

THE GEORGETOWN HERALD

Sixty-Eighth Year of Publication

The Georgetown Herald, Wednesday Evening, December 19th, 1934

$1.00 per Annum in Advance; $2.00 to U.S.A.

The Georgetown Herald
J. M. MORAN
Publisher and Proprietor
Member Canadian Weekly Newspaper
Association

C.N.R. Time Table
(Standard Time)
Going East
Passenger and Mail	10:30 a.m.
Passenger and Mail	1:37 p.m.
Passenger for Toronto	2:44 p.m.
Passenger's going East	3:45 p.m.
Passenger	3:44 p.m.
Passenger for Toronto	3:44 p.m.
Going West
Passenger and Mail	8:00 p.m.
Passenger and Mail	8:00 p.m.
Passenger and Mail	8:00 p.m.
Passenger, Sunday	11:30 p.m.
Going North
Mail and Passengers	8:45 p.m.
Closed South	8:45 p.m.
Mail and Passengers	8:45 p.m.

TRINITY BUS
New Schedule
LEAVE GEORGETOWN
West
8:30 a.m. 11:30 a.m.
12:30 p.m. 1:30 p.m.
2:30 p.m. 3:30 p.m.
4:30 p.m. 5:30 p.m.
10:30 p.m.
1 Daily except Sunday.
1 Saturday, Sunday and Monday.
EASTERN STANDARD TIME
New Hours
WM. M. LONG'S STORE

ARROW

DIRECTORY

L. ROY DALE
Marinier and Mariner
Georgetown, Ontario
Office—Gregory Theatre Bldg., Mill St.

KENNETH M. LANGDON
Marinier, Mariner, Langdon &
PELTON W. McGRADY, M.D.
Money to Look
Telephone 144—McGrady 144
Glenwood Avenue, Queen St.
BRAMPTON

RANDY, GRAYDON, LAWRENCE &
COOK
Barrie, Ont.
445 Bay St. Toronto, Ont.
H. E. COOK, M.D.
M. Edward Cook
Gordon Graydon 333 Main St. North
Brampton, Telephone 721-2211
Harold Graydon 333 Main St. North
Brampton, Telephone 644

F. H. WATSON, D.O.B., M.D.
Gatineau, Que.
Office Hours—9 to 5, Except Thursday
Afternoons

A. M. NIELSEN
1st Year of Practice
Chiropractor
X-RAY
Drugless Therapist
Lady Attendant
Office over Dominion Store
Georgetown
Hours: 8—8—7:30—9:30 p.m.
Closed Thursday Phone 1146

FRANK PETCH
LICENSED AUTOMOTIVE
for the Committee of Work and Welfare
Prompt Service
Telephone
Cheltenham 5675—Georgetown 6135
Post Office—Cheltenham

Monuments
POLLOCK & INGHAM
Successors to Coker & Worth
Galt, Ont.
Designs on Request—Phone 8445
Inspect our work in Greenwood Cemetery

TAX SALE

IN THE MATTER of the Township's Tax Sale, notice is given of the time and place of sale of taxes in the said Township of Georgetown, and copy of the said tax may be had at my office in the Cheltenham Building, 5675, Cheltenham Street, in the said Township of Georgetown.

AND FURTHER, TAX NOTICE that the said tax is being pursued by the Township of Georgetown, Ontario, October 6th, Saturday, November 1st, and Saturday, December 1st, 1934.

AND FURTHER, TAX NOTICE that under such arrests and could be made at any time, if necessary, to collect the amount of taxes due from the Assessment Act prior to sale by public auction the said lands or so much thereof as may be necessary to discharge the taxes and costs of the Township of Georgetown, in the said Township of Georgetown, at the hour of two o'clock in the forenoon of Wednesday, the ninth day of January, 1935.

DATED at Georgetown, August 29th, 1934. GREGORY THEATRE,
THEATRE OF TOWNSHIP OF GEORGETOWN.

