OBITUARY

MRS. A. E. BURT

Mrs. Alfred E. Burt, well-known resident of Erin, died May 14th. She was in her sixty-second year. Twice married, her first husband, Charles Grant, died ten years ago. She was a member of Erin United Church and was actively connected with the various women's organizations. Surviving are her husband, two sons, Harold and Arthur Grant of Toronto, and two daughters, Mrs. Dougal Glassford and Mrs. A. Blackaddar, also of Toronto. The funeral will be held on Thursday to Erin Cemetery.

ALEXANDER C. GORDON

It was at noon on Monday, May 13th, after an illness that confined him to his room for several weeks, that a well-known and esteemed citizen, Alexander C. Gordon, died at his home, Dovercourt Apartments, Toronto. The deceased was born on January 1st, 1858, on the former Gordon homestead, Lot 28, 5th Concession, Township of Esquesing, near Acton. He was one of twelve, four sons and eight daughters, whose father and mother, John Gordon and Mrs. Gordon, were honored pioneers of the district having come to Canada from Invernesshire Scotland, in the year 1830. The family all grew to manhood or womanhood and the passing of Alexander leaves just two: Miss Helen Gordon of Toronto, who enjoys very good health at 84, and Rev. Malcolm Gordon of Edmonton, Alberta, now retired in his 80th year.

The subject of this brief sketch left home over fifty years ago. After spending some time in the Prairie Provinces, where he was associated with his old schoolmate, Sir Donald Mann, in the construction of a number of Manitoba railroad lines, he returned to Ontario and went into the lumber business in Dutton. Here he set up his home, having married Bella McMillan, whose family had come from Argyleshire, Scotland. Years later, they moved to Toronto about a quarter century ago, where Mr. Gordon became connected with the Sons of Scotland Benevolent Society as Supreme Organizer. After devoting some years successfully to this work, he returned to lumber business in which he continued until his death.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon had two children: John, a fine type of manhood who lost his life in the War (France April 4th, 1918) and Jean, who was her father's mainstay and cheer since the mother passed away two years ago. Mr. Gordon was an honorable and altogether estimable citizen. He was a devout and active member of the Presbyterian Church at Avenue Road and later at Calvin, Toronto. He was one of the few who in these days speak the Gaelic, the language of his father, and this he did with ease and fluency. For fifty years he had been manager of the annual games of the Gaelic Society. Mr. Gordon was always a strong temperance man and always on the right side of movements that were for the welfare of the people. In politics, he was a life-long Liberal. The burial took place this afternoon, Wednesday, May 15th, in the family plot, Mt. Pleasant Cemetery, Toronto. The service which was held in Calvin Church, was conducted by the pastor, Rev. Joseph Wasson. There were many who came to pay their last respects, numerous friends showing their special regard in beautiful floral tributes.

Board and Pupils Honor Retiring Principal

MR. RALPH ROSS RECIPIENT OF ADDRESSES AND PRESENTATIONS ON FRIDAY EVENING

After twenty-one years of faithful and efficient service as Principal of Georgetown High School, Mr. Ralph Ross has tendered his resignation and will relinquish his duties at the close of the present school term.

On Friday evening last an informal gathering of between two and three hundred, pupils, ex-pupils, members of the School Board, and guests, assembled at the Arena to express in some small measure their appreciation of services rendered by Mr. Ross as a teacher and citizen.

The following addresses from the Board and Pupils were read by Mr. C. B. Dayfoot and Mr. Reuben Balmon, respectively. Mr. W. V. Grant and Mr. H. B. Foulis on behalf of the Board presented Mr. Ross with a beautiful set of matched golf clubs and bag; while the present from the pupils was a smartly fitted travelling bag presented by Sarah Williams and Margaret Hilk.

Georgetown, May 10th, 1935

Mr. Ralph Ross, B.A.,
Georgetown High School.

Dear Mr. Ross:

In view of your resignation of the principalship of the High School after twenty-one years of occupancy of that position, the members of the High School Board feel that the occasion calls for an appreciation of your services during that long period.

