Injured in Auto Accident
About 8.30 on Monday evening as Wm. S. King, accompanied by Robert MacEwan were returning from Toronto, Mr. King's car was sideswiped on the centre road, near Britannia, by another car going south and swung across the road. Another car following the one going south ran into Mr. King's car causing considerable damage, and bruising and shaking up the occupants. They both returned home to Georgetown, apparently not much the worse of the mishap, but on Tuesday evening Mr. King was removed to Guelph General Hospital suffering from internal bruises, but no serious results are anticipated.