Christmas Greetings

PRE-HOLIDAY FOOD SALE

Mincemeat 2 lbs. 23¢
Jellies Assorted Powders 4 lbs. 19¢
Chateau Cheese 2 lbs. 25¢
Marmalade 22¢
Coffee DATED 3 lbs. 39¢
Peas 2 lbs. 19¢
Pineapple Slices 9¢

PURE LARD 1 lb. 12¢
SHELLLED WALNUTS 1 lb. 33¢
FANCY FIGS 17¢
PITTED DATES 2 lbs. 23¢
MIXED NUTS 2 lbs. 35¢
ANIMAL CRACKERS 5¢
GINGER ALE 15¢
GRAPE JUICE 25¢
WOMAN'S FANCY BISCUITS 23¢
LILLY'S NEW PUSSY WHISKERS 10¢

CANDIES SEE AND SAMPLE OURS
SPECIAL CHOCOLATE DROPS Value 11¢ 2 lbs. 25¢
CHRISTMAS MIXTURE 1 lb. 14¢
CREAMS and JELLIES .15¢
COLORED CUT ROCK .17¢
KISSES or JELLY BEANS 15¢
CHOCOLATES, LILLY'S 99¢
SWEET COCONUT 99¢
SPECIAL DISCOUNT ON QUANTITY

CARROLL'S
GENERAL STORE
ECONOMY LAUNDRIES

For Other Christmas Specials See
Large Hand Bills

Main St. Phone 357 Georgetown

O THE OLD FRIENDS, the tried and true friends, greeting! To the new friends (and may their name be legion, and their charity great) greeting! To all our friends—which means every man, woman and child whose eyes may fall upon this Christmas wish—a Merry Christmas! God bless us every one!

O Hark to the bells—the jubilant, resonant, wonderful bells! The sweetness of their message melts the heart. The grandeur of it thrills the soul. Love is the theme. "For God so loved the world—" "Love is the fulfilling of the law!" "Greater love hath no man than this," and—tenderest note of all—that New Commandment, broken so oft—so oft: "Love one another—even as I— even as I—have loved you!"

O Hark to the bells of Bethlehem! Glory to God in the Highest! Peace on Earth! Peace in our homes; our tired hearts. Good-will to the world! Good-will to our fellowmen—a rare good world! And a rare good people!

O Christmas bells of 1934, ring out the old prejudices, the old mistakes, the old feuds and failures! Ring in a firmer faith, a truer tenderness, a broader brotherhood of men! A Merry Christmas to every one—the best Christmas of all!

That the Christmas Season may be full of joy, and the New Year yield increase of happiness and prosperity for all is the sincere wish of—The Editor.

AT CHRISTMAS-TIME

There's still another Christmas-time With all its weight of frost and rime, Its softly ringing sleigh-bells o'er the snow; Friendship and hearts are filled with joy No tears may Christmas mirth destroy, But lips all smile and eyes with love aglow.

The troubles of the year are passed, Hopes buoyant and despair cast out, For there are many happier days in store;

The sad old year is useless, dead, So, looking cheerfully ahead, Rejoice in Christmas happiness once more.

The hills are draped in white array, Trees decked in silver-grey, Their summits shining golden in the sun;

From out an ivy belfry near, A holly branch hangs clear, Another Christmas service has begun.

And so, rising like an acapella in the quiet of the earth, we discover the spirit of the Child revealing His infinite love for all His children in a visible and practical manner. God so loved the world that He gave of His Immortal Being a part to live and labor and suffer in our very midst and in our own home, that we might come to the Divine and human into the closest possible fellowship.

And so, rising like an acapella in the quiet of the earth, we discover the spirit of self-sacrificing love for the good of all; aiding the needy, guiding the perplexed, cheering the despondent, comforting the weak, inspiring the brave. The spirit of Christ aims at bringing peace and good will into every dark corner of the world.

The spirit of Christmas can never die.

May happy thoughts along your road, Bring you happiness, repose, Till friend meets friend, at Christmas-time once more.

—Katherine Gordon

THE CHRISTMAS SPIRIT

Back to all the outward manifestations of the festive season; behind the grottoes and the snowdrifts, strings in the home, the giving of presents, the crowding to decorated churches, and the singing of joyful hymns, there is a spirit that is the genuine reality to all this exuberant expression. This is the spirit of Christmas.

Leaving all these festivities, we may well ask—what is the spirit of Christmas? It is the spirit of the Mother and the child. It is both parental and divine love in its purest and sweetest form. Christmas is above everything else the children's feast. Let no one be afraid of being human on Christmas day. The closer we come to the heart of the children, the nearer we draw to the Christ of Bethlehem. It is a profound mistake to try to separate human love from divine love. After they were not of the same source. All human love which is truly unselfish flows from the same source. There is no difference between them. This is expressed as clearly by St. John: "God is love and love comes from God. He who loves in love lives in God and God in him."

Religion is not something apart by itself, it comes into our life in an unexpected way. It is that which unites our whole being by giving us a supreme purpose and motive round which we can organize our lives. This is the spirit which reinforces our natural instincts, such as parental and filial love, with a fresh inflow from the spirit and the eternal Religion is that which enables us to realize all our values as to what is highest and best in life. In the Christian realization the Mother and Child are the highest place. "We shall find a home lying in a manger."

