GEORGETOWN'S baseball team are now assured of a play-off berth. Last Wednesday night they went into the County Town of Milton and framed the league leaders 4-3 in a game that featured outstanding pitching by Carl Casey, and splendid fielding on the part of the other members of the team. Milton led by one run in the 6th innings, but the local boys slammed out 4 hits for 2 runs to win the game in the 7th innings. K. Clement was Milton's hurler and was touched for 11 hits, while Casey allowed only 6 hits. With this win Georgetown cannot be kept out of the play-offs, although Acton did win over Oakville 12-3 on Saturday. Milton won from Hespeler, also, to put them out of the running. Georgetown will move definitely into third place providing they defeat Oakville when they play here tomorrow (Thursday) night to wind up the schedule. This should be a real game, so don't miss it. Following is the score by innings of the Milton-Georgetown game last Wednesday night:

Georgetown	0	0	0	2	0	0	2	4	11	3
Milton	0	0	0	0	3	0	3	6	4

Batteries—Casey and Ward; K. Clements and Brush.

GEORGETOWN'S outstanding miler, Dave Crichton, won the mile event at the West End "Y" meet last Thursday night in Toronto. While it was hoped that Art Clarke, who holds the Canadian title, would again contest this event in order to test Dave's might again, he did not show up for the race, and Crichton won handily from the other entrants.

THE MIDGET baseballers are all keyed up over the possibility of Sudbury playing here at the end of the month. It will no doubt be an interesting series and sport fans generally are waiting patiently for the "Little World Series." The local midget league are, themselves, nearing the play-offs, and it is hoped they will receive the support they deserve on this occasion. Come out and encourage the boys.

HILL-WEAVER WEDDING

A quiet wedding was solemnized on Wednesday last, August 3rd, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Anderson, Acton, when their daughter, Odessa Weaver, was united in marriage to Dennis Arthur Hill, of Limehouse. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Chas. Jolliffe, of Limehouse. The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Mr. Arnold Weaver, was gowned in a beautiful white dress of sheer chiffon, trimmed with baby blue taffeta, and carried a bouquet of white roses and baby's breath. The bride's hair was held in place by a wreath of orange blossoms. She was attended by her sister, Mrs. Wm. Keith, of Hamilton, as matron of honor, who wore a lovely dress of navy blue sheer chiffon, with pink accessories, and carried a bouquet of pink roses and baby's breath. Mr. Wm. Keith, brother-in-law of the bride, was groomsmen. The bride's mother wore a gown of navy sheer chiffon, with white accessories and a corsage of red roses. The groom's mother wore a gown of flowered sheer, with white accessories and a corsage of sweet peas. Following the ceremony, a light lunch was served by Misses Ruth Norton and Gwendyth Hill, of Limehouse, Misses Margaret Hodgins, Violet, Doris and Willaleen Weaver, of Acton, sisters of the bride. The bridegroom's gifts to the bride were a gateleg table and a compact. To the matron of honor, a compact and to the best man, a cigarette case. The happy couple left later on a motor honeymoon trip, the bride wearing a dress of navy sheer chiffon, with white accessories. On their return Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Arthur Hill will reside in Limehouse.

A million dollars to produce—admission a "quarter"! That's the story of the C.N.E. Before the thousands of exhibitors and concessionaires have spent one cent on their displays and booths—and they ultimately spend millions annually—the Exhibition management has spent a million dollars, yet despite vastly increased costs the admission price is only 25c, the same as it was in 1929.

The machine gun and repeating rifle are looked on as modern contraptions, but surely they are not new with Dan Cupid. He must have used the machine gun on Solomon and the repeater on Henry VIII. And while his bow and arrow may still serve his purpose with most people, he surely uses a repeater in Hollywood.

Penal Reform
While the penitentiary reform bill based upon recommendations of the Archambault Commission failed to pass into the final hours of the last session, the Department of Justice is gradually putting into effect some of the commission's suggestions. The most recent changes in the administration of penal institutions relate to more liberal remission of terms for convicts who are behaving themselves. The object is to give more scope to the reformative treatment of prisoners.
