the four years I seem Mrs. W. G. O. Thompson and Mrs. L. W. Mrs Winfield, who will act as treasurer for the balance of the year, in place of Mrs. Webster who we regret to say leaves for her new home in Mimico this week.

I passed the Entrance in July, 1806, from Norval Public Echool, under the tuition of the late Mr. It. N. Shortill, who died in Toronto in June, 1934. Two other important events happened that year. Hon. Wilfrid Laurier became Premier of Canada, and Hon. Mitchell Repburn, present Premier of Ontario, was born. Mr. Shortill, to my mind at least, had few equals and no superiors as a teacher of Entrance number. I passed the Entrance in July, 1806, pupils.
