Fifth Medal Won

Master Joe Wilcox, 13-year-old cornetist, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. Wilcox, Georgetown, added a fifth medal to his collection at the Stratford Musical Festival on Friday. The young musician won the gold medal, premier award in a class of 10 for contestants under 18 years of age. He now has a gold medal, a silver medal and three bronze medals for proficiency. Mr. Joseph Young was his accompanist on the piano.

Another Successful Euchre

There was a good attendance at Georgetown L.T.H. euchre on April 30th, when thirty tables of players competed for the prizes and enjoyed the delicious refreshments served by the ladies. The ladies prize was won by Mrs. Cain and Miss Dickerson, while the men's prize were awarded to Mr. Marlow and Miss Ann Hickey. The lucky prizes were won as follows: M. Licata, bridge lamp; Miss Emily Lucas, blanket.

INTRUDER SURPRISED JUMPED THROUGH WINDOW

Returning to his home on Main St. North, last Friday night, Mr. Frank Sykes surprised a man moving about in the kitchen. The intruder ran into the dining-room, and, as Sykes rushed to the front door of the house to head him off, dived through both the ordinary window and an outside storm-window, breaking the glass.

Sykes gave chase, but was unable to overtake the fugitive. He called Chief Marshall, who took up the pursuit, and calling the police in Guelph, in which direction the man was seen to head, led to the arrest of Frank Spitacher, who gave his home as Brantford. He was taken to the Halton county jail at Milton by Chief Marshall, and lodged there on a charge of breaking and entering. He gets his trial at Milton to-day.

Principal Ross Resigns

AFTER TWENTY-ONE YEARS AT GEORGETOWN HIGH SCHOOL

At a recent special meeting of the High School Board, at which all the members were present, the resignation of Mr. Ralph Ross, as principal of Georgetown High School, to take effect at the end of the school year, 1935, was presented to the Board.

After considerable discussion it was agreed that Mr. Barraclough should interview Mr. Ross and ask him to retain the position for another year as the Board intends celebrating the School's fiftieth anniversary in 1936.

At a later meeting it was moved by Mr. Barraclough and seconded by Mr. Bingham that the resignation of Mr. Ross as principal be accepted by the Board, but that in so doing they record their appreciation of the twenty-one years of faithful and efficient service which Mr. Ross had given to the school.

Packed Houses Greet Lions Club Revue

The town hall was packed to the doors last Thursday and Friday nights when the Georgetown Lions Club presented "Step Lively," a revue of fun as arranged and produced by E. Mosslyn Pearen.

The master of ceremonies was W. V. Grant; the comedians were C. V. MacCormack, David Crichton, John Shepherd and Ralph Tripp whose stage names were Moss, Rastus, Rosebud and Sambo, while the chorus was composed of the following: Norman A. Marchmant, Clifford Stacey, Arnim H. Fuller, Arthur C. Herbert, Edward MacWhirter, Gordon E. Fess, Robert H. Barber, Winfield Wheeler, Frank Sykes, Harry Hale, Cyril Brantford, Wilfred Gill, William Long, Arthur J. Beaumont, Thomas Eason, Harold C. McClure, Harold Mann, Harold Wheeler; Miss Jessie Leavitt presided at the piano. The choruses were good, and were interspersed with solo selections by Harry Hale, Arthur C. Herbert, Russell L. Fleming, Rosebud, Moss and Sambo. The cross fire of jokes between interlocutor Bill Grist and the colored boys caused many hearty laughs and kept the large gathering in the best of humor.

Part two was a court scene 40 years hence and was produced by Harold C. McClure, William Long, Gordon E. Fess, Winfield Wheeler and Robert H. Barber with Judge Edward MacWhirter presiding.

Part three a radio oddity was acted by Elma J. Tost, F. Irene Wheeler, Marchmant Brothers, Vi Ingram, M. Hale, Rube Salmon and Rose Pearen.

Part four a novelty feature entitled "Apple Pie" was exceptionally well presented by Lillian Saunders, John K. Thompson, Alfred (Buddy) Tost, Percy Sare, Ruben Salmon, Kathleen L. Hale, Elma J. Tost, F. Irene Wheeler, Violet E. Ingram.

Marchmant Brothers' selections between acts were as usual highly appreciated.

Local talent was responsible for the entire program and all performed their various parts well. They provided an enjoyable entertainment and at the same time assisted the Lions in raising funds to carry on their very worthy child's welfare work.

LIMEHOUSE

The regular meeting of the Women's Institute was held Thursday afternoon last at Mrs. Chas. Meredith's home. Nearly all members were present to take part in election of officers that is held each year at the May meeting. Mrs. Wm. Gowdy was re-elected President; Mrs. Smethurst, 1st vice-president; Mrs. McGowan, 2nd vice-president, Mrs. W. J. Bryant, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. Mitchell, district representative; Mrs. Kirkpatrick, social convener. Some discussion took place and arrangements made for summer activities along helpful and constructive lines.

The services of both Presbyterian and United Church were well attended Sunday and were in the form of Jubilee. At the United Church in the morning three new members were received into membership as a fitting commemoration.

May 6th was observed in various forms of jubilation. Quite a number attended the parade and service in Georgetown. Others visiting and shining or at their own pursuits. An excellent program was a radio feature lasting all afternoon, that any good subject could not but admire and appreciate.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Mills of Toronto moved out during the week and will be citizens with us for the summer.

Mr. Michie Burton was taken seriously ill during the week and was rushed to a Georgetown physician who on examining him found his condition so serious that he moved him immediately to Guelph hospital, where an operation was immediately performed which has been successful so far, and the patient is resting as well as can be expected.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson and some of the children visited friends over the week end at Fulgrass and Brents.

Mrs. A. Cooney and Harold spent last week at the cottage.

Visitors noticed over the week end were:—

Mr. and Mrs. M. Thompson and family of Toronto.
Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Milliare and family of Brampton.
Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lane and family of Toronto.
Mrs. Pollett and family of Toronto.
