CARD OF THANKS

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Murray of Stewarttown hereby convey to friends and neighbors their very sincere thanks for their kindly expression of sympathy and floral tributes in their sad bereavement by the death of their dear son Charles Grant Murray.

Porm Stalwarts and stalwarteses. The Judges were Miss Penson, Mr. W. V. Grant and Mr. John Lambert. The dancing continued until one o'clock, music being furnished by the New Marmony Orchestra.

Ross Duncan had contorl of the business arrangements of the evening. He was assisted by the executive of the student council.

The members of Georgetown Council, town officials and numerous other citizens were among the guada pres-ent, who partook of a delicious tur-key dinner prepared and served in the Milton Inn. Many complimentary remarks were tendered Warden Cleave for the very able and efficient manner in which he had performed the duties of his office during the year. It is popularity as Warden was evidenced by the speakers during the evening and many expressed regret that he was retiring from municipal politics.

retiring from municipal politics. had been a credit to the County, his home town and himself during his years of service at County Council.

Yollowing the toast proposed to the Warden, Meeve George Thorne of Nelson Township on behalf of the County Council, presented Warden Cleave with a beautiful chair as a small token of the esteem in which small token of the esterm in which he is held by his fellow members.

Mr. Cirave in reply thanked the members for their handsome gift which he would cherish in fond secollection of the friendships no had lormed while a member of the County Council. He had endeavored to ty Council. He had endeavored to do his best, but it was owing to the ever ready and faithful co-operation of the members as a whose, that the good work of 1915 had been accompnished. It had been a piesaure during the years to work with the members of Council, and whatever energy he may have put into his effort to serve had been amply repaid by the honor his colleagues had bestowed upon him in electing him warden of the banner county of the province. He thanked omicials and all for their many kindnesses to him during his term of order and wished all health, happiness and prosperity in the years to come.
