BALLINAFAD

One of Canada's oldest citizens, Mrs. Agnes Young, celebrated her one hundred and sixth birthday on Thursday, Sept. 1st. Mrs. Young has been confined to her bed for over a year, but was able to sit up and chat with relatives and old friends who called to congratulate her. She was the recipient of many lovely presents. Among those who called was Senator Duncan Marshall of Toronto, who presented her with a beautiful bouquet of flowers. Other friends from Brampton, Erin, Guelph, Terra Cotta and Inglewood called during the afternoon.

On Wednesday evening, Mrs. A. Forman entertained at a trossau tea in honor of her daughter, Anna Ward, a bride-to-be on Saturday. Many beautiful wedding and shower gifts were on display. The tea table was beautifully decorated with Clarkia flowers and pink candles.

The Mission Band will hold their annual picnic on Saturday at Mrs. H. Hills' home.

Aitken-Forman

A very pretty wedding was solemnized in Ballinafad, United Church on Saturday afternoon, when Anna Ward, eldest daughter of Rev. and Mrs. A. O. W. Forman, became the bride of Gordon Forvie Aitken, son of Mr. John Aitken and the late Mrs. Aitken of Osgoode. The bride's father, Rev. A. O. W. Forman, officiated, assisted by Rev. A. E. Marshall of Long Branch. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a graceful gown of French lustré satin, fashioned in Elizabethian style with long train. Her long tulle veil hung gracefully from a small satin cap. She carried a white bible, a gift of the groom, from which hung white ribbons and bouvardia. Miss Phyllis Forman, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid and wore a gown of white tulle with matching old fashioned bonnet and carried a colonial bouquet. Shirley Aitken, niece of the groom, also wore a rose taffeta dress and bonnet and carried a basket of roses and cornflowers. The church was decorated with evergreens and gladioli. Mr. R. Struthers of Osgoode was groomsmen and the ushers were Mr. Sherlock Forman and Mr. Clifton Aitken of Weston. During the signing of the register, Mrs. Stanley Evans of Toronto sang "Because." Mr. Walter Uffman of Toronto played the wedding music. At the reception held at the Manse, Mrs. Forman received her guests wearing rose flowered chiton and corsage. The bride, wearing a dark blue tailored suit and navy accessories. On return they will reside on the groom's farm near Osgoode. There were about seventy guests present from Toronto, Port Credit, Hamilton, Port Colborne, Guelph, Chesley and Osgoode.
