MOUNT PLEASANT
The Mount Pleasant United Church was the scene of a large and happy gathering on Monday afternoon, Nov. 20th, when the friends of Mrs. Arthur Couves held a shower in honor of her recent marriage. Mrs. T. O. Dolson presided. Following a brief program the bride was the recipient of many gifts and the best wishes of her friends. A social time and refreshments arranged by the ladies of the church brought the afternoon to a happy conclusion.

Irving Berlin's Smash Production—"Alexander's Ragtime Band" Full of Great Melodies and Moments
This excellent picture, "Alexander's Ragtime Band," stars Tyrone Power, Alice Faye, Don Ameche. Director Henry King provides film rich in colorful drama of the march of America and great romance. It is greater than they said it was.
The Berlin score is, of course, without previous or subsequent parallel. It took the Shakespeare of symphonies 27 years to write it, and every one of the 28 songs, used wholly or partially in the picture, topped the hit parade of its era. They are the mileposts along rhythm's conquest of mankind from the Barbary Coast to Carnegie Hall.
The film makes their integral story material by casting the principal characters as members of a fictitious Alexander's Ragtime Band—and letting them do just about what the members of a real band would have done.
This wonderful picture will be presented at the Gregory Theatre, Georgetown next Saturday, Nov. 26th, afternoon and evening. Don't miss it.

OBITUARY

WILLIAM HERBERT NIXON
Following a heart attack, there passed away in Squeaking, Monday, November 14th, 1938, William H. Nixon. Deceased was born at Maple Grove Farm, Ashgrove, on April 26th, 1878, a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Jas. H. Nixon. Until his father's death in 1918 he resided at Ashgrove, and since that time he has lived in the vicinity of Milton. Although of a very quiet and retiring disposition he will be greatly missed by sisters, brothers and friends. His funeral was held from the home of his sister, Mrs. George Dawson, Milton, on Wednesday, November 16th. Burial was in the private service at the home. The service held at Ashgrove United Church was conducted by Rev. John Riddell of Knox Church, Milton. Interment was made in the family plot in Greenwood Cemetery, Georgetown. He is survived by three sisters and three brothers, Mrs. David Smith, Gladstone, Manitoba; Mr. M. E. Nixon, Milton; Mr. J. Fred Nixon, Middletown, Connecticut; Mrs. (Rev.) Griffin Thompson, Hamilton; Mr. R. H. Nixon, Toronto; Mrs. George H. Dawson, Milton.

NORVAL RIFLE CLUB

The Norval Rifle Club visited the Hamilton Rifle Club in Hamilton on Monday night last with twelve members and were victorious by a margin of 13 points. The total score as recorded by the Norval 1184 points out of a possible 1200 points; Hamilton 1171 points out of a possible 1200 points. The individual scores as made by the Norval men are as follows: H. Nurse 100, W. Wilson 100, M. Atkinson 100, G. Meredith 100, L. Kirk 99, E. McClintock 99, F. Johnson 99, P. Stark 98, Dr. Stevenson 88, R. W. Hall, G. H. Hall 97, A. W. Wilson 97. An inter-city match is being arranged between ten crack shots from rifle clubs in the following cities: Buffalo, Hamilton, Toronto, (teams), and Norval Rifle Club. The match will take place on the Hamilton range sometime in December. The date of this match will be announced later.

Preston-Bardoe Wedding
St. George's Church, Georgetown, was the scene of a pretty wedding at 4:30 p.m. on Sunday, Nov. 20th, when Kathleen Rodina, daughter of Mr. Arthur Bardoe and the late Susan Britton of Milton, was united in marriage to Mr. William Edwin Preston, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Preston of Georgetown. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. G. O. Thompson. The church was prettily decorated with yellow mums. The bride, who was given in marriage by her eldest brother, Mr. Arthur Bardoe, wore a gown of ornate taffeta with pink and silver accessories, and floral headdress with shoulder length veil. She carried a bouquet of Butterflies roses. Miss Barbara Lawrie, as maid of honor, wore a gown of orchid chiffon over satin, floral headdress and silver shoes, and carried a bouquet of yellow mums. Miss Ruth Preston, sister of the groom, was bridesmaid, gowned in shell pink taffeta with floral headdress and silver shoes. Her bouquet was orchid mums. Mr. Jos. Twedale of Norval acted as best man. The wedding march was played by Mrs. W. E. Bradley, organist, and during the signing of the register, Mrs. Wilfred Preston sang, "O Perfect Love." The ushers were Mr. Roy Preston and Mr. Herbert Hancock. A reception was held following the ceremony at the home of the groom's parents, when about 50 guests sat under a wedding breakfast. After a short honeymoon the happy couple will reside in Georgetown.

