 • DAIRYING •

HENRY: "Angus, do you ever think of the time we started this dairy business?"

ANGUS: "You bet I do, Henry. It all seemed with me doing that milk route at $10 a week and board. I worked early and hard for what I got, but the turn came when the boss was willing to sell out. The Bank of Montreal knew I was thrifty from the way my savings account had grown steadily. They helped a lot by lending me some money—on good security, of course, it gave me a good start. I still worked mighty hard, but the profits made me forget I was so tired. We have a nice balance at the Bank now."

HENRY: "Yes, and you took me in as a partner and gradually we worked up to a fine herd of our own and later a modern dairy outfit. And don't forget what our wives and children did, Angus."

ANGUS: "No, indeed! When the girls joined our club and borrowed money from the Bank to buy the first cow. They did their bit in building up our present prize-winning herd."

Not only are the largest dairy concerns in Canada customers of the Bank of Montreal, but hundreds of independent dairy farmers as well. Large and small, they keep their business deposits and savings at the Bank and borrow at times for seasonal requirements. Many of them call on the Bank for other services, such as credit information, market conditions. Many of them have their bonds and other valuable papers with the Bank for safekeeping.

WHAT CHILD IS THIS?

What child is this, who laid to rest, On Mary's lap he sleeps?
 Whom angels greet with anthems sweet,
 While shepherds watch are keeping?
 This, this is Christ the King;
 Whom shepherds guard and angels fear,
 Made, made to bring us laud,
 The Babe, the Son of God.
 Why lies He in such mean estate,
 Where ox and ass are feeding?
 Good Christians fear, for sinners
 The silent Word is pleading.
 Melt, melt that place that brought
 The cross that bore him, for you,
 Hail, hail, the Son of Mary!
 The Babe, the Son of God.
 So bring Him lowly, and
 Myrror, Come, O King, to own Him;
 The King of Kings and Lord of Lords,
 The lowly, lowly, lowly Lord.

Malik, great shall place him through
 The cross he bore for me, for you,
 Hail, hail, the Son of Mary.
 The Babe, the Son of God.
 So bring Him lowly, and
 Myrror, Come, O King, to own Him;
 The King of Kings and Lord of Lords,
 The lowly, lowly, lowly Lord.

Home time during Saturday night of early Sunday morning, someone pried the lock off the door of C. J. Hamilton's garage, and removed the battery. This, like the break-in at several business places, two weeks ago, is the most serious case of its kind in the city. The thief was seen by the owner, who called the police. The following was received too late for last week's issue: The Women's Institute held their December meeting at the home of Mrs. J. McCowan on Thursday last. The Christmas dinner was held on November meeting at the home of Miss Olive and Jean Owen on Saturday. Mrs. J. H. Norton gave a piano solo; Miss Wills Price sang "The Star in the East" and Miss Marshall gave a reading entitled "About Courtesy." The guest speaker for the night was E. O'Halloran of Esquimalt, who was introduced by the president, and gave a most interesting and instructive address on her trip to Chicago some two years ago, provided by the Institute each week. General sympathy is extended to Mr. Wm. McCowan in his loss of a limb. Mr. McCowan had the misfortune to get his foot caught between the stone and a large log they were endeavoring to remove. The iron bar they were using was also under the log and helped somewhat to lacerate the tissue on the foot. An X-ray was taken on Monday and we trust it will show the
