DATED at Blawaritown,

"... So that Our Visitors will be Sorry to Leave"

"If we are going to invite people to this country, we must be honest with them . . . Courtery costs nothing and is one of our greatest tourist assets . . . Let us so treat strangers within our gates that it will be easy for them to come, pleasant for them to stay, and difficult for them to leave."

Rt. Hon. R. B. NENNETT, Press Minister of Counts, to the Constant Assessment of Tearns and Publisher Boress, Neventer 5, 1834.

(anada's tourist activities represent more than a great industry from which everybody benefits. They provide an opportunity to create what the Prime Minister has described as "that feeling of neighbourliness" which is such a vital factor in building up cordial relations within the family of nations.

For both these reasons, may I urge upon the people of Canada the importance of showing consideration, courtesy and honesty to guests of our country? Let us all do those little acts of kindness which count for so much when one travels in a strange land.

We have a beautiful country. We must keep it so. We want our vieltors to travel highways free from disfigurement, walk the streets of cities that are orderly and clean, and find at the end of every day's travel an inviting spot to rest. Canadians should turn their attention was to the important work of preparing for next year's tourist season.

As a nation, we are advertising abroad the attractions of Canada as a holiday land. We must see to it that our guests return home with only the happiest recollections-and the determination to come back again and again.

Nor should we forget, in planning our own vacations, that there are beauties to discover and friendships to be made in our neighbouring provinces. We live in one of the world's most glorious playgrounds - let us learn to know better the rich variety of its travel attractions.

begin between the two countries looking toward a new trade agreement. From what I can gather there is more optimism over the prospects at Washington than at Otiawa. Perhaps there is more anxiety in the United States over the outcome. After all, Canada has long been the best customer in the world of the United States and a few years back we used to buy over $500.500,000 a year of her produce. She used to take over $125.000,000 of our produce in a single year. What between the depression, the Hawley-Smoot tariff and the Hennett high protection policy, this has been cut down to a shadow of its old self. Advices from Washington are to the effect that lower tariffs on our lumber, cattle, liquor and copper are a distinct possibility, if we can make attractive concessions on our side. The chance of getting the present U.S. tariff on fish reduced is not, I am told, so yoay, because of the direction of the Way Youland states.

With the political leaders back-Mr.
Hennett from Calgary, Mesura Mackenzie King and Lapointe from kenzie King and Lapointe from Europe—we can expect from now on a gradual intensification of the political atmosphere, which will only be permanently relieved by a general clection. Resultine the prime minister has promised that the record of his government is going to be revealed. Quite true, Mr. Bennett and his colleagues have worked hard through the depression. Mr. Bennett has been relatively indifferent to the effect of his actions on the party he leads. From now on political considerations are bound to be more important.
