ACTON

To the newly-elected Commissioner H. G. Arnold, goes the honor of being elected by one of the largest majorities ever recorded in Acton.

Mrs. Wm. Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Ellis attended the funeral in Acton on Saturday of the late Mrs. E. Gilbert, a sister of Mrs. Alice Macpherson and the late Wm. Johnson.

Mr. J. Albert ("AB") Robinson was operated upon last Friday evening for appendicitis at Guolph General Hospital. His many friends will be pleased to know he is progressing favorably since the operation.

Mr. and Mrs. A. O. M. Bruyna of Lunenburg, are removing to Acton to the house formerly occupied by Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Jones, on Mill Street. The son, Dr. A. O. M. Bruyna, will reside with them.

While cutting wood in the bush at Crown's Corners yesterday, Mr. Jack Cornell was injured by a falling tree. He was struck by the tree and knocked to the ground, receiving an injury to his chin and a badly bruised back. He was fortunate in escaping with the injuries received and no broken bones. Jack Cornell was sawing a tree while his companions were cutting another tree. In some way the wind blew the tree in his direction, and he was struck to the ground.—Free Press.

It seems to be the belief of almost every woman that she needs someone to help her keep a secret.
