LOCAL COUNCIL OF WOMEN

There was an unusually large attendance at the November meeting of Local Council of women held last bridgy afternoon in the Public

The first matter on the slate for discussion was a proposed course in Home Economics and Personal Health for team-age girls and young women.

Mrs. P.W. Cleave outlined this course as described by Miss Oliver of the Octatio Provincial Covernment at a recent meeting in town. A motion was then passed by the Council give the Council give position and a committee consisting of Mrs. Dann, Mrs. C. V. Williams. Mrs. Mosf harber and Mrs. Wallace Thompson was appointed to work with a committee appointed by the Georgetown Women's Institute and with Miss Oliver in this matter.
