WILL ROCERS HAS GRANDEST

ROLE TO DATE Your favorite actor—as well as ours and the other fellow's—has turned again to the rural American scene for one of the most human, mirthful and flavorsome films in years. All of which is just another way of saying that Will Hogers is with us once more, this time in the title role of Fox Pilm's "The County Chairman," at the Gregory Theatre, Georgetown, Baturday, April 30th. Will Rogers appears as the fire-eat-ing boss of a small town, who kisses all the babies, captures all the votes and brings together two estranged young lovers. In a scrap, however, he's too hot to handle t There is rare humor and pungency in this screen portrait, a notable addi-tion to the Rogers gallery of recent hits. See it Saturday night.

Mrs. Lindley Beaumont has returned home, after spending a holiday with her daughter. Bome of our young lade had a very narrow escape from being killed on Thursday evening, when the car in which they were riding, suddenly left the road and crashed into a telephone pole. No one was hurt, but the car is a complete wreck.

There was a large crowd at the town hall on Thursday evening. The occasion being a miscellaneous shower for our popular young bride-to-be, Miss Margaret McNally. She was the recipient of a large number of handsome and most useful gifts from well wishers. The hall was very prettily decorated with bells, etc, and Lime-kouse friends supplied the music for dancing.