You came to Georgetown shortly before the outbreak of the Great War, and there has been no lengthy period during the years that have elapsed since then, when the affairs of the High School were not affected in some way by the forces that were brought into action by that world-shaking struggle. This, inevitably, increased the number and importance of the problems that came before the Board.

Owing to the necessity for stringent economy in war time, much-needed improvements, and even replacements had sometimes to be deferred. In the post war depression periods certain readjustments of the work of the school, which made a considerable increase in the duties of the teaching staff, were found necessary. In dealing with these and other problems arising from the quickly changing conditions of the times, the Board was often aided by your expert advice, and on more than one occasion your co-operation was readily given to changes that involved sacrifice on your part.

The district from which students come to our High School, is smaller than it was in 1914, partly due to the extension of High School instruction to towns not far distant and partly to the curtailment of train service on the railway. It speaks well for the standing of the School under your principalship that, in spite of the losses occasioned by these changes, the attendance is actually higher than it was at the beginning of the period in review.

Whatever may be the outcome of the current movement to revise the curriculum of our High Schools, so that it will constitute a complete course ending in graduation, up to the present time the course of study has been directed towards examinations for entrance to the universities, or to the profession of teaching, and as a result the relative standing of these schools has been ranked by the degree of success won by the students in these examinations. Among the large number of students who have graduated from our High School in the past two decades, there are many who in the departmental examinations and by their achievements in after life have won distinction for their Alma Mater. Whether your work as a teacher is judged by this test, or by the annual reports of the High School inspector, it is manifest that your instruction has attained a high standard.

However irksome at times may be the enforcement of discipline in a school, yet its attainment is a vital necessity. In certain cases severe measures may be unavoidable, but the ideal form of government is the exercise of a power that comes from moral authority. This can only be the product of long continued association between teacher and pupils, through which there has grown up among the students such a regard for the teachers opinion and respect for his fairness, that their inclination is towards a proper observance of the rules.

It is pleasant to know that for years the order and good government of the School have been well established. One factor in producing this result has undoubtedly been the spirit of harmony and co-operation that exists in the teaching staff, which is in a large degree is the product of your methods of administration. In the sphere of moral authority, example is ever more potent than precept, and among the formative influences felt by the students who passed through the Georgetown High School, none was more potent than that which you afforded them by the example of a life governed by principles of honour and moral rectitude.

We would place on record also your ready co-operation with the efforts of forces that are working throughout our Province to safeguard the moral integrity of our youth.

It is the wish of the members of Georgetown High School Board, of the staff of teachers, and of the citizens of Georgetown and district generally, that you may long live to enjoy a well earned leisure after your many years of work in the educational and cultural life of the Province of Ontario.

Signed by the members of the Board.

Dr. F. R. Watson, Chairman,
E. V. Barraclough,
C. B. Dayfoot,
R. B. Foulis,
W. V. Grant,
John Bingham.

Georgetown, May 10th, 1935.

Mr. Ralph Ross, B.A.,
Georgetown High School.

Dear Mr. Ross:

We, who are your pupils at the time of your retirement from the active duties of your profession, desire to address a few valedictory words to you, attempting, thus, to express our feelings towards you. If, in doing this, Sir, we use old and much-used forms of expression, realize that we are investing in them new depths of sincerity.

We congratulate you on our own behalf, and on behalf of the many people who have passed through your High School before us, upon the completion of fifty years of teaching and influencing Canadian youth. Teaching is a profession whose most important aim is the least apparent, that aim being the development of an educated people. The development is so gradual that many teachers must become discouraged, but we, your pupils, assure you that you have aided materially in that function and we appreciate to the fullest extent the years of conscientious effort you have expended in the cause of education. So, we offer you our own tribute and that of our predecessors, none of whom has gone forth into life without feeling your influence. We think, moreover, that we are the more fortunate, having had the benefit of your ripest experience.

We tender you congratulations then, but regret is our most acute reaction as we reflect that you are withdrawing from active work among us and that another must supervise our studies. May we assure you, Sir, that you hold a high place in the thoughts and in the hearts of your pupils, a place which will not be filled by another whatever the future may hold?

