On Monday, August 19th, the members of the Girls' Clothing Clubs at Burlington, Milton, Norval and Palgrave, will be busy with their work at Milton. Groups were organized at these four centres last spring under the leadership of Misses M. J. Hirdman, Eva Chisholm, Marie Blackall and Hazel Booth. Monday next will be the day for the girls to exhibit the articles of clothing made during the club season. With the help of the County Council and the County Women's Institutes a special prize list has been prepared. Many fine articles are now on view in the window of J. Mackay's Store, Milton. The Chicago Trip of members of the Women's Institutes of the area will go to the championship day, in addition the team of three girls to represent Halton at the C.M.R. Club, will be selected on Monday next. We understand that other projects will be undertaken the coming fall and it is anticipated that the work which is being done by the county will be anxious to take advantage of this new development. The work will be supervised by the Institution Branch of the Ontario Department of Agriculture. HALTON CATTLE OWNERS APPROVE T. B. FREE AREA PLAN. Halton cattle owners have indicated their approval of the proposed T. B. Free Area Plan. Following the series of meetings which were held at various points in the county a few weeks ago, petitions were circulated in all four townships more than the necessary two-thirds of the cattle owners signatures were secured. It is anticipated that the plan will be approved by the county council in favour. These petitions have been presented by Hon. G. H. Director of the Ontario Livestock Branch, Toronto. We understand that the county will also be required to accept the plan, which is being approved by the Ontario Department of Agriculture. HALTON CATTLE OWNERS APPROVE T. B. FREE AREA PLAN. WHO MIGHT THIS FASCINATOR BE? She has never been compared to any other actress... she is beautiful... her looks... she is charming... never had a beau... goes to bed early, but not until she has had her prayers... has glorious speaking voice... possesses a wealth of personality... her face is fairly radiant... has eyes that are brilliant... fascinates and captivates her audience... has never read a novel... is far from dumb, though she can neither read or write... is the most companionable of mothers... and fascinate that she likes spinach. Who is this fascinating? Shirley Temple, of course, in her new picture, "Our Little Girl," in which she is the little sister of the Gregory Theatre, Saturday next, August 17th. Don't miss it. CAMD OF THANKS. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Carney and family wish to thank their many friends for the kindness and sympathy extended to them in their recent and bereavement, the sudden death of their son and brother, Charlie Carney.
