It is the aim of the Choral Society to have 100 members, and all interested are invited to be out on Tuesday evening. The services of Mr. W. E. Capps, Brampton, as conductor, and Mrs. Florence Paul, as accompanist, have been secured for the year 1938-9.

Milton Spiritualists
 The members and adherents of Milton Spiritualist Church were most agreeably surprised on Sunday, Oct. 23rd, when Mr. Morris of Toronto took full charge of the service. His address was based strictly on Spiritualism and quoted by many present to be one of the best ever delivered in the church. Mr. Morris also gave everyone present a message. The church was packed to capacity and included were many friends from Georgetown. Watch the Herald for special announcement.—Com.

Knight-Lane
 The marriage took place at St. James Church, Guelph, of Mary Isabelle Lane, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lane, to Bernard Wilfred Knight, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Knight, the Rev. F. H. Wase officiated. After a short honeymoon a reception was given in their honour at the home of the bride's parents to the immediate friends of the bride and groom. The bride wore the blue French velvet with navy accessories. Friends attending from a distance were from Toronto, St. Catharines, Calgary, Dundalk.

Norton-Price
 St. George's Church, Lowville, was the scene of a pretty wedding, when Miss Ruby May Price, daughter of Mr. Joseph Price and the late Mrs. Price, of Campbellville, became the bride of Mr. Carmel Rodrick Norton, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Norton, Glen Williams. Autumn leaves and flowers decorated the church and the service was conducted by Rev. F. A. Hill. Mrs. E. Walton played the wedding music. The bride, given in marriage by her father, was gowned in wine velvet, with lace collar, with navy accessories. She carried a bouquet of cream roses. The bridesmaid was Miss Gwendolyn Price, sister of the bride, and Mr. Arthur Higgins was groomsmen. Following the ceremony, a buffet luncheon was served to twenty guests. Receiving with the bride party were Miss Constance Colson and Mrs. James Norton. The couple will reside in Glen Williams.

"ROBIN HOOD" AT GREGORY THEATRE
 In line with their policy of presenting the pick of screen entertainment to their patrons, the Gregory Theatre will have as its feature attraction next Saturday, afternoon and evening, Oct. 29th, "The Adventures of Robin Hood," a massive technicolor melodrama, produced by Warner Bros., starring Errol Flynn, and featuring Olivia de Havilland, Claude Rains, Basil Rathbone, Ian Hunter, and a supporting cast of some thousand players.
 The handsome young Irish star, Errol Flynn, who had such triumphs in "Captain Blood" and "The Charge of the Light Brigade" plays Robin. The beautiful young Olivia de Havilland, who was the heroine of those successes, is Maid Marian. This is their third picture together and is said by previewers to excel its predecessors.
 It's a wonderful picture. See it at the Gregory Theatre, Georgetown next Saturday.

 —Watch your turkey! Now when the turkeys and geese are nearly ready for market is the time to keep close watch on them at night. Anyone caught meddling around an orchard or poultry pen after dark would deserve a good charge of buckshot if it should come his way.
 —The solo "My Task," sang by Mr. J. B. Lake of Powassan, in St. George's Church on Sunday morning was much enjoyed and appreciated. Mr. Lake is editor and proprietor of the Powassan News. He is an old Georgetown boy and we are always glad to welcome him as a visitor to the old home town.
