INTERVIEW TO DEMOULD

There are a few people around who are anxious enough to take a local paper for years, offering all kinds of excuses, such as: "I'm too busy," "I don't have the time," "I'm not interested," or "I don't want to pay for it." For the benefit of these delinquents it might be stated that they wished the paper discontinued all arrangements of subscription should first have been paid. Any person who takes a paper regularly from the post office or mail-box, whether in his name or another's, is liable for the subscription, and is responsible for payment. If a person orders his paper discontinued, he must pay all arrears of subscription. Any person who wishes to subscribe may continue to send it until payment is made, and then collect the whole amount—arrearage.

Three Major Canadian Problems

Tariffs, agriculture and railway situation discussed by E. W. Beatty, K.C., LL.D., Chairman and President, Canadian Pacific Railway—Urges unified effort to solve questions threatening integrity of State.

A tariff structure based solely upon the actual economic needs of the country is a desperate active application of sympathy and intelligent thought to agricultural products, and the unification of Canadian railroads for the purpose of operation as one means to reduce the cost of the only means of transport in the present disastrous debt structure created through public ownership, were emphasized by E. W. Beatty, K.C., LL.D., Chairman and President, Canadian Pacific Railway, during the course of a forenoon on the 5th of this month in the hearing of the Senate of the House of Commons, held on the 5th of February.

Beating his appearance upon the firm foundation of a "series of individual, individual groups, and sections of the country to the whole State is the only safe road for the future," Mr. Beatty appealed to the country at large to make this theme the dominating one in approaching the problems of the day.

Again voicing his sincere belief in the ultimate unity of Canada, Mr. Beatty emphasized the necessity of a mutual understanding between all sections of the country, and insisted that should this objective be achieved, the unified effort of all citizens would go far toward solving problems which now threaten the integrity of the State.

In the light of this argument Mr. Beatty felt that he had every right to discuss the tariff, citing the fact that the Canadian Pacific Railway was most decidedly responsible to the effects of unstable tariff conditions. He pointed out that the Canadian National Railways and he were quite content as a gift of Heaton's in the industry, and that he was neither a believer in protection with no limit on the maximum of national wealth fairly distributed among the citizens of the country, nor one which would keep our internal and external trade completely unhampered.

Mr. Beatty illustrated his argument by citing the fact that Canada enjoyed a greater foreign commerce per capita than either of the two more important American Republics, namely the United States and the Argentine, and added that he would like to see an analysis of the effect of the tariff on the total income and purchasing power of the Canadian people, and urged that in view of the present position of the tariff and labor, an examination of the economic soundness of our tariff policy should look to future improvement rather than to drastic attempts to correct past errors.

Emphasizing that agriculture was the primary industry, and voicing his appreciation that agriculture in Western Canada was passing through a period of great difficulty, Mr. Beatty said that government ownership of railroads, and of private business institutions had on the whole, been constructive.

"I may say," he added, "without boasting that the emergency reductions in freight rates voluntarily made by the Canadian Pacific Railway for farm relief during the past five years was estimated to have amounted to at least $3,000,000."

There were two necessary measures looking toward permanent recovery. First there was what the farmer could do, and secondly what the government was doing for himself, to make the farm home largely self-sufficient, improved methods, and expansion of live-stock operations. Especially there was what others could do to help Western agriculture. The capital invested in the farms of Canada must be made more productive and more profitable. Other labor could not hope for the high wages which are being earned in the east, and the level of wages too high above the earnings of labor on the land, Mr. Beatty expressed unwavering confidence that private business would find a way, not being swayed by the "welfare" which could be saved annually—now, not in

MANIT

The little thing called habit is the strongest of all laws. For it keeps us in its grip so fast That we never stop to pause.

And it has so many bearings On the life that we possess, And it holds us in its mercy Whatever be the quest.

If we learn life's vicious ways, It takes us right along, And we're held within its grip, And we go from wrong to wrong.

Or if in ways of working We do from day to day, The things that come before us In the same habitual way.

Well, habit is a splendid thing, If the things we do are right, But if it spurs our life, Oh, How we'd better treat it right.

And form some other habit That will keep us from the ill, And will seek to guide our feet, Oh, To the blissful hills.

Where the maker of all nature Holds out a guiding hand For the weary wanderer, Footstep Of a soul possessed man.

And has given a full promise To lead us in the way, When the forming of a habit Is a virtue that—A. J. MacKnight.

Peter Preaches to Gentiles

International Wesleyan Sunday School Lesson, March 18, 1935.

COLOSSEAN TEXT: "God is no respecter of persons; but in every nation he that feareth him, and worketh righteousness, he is accepted of him." Acts 10:34, 35.

ROMAN PARABLE: Acts 10:34-41. Dreams are they? But ye cannot stay Or thrust the dawn back for one hour! Truth, love and justice, if ye stay Behind the door, ye shall be left behind.

Return with more than earthly power, If ye will, to see the fountains spring That feed the world through every leaf and spray; Drive back the sun from eastern mountains, bid this mightier movement stay.

Matthew in Ephesus, 14, 15 God made of the earth, Yellow, brown, red, black and white races have spiritual equality in the Kingdom of Heaven—certainly the white race has no monopoly of religious capacity. This is the teaching of the Bible, and the appeal may be made to the souls of men in every country and class. God has no respecter of persons, and his love is shown his gifts on all mankind. All humanity has the one Creator and we are of one blood, and we have one Father of all men.

The best way to introduce religion is to buy a ticket for the Kingdom of Heaven, and to have the Kingdom of Heaven at our feet. Let us have the Kingdom of Heaven at our feet, and let us have the Kingdom of Heaven at our feet.

WHY HIS HEADACHES CEASED

Wife Put Kruschen in His Coffee

He could not understand why the headaches he had never subject to suddenly ceased, his wife told him he had at once put down and wrote the following letter to Kruschen:

"I am 32 years of age, and every since I was a boy of ten years, I was subject to headaches. But two years ago the headaches stopped for what reason I did not know. I was surprised when one day my wife told me I had been using Kruschen salts in my coffee for over two years. I am still using them, as I know of nothing finer for the system."

Headaches can nearly always be treated by the use of Kruschen salts and the unobstructed retention in the system of magnifying waste material.