We shall not forget you, Sir. We have passed through your hands, under your influence, at a time in our lives when minds are most susceptible to influence, when ideas are ready for moulding, and when a genuine taste for knowledge is waiting to be whetted. We shall not forget your help, your encouragement of originality, and your honest efforts to make us think. Also we shall not forget your subtle humour, that characteristic which made us wonder if you were always laughing at us just a little.

It is our earnest wish that your years of retirement may fully repay you for the work you have done among us, and that your retiring shall not mean a severing of all the old ties. We trust that the new life you are embracing may be lived near us, that the bond of respectful affection which connects us with you may be maintained and strengthened, and that we may be afforded opportunities of seeing you again and often.

With the devoted wish that the future years may have much satisfaction and contentment in store for you, and with the assurance of our deep and true affection, we are, ever your grateful friends,

Signed on behalf of the pupils of Georgetown High School:

Reuben T. Balmon, President.
Percy S. Sare, Vice-president.
Paul B. Barbar, Secretary.

and on behalf of the ex-pupils:

Ross M. Cameron.

Mr. Ross very feelingly replied and assured the donors that their kind words and handsome gifts would ever be cherished as happy memories of the years spent at Georgetown High School and with the good citizens of the town.

There was community singing and short speeches during the evening by chairman Dr. F. R. Watson, Mayor Joseph Gibbons, Warden Harold Shaw; Messrs. C. B. Dayfoot, E. V. Barraclough, W. V. Grant, H. B. Foulis, members of the School Board; W. R. Douglas and Arthur Dayfoot ex-pupils; Miss Penson of the High School staff; H. L. Hutt, W. T. Evans and H. Davidson.

All spoke in the highest terms of Mr. Ross as a teacher and citizen, and wished him many years of health and strength to enjoy his well-earned rest.

Community singing during the evening was led by Mr. Ross with Miss Jane Rumley presiding at the piano. Misses Doris Massey and Willa Price with Mrs. A. L. Howard, accompanist, were much appreciated.

A skit by Messrs. Jack Thompson, Perry Saxe and Richard Beaumont was quite amusing and caused much hearty laughter.

Cake, ice-cream and coffee were served to all present and a pleasant social hour was spent in music and dancing.

J. R. FALLIS DIES AT BRAMPTON AFTER SHORT ILLNESS

James R. Fallis, former M.P.P. for Peel, died at Brampton on May 11th after a brief illness in his sixty-fourth year. At the time of his death he was Surrogate Clerk of the county, a position he had held for nearly ten years.

Mr. Fallis was taken ill in his office on Thursday, May 2, and had to be removed to his home, where he sank rapidly. Born in Brampton, son of the late James Fallis, he had been a lifelong resident of the town, and was a member of one of the early Excelsior Lacrosse Club teams. In 1919, on the resignation of S. Charters, M.P., from the Peel seat in the Provincial Legislature, Mr. Fallis contested the by-election as Conservative candidate against A. H. Milner of Brampton, and was elected. He was again returned in the election of 1914, and sat until 1916.

In his earlier business career he was a well-known cattle dealer and breeder, and within the last fifteen years did much to develop the real estate of the western side of Brampton.

He was a former member of the Brampton Public School Board, and at the time of his death was a member of the Brampton High School Board, of which he was ex-officio chairman. A staunch Presbyterian, Mr. Fallis had been a member at different times of all the official boards of the church. A former Master of Ionic Lodge, A.F. & A.M., he was District Deputy Grand Master in 1916. He was also a member of the Orange Order.

Surviving are his widow, formerly Jessie Fletcher; four daughters, Helen and Jean of Toronto, and Ruth and Joyce of Brampton; and three sisters, Mrs. Margaret Reddy and Miss Mabel Fallis of Brampton, and Mrs. Fred Dawson of Toronto. The funeral took place on Monday under Masonic auspices, with interment in Brampton Cemetery.