The spirit of Christmas, while intensely personal, is also universal. While it brings sunshine into our own dwelling and makes our children happy with laughter, it always carries with it the longing to make other homes brighter and other children happier.

And so, rising like an acapella in the quiet of the earth, we discover the spirit of the Child revealing His infinite love for all His children in a visible and practical manner. God so loved the world that He gave of His Immortal Being a part to live and labor and suffer in our very midst and in our own home, that we might come to the Divine and human into the closest possible fellowship.

In the word the spirit of Christmas is the spirit of self-sacrificing love for the good of all; aiding the needy, guiding the perplexed, cheering the despondent, comforting the weak, inspiring the brave. The spirit of Christmas aims at bringing peace and good will into every dark corner of the world.

The spirit of Christmas can never die.

May happy thoughts along your road,

Bring you happiness, repose, Till friend meets friend, at Christmas-time once more.

—Katherine Gordon

THE CHRISTMAS SPIRIT

WAS A GOOD WASH

Captain Scott and his crew on their return to England by boat had to wash their clothes in a cask of water each, and by washing their shirts, the nearer we draw to the Christ of Bethlehem. It is a profound mistake to try to separate human love from divine love in its purest and sweetest form. Christmas is above everything else the children's feast. Let no one be afraid of being human on Christmas day. The closer we come to the heart of the children, the nearer we draw to the Christ of Bethlehem. It is a profound mistake to try to separate human love from divine love in its purest and sweetest form. Christmas is above everything else the children's feast. Let no one be afraid of being human on Christmas day. The closer we come to the heart of the children, the nearer we draw to the Christ of Bethlehem. It is a profound mistake to try to separate human love from divine love in its purest and sweetest form. Christmas is above everything else the children's feast. Let no one be afraid of being human on Christmas day. The closer we come to the heart of the children, the nearer we draw to the Christ of Bethlehem. It is a profound mistake to try to separate human love from divine love in its purest and sweetest form. Christmas is above everything else the children's feast. Let no one be afraid of being human on Christmas day. The closer we come to the heart of the children, the nearer we draw to the Christ of Bethlehem. It is a profound mistake to try to separate human love from divine love in its purest and sweetest form. Christmas is above everything else the children's feast. Let no one be afraid of being human on Christmas day. The closer we come to the heart of the children, the nearer we draw to the Christ of Bethlehem. It is a profound mistake to try to separate human love from divine love in its purest and sweetest form. Christmas is above everything else the children's feast. Let no one be afraid of being human on Christmas day. The closer we come to the heart of the children, the nearer we draw to the Christ of Bethlehem. It is a profound mistake to try to separate human love from divine love in its purest and sweetest form. Christmas is above everything else the children's feast. Let no one be afraid of being human on Christmas day. The closer we come to the heart of the children, the nearer we draw to the Christ of Bethlehem. It is a profound mistake to try to separate human love from divine love in its purest and sweetest form. Christmas is above everything else the children's feast. Let no one be afraid of being human on Christmas day. The closer we come to the heart of the children, the nearer we draw to the Christ of Bethlehem. It is a profound mistake to try to separate human love from divine love in its purest and sweetest form. Christmas is above everything else the children's feast. Let no one be afraid of being human on Christmas day. The closer we come to the heart of the children, the nearer we draw to the Christ of Bethlehem. It is a profound mistake to try to separate human love from divine love in its purest and sweetest form. Christmas is above everything else the children's feast. Let no one be afraid of being human on Christmas day. The closer we come to the heart of the children, the nearer we draw to the Christ of Bethlehem. It is a profound mistake to try to separate human love from divine love in its purest and sweetest form. Christmas is above everything else the children's feast. Let no one be afraid of being human on Christmas day. The closer we come to the heart of the children, the nearer we draw to the Christ of Bethlehem. It is a profound mistake to try to separate human love from divine love in its purest and sweetest form. Christmas is above everything else the children's feast. Let no one be afraid of being human on Christmas day. The closer we come to the heart of the children, the nearer we draw to the Christ of Bethlehem. It is a profound mistake to try to separate human love from divine love in its purest and sweetest form. Christmas is above everything else the children's feast. Let no one be afraid of being human on Christmas day. The closer we come to the heart of the children, the nearer we draw to the Christ of Bethlehem. It is a profound mistake to try to separate human love from divine love in its purest and sweetest form. Christmas is above everything else the children's feast. Let no one be afraid of being human on Christmas day. The closer we come to the heart of the children, the nearer we draw to the Christ of Bethlehem. It