MARRIED

KING-BRENNAN — On Saturday, September 3, 1938, at the United Church parsonage, Barris Hill, by the Rev. George I. Stephenson, Ethel Lyla Brennan, Milton, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brennan, Glen Williams, to Joseph Irwin King, Brampton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph King, Westover.

DIED

DAYFOOT — In Hamilton, on Sunday, September 11th, 1938, May MacDonnell Love, beloved wife of Harry C. Dayfoot, of Georgetown.

IN MEMORIAM

QUATE — In loving memory of Edith Quate, beloved daughter of William Gilman, who passed away Sept. 17, 1937.

A silent thought a secret tear, Keeps her memory ever dear; Time takes away the edge of grief, But memory turns back every leaf. — Sadly missed by Family.

OBITUARY

MRS. HARRY C. DAYFOOT At Mountain Sanitarium, Hamilton, after many months' illness, death came as a happy release to May MacDonnell Love, wife of Harry C. Dayfoot. A native of County Derry, Northern Ireland, she came to Canada in girlhood, later taking nurses' training at Queen's General Hospital from which she graduated in 1911. Since her marriage in 1911, she has resided in Georgetown, and though ill-health made her a shut-in for more than twenty years, she was known and beloved by a large circle of friends. She is survived by her husband, H. C. Dayfoot, one brother, George Love of Brampton district; three sisters, one brother in Ireland. The funeral service held on Tuesday afternoon from the family residence, John St., to Greenwood cemetery, was conducted by her pastor, Rev. F. C. Overend of the United Church, assisted by Rev. P. K. Dayfoot, of Colborne. The following acted as pallbearers: H. Goodenow, Dr. F. R. Watson, F. Bralsby, P. K. Hambly, Dr. C. Lyons, J. Pollock. Many beautiful floral tributes carried silent expression of the sympathy of many friends to those left to mourn the loss of one greatly admired and loved by all who were privileged to know her.

MRS. W. H. BESSEY One of the original members of Calvary Baptist Church, Toronto, Mrs. W. H. Bessey, passed away on Saturday morning, Sept. 3rd, after a few days' illness.

Mrs. Bessey was formerly Miss Susie Tompkins, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Tompkins of Georgetown, and about fifty-two years ago became the wife of the late W. H. Bessey, who pre-deceased her seventeen years. There are three children: Hume of Toronto, who died two and one-half years ago; Mrs. Richard L. Clark and Mrs. Elmer Carter of Toronto. Mrs. Bessey has two sisters: Misses Mattie and Emma Tompkins of Georgetown. A brother, Emerson, of Weiland, where Mrs. Tompkins and family still reside, died fourteen years ago. Mrs. Bessey, who with her husband, moved to Toronto from Georgetown over forty years ago, were active in every good cause and especially in the work of the church which they earnestly and liberally supported, whether in Georgetown or Toronto. The funeral service on Tuesday was conducted by her pastor, Rev. Robert L. Sneyd, who spoke sympathetically of the devotion of the deceased to the cause of the Master. Burial took place in the family plot at Georgetown.

SEPTEMBER WEDDINGS

O'NEILL-WEBSTER The United Church at Oakwood was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Saturday evening, Sept. 10th, when Miss Violet Webster, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Webster, was united in marriage to Mr. Elvin G. O'Neill of Belleville, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred O'Neill. Rev. J. McDermid of Mount Forest officiated. The church was beautiful, decorated with bronze, helianthus and gladioli. Flowers and white streamers decorated the guest seats.

To the strains of the Lohengrin wedding march, the bride entered the church on the arm of her father, and was becomingly gowned in chintilly lace. Empire style, over white satin and long flowing train. Her veil was embroidered silk net with coronet of pearl orange blossoms. The bride carried a bouquet of Butterfly roses and Adiantum fern and a spray of white heather direct from Scotland. The bride was attended by her two sisters, Mrs. J. H. Little of Georgetown, gowned in royal blue transparent velvet with matching hat, and Mrs. C. D. McEachern of Orillia, in mulberry transparent velvet with matching hat. The carried Colonial nosegays of Briar Hill roses and Adiantum fern. Little Miss Fay O'Neill of Stouffville, niece of the groom, was flower girl, gowned in a long dress of pale blue point de spirite and carried a nosegay of sweetheart roses and lily-of-the-valley. Master Ronald McEachern of Orillia, nephew of the bride, in a white suit, acted as ring bearer, and carried the ring on a white satin cushion. Mr. Ewart McIntyre acted as best man. Mrs. M. N. Murchison, cousin of the bride, played the wedding music also music during the signing of the register. The usher was Mr. Jack O'Neill, brother of the groom, and Mr. Harvey Graham, cousin of the bride.

The wedding breakfast was held at Ye Olde Cottage Tea House in Lindsay. The bride's mother, Mrs. Webster, received the guests wearing a gown of bottle green tulle with out velvet trimmings and corsage of Tiberon roses. Mrs. O'Neill, the groom's mother, also received, wearing a gown of navy blue chiffon, with corsage of Tiberon roses. For travelling the bride donned a dress of raspberry red with blue grey coat with racoon collar and matching accessories. After a short trip they will make their home in Belleville. Guests were present from Mount Forest, Georgetown, Blythe, Toronto, Orillia, Stouffville, Port Perry, Scargrave, Greenbank and Cannington.

CAMPBELL-BLACK A pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Black, Scotch Block, Esqueving township, on Wednesday, Sept. 7th, when their daughter, Margaret Evelyn, was married to Rev. Wallace Argyle Campbell, Peter Campbell and the late Mr. Peter Campbell in charge of the Baptist congregation of Dixville, Que. The service was conducted by Rev. W. A. Cameron of Yorkminster Baptist Church, Toronto, assisted by Rev. D. O. Davidson, pastor of Knox Presbyterian Church, Georgetown. Mrs. Davidson was at the piano, and the register was signed, Miss Margaret Russell of Toronto sang "O Perfect Love."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of pale blue marquisette, a heirloom, set off with net embroidered with blue silk and caught by a halo of cornflowers. She carried a shouwer bouquet of Johanna Hill roses. The bridesmaid, Miss Anne Bradshaw of Toronto, wore a gown of French wine chiffon, with a halo of flowers similar to that worn by the bride and a bouquet of yellow roses. The groom was supported by his brother, Mr. Dan Campbell, of Chatsworth.

On a motor trip through Northern Ontario, the bride travelled in an ensemble of plum French wool, with pink accessories. They will take up residence in Dixville.

The farmer from the next village was boasting about the effectiveness of his new scarecrow. First Farmer: "Since I put it up, no bird has ventured within half a mile of the field. You fellows can't beat that!"

The "locals" however, were not to be outdone. Second Farmer: "I can beat it! Last week I put up a scarecrow which frightened the crows so much that one of them brought back two potatoes it had stolen."