ERIN

Mrs. Alex. Binnie underwent an operation for appendicitis at the Guelph General Hospital last Saturday. We are pleased to report she is convalescing.
Mr. and Mrs. James Hamilton, Misses Bertha Hamilton and Eleanor Barbour, of Toronto, spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Norman Barbour.
Hugh Albert Carmichael sighted what he believed to be a wild cat, on the eighth line, the other evening. Mr. Carmichael was driving to Hillsburg when the animal crossed the road.
Mrs. James Austin has been quite ill from a paralytic stroke. Her many friends wish her a speedy recovery.
Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Eldred accompanied by their daughter, Mrs. Johnson and grandson, Edgar Johnson, of Owen Sound, visited recently with their niece, Mrs. Albert Russell. Mr. Eldred is remaining for some time renewing old acquaintances; he remembers many of the old timers in and around Erin as he lived here for a time about 54 years ago before going to Owen Sound.
Mr. E. A. Gear and son Douglas returned home from the hunt in North Carolina, with a large deer. Address:

Nomination Meeting Friday In Public Library Assembly Hall

Every Ratepayer Should be Present — Members of 1938 Council are Likely Candidates for Re-Election.

Friday next, Nov. 26th, is nomination day in Georgetown, and every ratepayer who has the interest of the town at heart should be present to hear the financial report and have his or her say as to who shall represent the different wards in the Council of 1938.

The members of 1938 Council are deserving of the thanks of the ratepayers for conducting the business of the town during the past year. They receive no remuneration for their services and we believe every member has endeavored to perform his duties in the best interests of all concerned. In the eyes of some they may have made mistakes, but who is there among us that hasn't. In an interview of the present members, we have gleaned the following information which we pass on to the ratepayers:— Mayor Joseph Gibbons is undecided whether or not he will be a candidate.

Reeve George Davis is in the field again for Reeve.
In Ward One, Councillor N. E. Brown will be a candidate if it is the desire of the ratepayers. Councillor A. E. Cripps is undecided.
In Ward Two, Councillors Joseph Rev. and James Costigan will again be candidates.
In Ward Three, Councillors Will P. Smith and Thomas Lyons are undecided.

HALTON COUNTY MEDICAL MEN AND THEIR WIVES MEET

At Milton Inn, on Wednesday evening, November 16th, a very pleasant time was spent by the members of the County Medical Society with their wives.

The first part of the meeting was given over to business matters by the doctors, themselves, after which the ladies, who had retired to the forum, were asked to join in games of cards, in which as many as possible joined. After the president, Dr. E. P. Soanes of Oakville, had announced the winners in the games and had distributed the prizes, the tables were tastefully re-arranged for the tasty lunch supplied by the management of the Inn. Mrs. (Dr.) W. A. T. Bodkin of Burlington, on behalf of the ladies, thanked the doctors for inviting them to their opening meeting for year 1938-39, and it was unanimously decided to repeat the social meeting idea in the coming year.

Barnes-Lush
A wedding took place at the Hornby parsonage on Saturday when Margaret Irene, younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cuthbert P. Lush of Milton, was united in marriage to Mr. Vern H. Barnes, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. James Barnes, Georgetown. Rev. J. O. Totten officiated. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore seal brown chiffon velvet and carried a bouquet of bronze chrysanthemums. She was attended by her sister, Miss Cora Lush, who wore a dress of laurel green chiffon and carried gold mums. Tansley Barnes of Georgetown, was groomsmen. After a reception at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Barnes left on a trip to Florida. On their return they will live near Milton.