is a profound mistake to try to separate human love from divine love in its purest and sweetest form. Christmas is above everything else the children's feast. Let no one be afraid of being human on Christmas day. The closer we come to the heart of the children, the nearer we draw to the Christ of Bethlehem. It is a profound mistake to try to separate human love from divine love in its purest and sweetest form. Christmas is above everything else the children's feast. Let no one be afraid of being human on Christmas day. The closer we come to the heart of the children, the nearer we draw to the Christ of Bethlehem. It is a profound mistake to try to separate human love from divine love in its purest and sweetest form. Christmas is above everything else the children's feast. Let no one be afraid of being human on Christmas day. The closer we come to the heart of the children, the nearer we draw to the Christ of Bethlehem. It is a profound mistake to try to separate human love from divine love in its purest and sweetest form. Christmas is above everything else the children's feast. Let no one be afraid of being human on Christmas day. The closer we come to the heart of the children, the nearer we draw to the Christ of Bethlehem. It is a profound mistake to try to separate human love from divine love in its purest and sweetest form. Christmas is above everything else the children's feast. Let no one be afraid of being human on Christmas day. The closer we come to the heart of the children, the nearer we draw to the Christ of Bethlehem. It is a profound mistake to try to separate human love from divine love in its purest and sweetest form. Christmas is above everything else the children's feast. Let no one be afraid of being human on Christmas day. The closer we come to the heart of the children, the nearer we draw to the Christ of Bethlehem. It is a profound mistake to try to separate human love from divine love in its purest and sweetest form. Christmas is above everything else the children's feast. Let no one be afraid of being human on Christmas day. The closer we come to the heart of the children, the nearer we draw to the Christ of Bethlehem. It is a profound mistake to try to separate human love from divine love in its purest and sweetest form. Christmas is above everything else the children's feast. Let no one be afraid of being human on Christmas day. The closer we come to the heart of the children, the nearer we draw to the Christ of Bethlehem. It is a profound mistake to try to separate human love from divine love in its purest and sweetest form. Christmas is above everything else the children's feast. Let no one be afraid of being human on Christmas day. The closer we come to the heart of the children, the nearer we draw to the Christ of Bethlehem. It is a profound mistake to try to separate human love from divine love in its purest and sweetest form. Christmas is above everything else the children's feast. Let no one be afraid of being human on Christmas day. The closer we come to the heart of the children, the nearer we draw to the Christ of Bethlehem. It is a profound mistake to try to separate human love from divine love in its purest and sweetest form. Christmas is above everything else the children's feast. Let no one be afraid of being human on Christmas day. The closer we come to the heart of the children, the nearer we draw to the Christ of Bethlehem. It is a profound mistake to try to separate human love from divine love in its purest and sweetest form. Christmas is above everything else the children's feast. Let no one be afraid of being human on Christmas day. The closer we come to the heart of the children, the nearer we draw to the Christ of Bethlehem. It is a profound mistake to try to separate human love from divine love in its purest and sweetest form. Christmas is above everything else the children's feast. Let no one be afraid of being human on Christmas day. The closer we come to the heart of the children, the nearer we draw to the Christ of Bethlehem. It is a profound mistake to try to separate human love from divine love in its purest and sweetest form. Christmas is above everything else the children's feast. Let no one be afraid of being human on Christmas day. The closer we come to the heart of the children, the nearer we draw to the Christ of Bethlehem. It is a profound mistake to try to separate human love from divine love in its purest and sweetest form. Christmas is above everything else the children's feast. Let no one be afraid of being human on Christmas day. The closer we come to the heart of the children, the nearer we draw to the Christ of Bethlehem. It is a profound mistake to try to separate human love from divine love in its purest and sweetest form. Christmas is above everything else the children's feast. Let no one be afraid of being human on Christmas day. The closer we come to the heart of the children, the nearer we draw to the Christ of Bethlehem. It is a profound mistake to try to separate human love from divine love in its purest and sweetest form. Christmas is above everything else the children's feast. Let no one be afraid of being human on Christmas day. The closer we come to the heart of the children, the nearer we draw to the Christ of Bethlehem. It is a profound mistake to try to separate human love from divine love in its purest and sweetest form. Christmas is above everything else the children's feast. Let no one be afraid of being human on Christmas day. The closer we come to the heart of the children, the nearer we draw to the Christ of Bethlehem. It is a profound mistake to try to separate human love from divine love in its purest and sweetest form. Christmas