ASHGROVE

The Spring rally of the Halton Presbytery Young People's Union was held on Friday, April 29th, with a session at 4.30, banquet at 6.30, and an evening session following. Rev. Charlie Daniels of Palmerston was the guest speaker.

The auxiliary held their meeting and special seed sale for supply expenses on Wednesday, May 4th, in the Sunday school room, with Mrs. C. B. Dick presiding. The roll call was answered by a "Good Will" message. A worship service was carried out by Mrs. J. Bellbody, Miss I. Wrigglesworth, Mrs. Nurse and Mrs. McPhail. Mrs. J. Clayton Wilson took the sixth chapter of the study on "A Manifest Ministry."

Impressive "Mother's Day Services" were given in the Sunday school and in the church on Sunday morning. The beautiful thoughts of the play, on the life of the Wesleys; the special music and the inspirational sermon, will long be remembered by all present.

An "In Memoriam" service for the late Mrs. John Shanks of Pettapiece, Manitoba, will be held at the regular morning service, 11 o'clock, standing time, May 15th. The pastor, Rev. E. B. Eyre will be in charge, with Rev. G. Thompson of Mt. Hamilton giving the address.

DIED

MURR—In Georgetown, on Sunday, May 8th, 1938, Rose Ann Boyle, dearly beloved wife of Robert Murr, in her 38th year.

OBITUARY

WILLIAM AGNEW

In the death of William Agnew, which occurred on Friday, April 29th, Milton has lost a well-known and highly esteemed citizen. Deceased, who was in his 91st year, had not been in good health for some time. Mrs. Agnew died on Oct. 30, 1934. Mr. Agnew had been a resident of the town for over 20 years, coming to Milton from Nelson township, where he was a successful farmer. Surviving are one son, Kerns of Skouffville, and a daughter, Miss Georgia Agnew, Reg. N., Supt. of Lockwood Clinic, Toronto. The funeral took place on Sunday afternoon to Evergreen Cemetery, Rev. Canon Natfel conducting the service.

ROSE ANN BOYLE

Death came suddenly to Rose Ann Boyle, dearly beloved wife of Robert Murr at her home on John St., Sunday, May 8th. Deceased was in her 38th year, a daughter of James Boyle and the late Mrs. Boyle of Watertown, N.Y. She came to Georgetown from New Toronto in 1929 and has since resided here. Besides her husband she is survived by two children, Billy aged 9, and Peggy aged 7; also four sisters, Mrs. Gillvet, Mrs. Stewart, New Toronto; Mrs. McCarthy, Franklin, Ohio; Miss Kathleen Boyle, Watertown, N.Y., and three brothers, John and James Boyle, town, and Charles of Watertown, N.Y. The funeral took place this morning from her home to Holy Cross church where service was conducted by Rev. Father McBride. The pallbearers were Gerald Gillvet, James Gillvet, John O'Kane, John Cummings, Pat Cullen, James Stewart. There were numerous mass cards and beautiful floral tributes from relatives and friends. Interment in Greenwood Cemetery, Georgetown.

BALLINAFAD

Mr. Hubert Shortill of Gananogue and Miss Jean Stapleton of Toronto were Sunday visitors with Miss J. Shortill.

Miss Bessie Cole, who has been in Hamilton for the past two years was able to return home on Wednesday. Her many friends welcome her back again.

A special part of the services Sunday morning was the presenting of prizes to the boys and girls who wrote on the National Temperance course last fall.

Mr. Wm. Cole of Acton called on friends in the village last week.

Mrs. A. H. Forster of Toronto, Mr. and Mrs. A. Verch of Kitchener were Sunday visitors with the Merritts.

HORNBY

Large numbers visited the broadcasting tower, here, on Sunday. The wonder frequently expressed was how the structure was erected and how the seemingly slender wires maintain it in position. The surrounding property and the drives leading thereto are to be given attention now that good weather has arrived.

On Wednesday of last week the 5-year-old son of Mr. Laver, Hornby, fell through the hay chute in his father's stable, to the cement floor and ruptured his ear drum. Dr. S. H. Smith of Streetsville, took him to Peel Memorial Hospital, Brampton. It was not necessary to operate, so the boy was returned home. He fell on some hay, which broke the fall, or his case might have been more serious.—Champion.

CLOSED SEASON WITH BANQUET

Young People of Knox Presbyterian Church Enjoy Social Evening—Rev. Mr. Stewart of Kitchener the Guest Speaker

After a very successful season the Young People's Society of Knox Presbyterian Church, Georgetown, held a banquet in the Sunday school room of the church on Tuesday evening.

A delicious menu was served by the "Reds," who were defeated by the "Blues" in the season's competition, and the members and their guests partook heartily of the good things provided.

Miss Ruth Anderson, president of the society, welcomed the members and guests of the evening, after which she announced the toast list as follows:

"The King," responded to by singing the National Anthem.

"The Church," proposed by Miss Jean Mackenzie and responded to by Mr. Alex. Hume.

"The Young People," proposed by Charles Cunningham, President of Toronto Presbytery Young People's Council, and responded to by Mr. Gordon Martin, Georgetown; Miss Milna Kilsom, 1st Vice-President, Y. P. C. of Toronto; Mr. Archie Hughes, 2nd Vice-President Y.P.C., Toronto; Mr. R. B. Pouls, Georgetown.

Miss Anderson then called on Rev. Mr. Davidson, pastor of the church, who introduced Rev. Finlay Stewart of the Presbyterian Church, Kitchener, the guest speaker of the evening.

Mr. Stewart gave a very interesting address on what is expected of the church today in connection with changing events and unrest throughout the world. He church stands with its back to the wall and through faith in Jesus Christ will come out victorious in the end.

Miss Jean Martin moved a vote of thanks which was tendered to Mr. Stewart for his very able and interesting address.

Instrumental music was supplied during the evening by Miss Jennie McDougall, Miss June Frank, Messrs.

Joseph and William Young. The singing of Auld Lang Syne brought to a close a very enjoyable evening.

SHOWERS HELD FOR POPULAR BRIDE-TO-BE OF THE MONTH

Miss Muriel Whitnee entertained a number of young ladies at her home last Thursday evening, when she tendered a handkerchief shower in honor of Miss Helen Brown, a popular bride-to-be of this month. The first part of the evening was spent in playing "googeneimer," after which the party adjourned to the dining room where the gifts were opened and a delightful buffet luncheon served. The room was beautifully decorated in pink and white, and the gifts were placed at the ends of streamers which were attached to a wedding bell hanging above the table. The honored guest was the recipient of many beautiful handkerchiefs.

Then, again on Tuesday night, Miss Brown was entertained when some twenty-five friends gathered at the home of Miss Helen McDonald, where she and Miss Margaret Long were joint hostesses at a linen shower. After opening the many lovely gifts which were drawn into the room on a prettily decorated wagon by little Billy Fox, the guests joined in making a "bride's book." Here too, the rooms were nicely decorated and a dainty lunch served, including a bride's cake.

WOMAN SEES LYNX ON DUFFERIN LAKE HILL

A large lynx, peacefully sunning itself on the bank of Dufferin Lake Hill, was sighted by Mrs. Ed. Willis, of Oattract, who after the first shock of meeting the animal was relieved to notice that it made no move. Several residents of the district have heard the cry of the animal on several occasions during recent nights, and fear that the lynx will destroy the flocks of pheasants recently released in this area.
