—A delegation from Erin Women's Institute and the local W.C.T.U., waited on the village council last week, and asked that the two local beer parlors be forced to close their doors at ten p.m. No immediate action was taken, members of council advising the delegation that they wished time to consider the request.
—R. J. Kerr, president of the Ontario Fall Fair Association, officially opened the 86th annual Halt County fair at Milton on Saturday last. E. M. Readhead, secretary of the Halt County Agricultural society, stated that there was an increase of 40 per cent. in exhibits this year.
—Even cold weather won't stop people from having lots of fun. A street carnival was staged at Markdale a few nights ago by the Rotarians, the biggest attraction being a sort of midway. When the shouting and tumult had died it was found there would be four or five hundred dollars left over out of the proceeds, which will be devoted to practical purposes of charity. It would be nice if the local Lions Club would experience the same results after their Frolic here on Oct. 10 and 11.

Black, baritone, Toronto; Mrs. Josephine McLeay, soprano, Mimico; Miss Lois Stevens, reader, Hamilton; Mixed Quartette—Choir; Carman Sutcliffe, organist. Supper at 6:30 p.m. Concert 8 p.m. Tickets, adults 25c; children 15c.
McEnery—Dampier
The home of Mrs. R. Dampier, in Everton, was the scene of a pretty wedding on Saturday, Sept. 27th, at three o'clock, when the daughter, Miss Grace Dampier, became the bride of Mr. David Jesse McEnery, son of Mrs. William McEnery of Ballinacree. Rev. J. P. McLeod assisted by the bride's brother, J. H. Dampier, of McKeessport. Pa. officiated at the ceremony which took place beneath an arch of evergreens, autumn flowers and pink and white streamers. The bride, who was given in marriage by her uncle, Mr. Roy Hindley, looked lovely in her wedding gown of tropical blue silk velvet and blue fingertip veil, with shoulder knot of American Beauty roses. Miss Beatrice Crammond, of Islington, in fusheen velvet with shoulder bouquet of Tallman roses, acted as bridesmaid. Mr. Ernie McEnery, of Ballinacree, cousin of the groom, was best man. During the signing of the register, Miss Alma McEnery sang. After a reception at the home of the bride's mother, Mr. and Mrs. McEnery left on their wedding trip to Ottawa and Quebec province, the bride travelling in a Duvene wine jacket with navy accessories and navy coat with wolf trim.—Free Press.

MILTON
F. K. Robertson, of Pasadena, California, spent two days this week at the home of his niece, Mrs. Gray, whom he has not seen for a number of years.
When an auxiliary gasoline tank rolled off a truck owned by the Milton Brick Company, on the Dundas Highway, near Cooksville Station, on Saturday afternoon last, it burst into flames. Traffic was held up for some time. The driver, unaware of what had happened, kept on his way.
Mr. and Mrs. Elmer May, Hornby, entertained on Saturday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Brown who were celebrating their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. Progressive euchre was played. During the evening, Mr. and Mrs. Brown were presented with a silver tureen.
A surprise party was tendered Miss Elma Youngs of Milton, Friday evening, when a group of her friends met at the home of Miss Jean Billico. Miss Youngs, who is leaving the town to go into training for a nurse, was the recipient of a beautiful Ledian clock.
Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon for Mrs. Lavina Garbutt, of Hamilton, who died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Stewart Adams, Detroit, on Friday. Mrs. Garbutt was for many years a resident of Nelson township. She was the widow of the late David Garbutt. Services were held in Milton, Rev. John Riddell of Knox Presbyterian Church, officiating. Interment was made in Evergreen cemetery, Milton.—Champion.

WOULD NOT BE MISSED
To those of us who drive up to a service station with a "Fill it up—how much" attitude it does not make a great deal of difference whether gasoline is raised another one cent or two cents. We must have the gas to go anywhere and what is a cent or two, among a beautiful Ledian clock. The Ontario Government stated that another one cent tax on gasoline would net the province three million dollars, and in these days three million dollars will do quite a bit to keep the governmental wheels turning over. However, in this case it is suggested that the money raised by this one cent increase on gasoline tax would be handed back to the municipalities in which case it looks like a very good plan. And it would be something for every motorist in this town to know that every time he bought a gallon of gas here he was paying one cent into the town treasury.—Trenton Courier-Advocate.
