Successful Hallowe'en Dance
On Friday evening, Oct. 28th, the Georgetown Arena was the scene of a most enjoyable dance held under the auspices of Verdun Robekah Lodge. On entering the dance hall the dancers were greeted by ghosts, pumpkin faces, skeletons and all that goes to make up a Hallowe'en party. The music, supplied by Miss Dorothy Fielding and her Debs, air all girls orchestra from Toronto, was a rare treat and was much enjoyed by all. During the evening, the dancers were entertained at intervals by little Miss Shirley Smith of Toronto, who in her numerous pretty costumes, gave several very clever tap dancing numbers. The door prize was won by Miss Ivy Hancock, and the winners of the two spotlight dances were Miss Joan Young and Mr. Harold Huff and Miss Margaret Leslie and Mr. Percy Saxe. At midnight a dainty lunch was served and after another hour of dancing and the playing of God Save the King, a most enjoyable evening was brought to a close.

O'Connor—Blackall
The marriage of Miss Marie Florence Lillian Blackall, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. James Blackall, Hornby, to Mr. Francis Hugh O'Connor, Meadowvale, son of Mrs. O'Connor, and the late David O'Connor, took place Saturday morning, Oct. 22nd, in St. Joseph's Roman Catholic Church, Streetsville. Rev. James Ryan, of Milton, officiated, and the nuptial mass was said by Rev. Joseph Coleman of Brampton. Miss Kathleen McMahon, of Port Credit, cousin of the bride, was at the organ, and the soloist was Miss Margaret Higgins, Brampton. Mr. Charles Blackall, gave his sister in marriage, and she wore a daytime frock of American transparent velvet with gold ornament at the cowl neckline, a small ripple-brimmed hat of velvet with veil, and carried American Beauty roses. Her sister, Miss Helen Blackall, was bridesmaid, and her niece, Miss Therese Blackall, was junior bridesmaid. The groomsmen were Mr. John O'Connor, brother of the bridegroom, and the ushers were Mr. Jack Blackall, of Montreal, and Mr. Joe Blackall, of Hornby, brothers of the bride. After the wedding breakfast at the Crofton Villa, Cooksville, Mr. and Mrs. O'Connor left for Quebec City, on their return they will live on the bridegroom's farm near Streetsville.
