Milliansires Nights at Arens
The entertainment put, on by the Lions Club at the Arana last Thursday and Friday nights was a howling success as far as the natrons having a good time was concerned, but owing to the cold weather the crowd was not as large as it otherwise would have been. It certainly caused many a thrill being a millionaire for a night. The public will look forward to another Millionaires Night when the weather is warmer.

Deputy Chief of Police

Cleorge Guthris, for 37 years a member of the Toronto police department, on Sunday took over the duties of the deputy chief constable of Toronto, succeeding John Pogue, who has retired.
