THIS AND THAT IN SPORT

By G. "Mac" McGilvray

SHOULD IT BE ALLOWED?—It has been drawn to our attention that hockey bills posted for games have been torn from their moorings by some unconsiderate person or persons. If this continues some action will have to be taken by authorities as these posters cost money, and are not supposed to be torn down as a passing fancy of some boy or girl.

PLAYING HOCKEY IN HAILEY-BUEY.—Word reached us this week to the effect that Gordon Alcott, midget organizer here last winter, is now playing for a senior team in Haileybury. Gordon is in the North attending the mining school projected by the government youth training program, and in the Christmas examinations came fourth in a class of fifty boys, with a percentage of 81. We wish Gordon success with his studies and down the ice lanes.

A FRIEND OF SPORT—Georgetown Sport circles lost another friend in the passing of Mr. Chas. Vint on Monday. Mr. Vint, or Charlie, as he was known to the boys, was an ardent baseball fan and hockey enthusiast. In his day Mr. Vint was a baseball player and long distance runner of merit. The sympathy of the sporting fraternity goes out to the bereaved family at this time.

A CORRECTION—It has been brought to our attention, that in reviewing the sports activities of 1937 last week, we omitted to state that the Coffin Cup, donated for golf competition, was won by Mr. J. A. Willoughby.

The scores in the midget games at the arena last night were: Maple Leafs and Canadiens 0-0 tie; Black Hawks 2 and Americans 1.

Black Hawks and Redwings play a doubleheader in Milton on Friday night. Cars for Hawks leave arena at 7 p.m. sharp, and for Redwings at 7.15.
