Animals Suffer From Seasideckness
 Animals, as a rule, suffer very much from seasideckness, the polar bear being one of the exceptions. The tiger is said to be one of the worst sea travelers. Elephants have to be treated with whisky and quinine as a medicine. Horses and cattle suffer greatly, yet there are plenty of domestic pets that travel regularly. They seem to be very much like human beings, for once having their sea legs the movement of the ship does not affect them.

pine Smith, W. J. Moffat, Percy Reed and George Wilson.

From many friends, wires and letters of good wishes for the pleasure of the banqueters were received. F. S. Corrigan, M.D., F.A.C.S., Lampman, honorary president, headed the list by sending a delightful letter; and crimson carnation corsage bouquets for all the ladies present.

A further remembrance from Dr. Corrigan presented to the club was a reproduction of a photo of George Hume, taken more than 75 years ago. Mr. Hume was a Halton pioneer, whose farm is now occupied by his grandson, William Hume. The beautiful farmhouse of 17 rooms had been built by George Hume. A grandson, Dr. Geo. Hume, was termed one of Canada's most distinguished geologists. He is in the federal government service.

T. L. Kennedy, M.L.A., made, voiced the conviction that some means should be devised of having the banquets alternate between Regina and Brampton. Gordon Graydon, M.P. for Peel and Hughes Cleaver, M.P. for Halton, both sent delightful messages as did also: S. Estelle Pearson, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pearson, Olive Pearson Ford and May Middleton Donnelly, all of Indian Head; W. J. Moffat, Moose Jaw; Mrs. M. J. Early, Saskatchewan; Mr. and Mrs. Nat Given, Delisle; C. Bertha Stillborn, Lemberg; Dr. F. O. Gilbert, Spy Hill, and Mrs. J. P. Young, Alameda.

Moffat, Bradwell, won honors as having come the greatest distance to the party, 200 miles; and the runners-up were Mr. and Mrs. D. Rossell, Abernethy.

Guests who registered were: Dr. and Mrs. Middleton, Dr. and Mrs. C. M. Henry, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Moffat, Bradwell, Dr. and Mrs. A. G. Green, Miss Phyllis Burrows, Miss Marion Routledge, J. A. MacLean, Ross MacRae, Rev. and Mrs. Harvey Campbell Norman Langdale, Mrs. Stillborn, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Cartwright, D. Alpine Smith, Mrs. E. Spence, D. W. Spence, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Couves—Finney
 A quiet wedding took place at the parsonage of Norval United Church, when Pearl Agnes, daughter of Mr. Herbert T. Finney and the late Mrs. Finney of Mt. Pleasant, became the bride of Mr. Arthur W. Couves, son of Mr. C. E. Couves and the late Mr. Couves of Montreal. Rev. Frank Gilbert officiated. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a copper wire dress. The parents of the bride and groom were the witnesses. Immediately after the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Couves left for their new home at Greenbank.

Sad Drowning Accident at Kitchener
 While his father was trying to get his automobile out of the mud in which it was stuck, Clive Edwards Snyder, 2, of Kitchener, wandered to nearby Sunfish Lake and was drowned Sunday afternoon. The child was alone with his father when the car got stuck on a muddy stretch of road a short distance from the lake. While Mr. Snyder was putting chains on the wheels the child wandered to the lake and fell in unknown to the parent.

Presentation to Wm. Preston
 A pleasant surprise was tendered to William Preston, when employees of the Glen Woollen Mills shut-off work to present him with a beautiful pair of woollen blankets as a wedding gift. Bill was mystified when one after the other of his co-workers shut off their machines and went to wash-up for the occasion. When he was finally called to the packing room, where a sumptuous repast had been prepared, he was so surprised that he hadn't a word to say. Bill wishes his many friends to know that he does appreciate their kindness and good wishes.
