Campbell's Command Best at Chicago A Canadian-owned bull, born on a boat en route from Scotland, Nov. 17, 1937, was declared the grand champion Shorthorn bull of the International Livestock Exposition at Chicago on Monday. The animal, Campbell's Command, is owned by Grant Campbell of Moffat, Ont.

Buried in Greenwood
The funeral of the late Walter Uwins, who passed away at Hamilton on Tuesday, Nov. 22nd, took place from H. C. McClure's Undertaking Parlors on Thursday afternoon, and was in charge of the members of Orion Lodge I.O.O.F. of which deceased was a member. After a service in St. George's Church, conducted by Rev. W. C. O. Thompson, the remains were interred in Greenwood cemetery. The beautiful service of the Oldfield was conducted by Lloyd Walters, Noble Grand and C. Spence, Chaplain of Orion Lodge, Georgetown. The pallbearers were all brother Oddfellows: W. C. Anthony, E. McWhirter, W. H. Kentner, H. Barnes, A. Mino and W. H. Long.

Successful Dance and Draw
One of the most enjoyable events of the season was the grand military ball given under the auspices of the Lorne Scots Band in the Arena last Friday night. There was a large attendance and the music supplied by Lee Barwick and his Orchestra of Toronto delighted the dancers. Refreshments were served during the evening. The prize winners in the band's lucky number draw were: 1st, Mrs. Fry; 2nd, Glen Williams; 3rd, J. Donaldson; 4th, 3rd, Steve Eason, Georgetown; 5th, A. R. Johnstone, Acton; 6th, J. Goodlet, Georgetown. Novelty dances were won by: lucky number balloon dance, Mrs. Stewart and James Ritchie; blowing up balloons, ladies, Mrs. H. King and Miss E. Marshall; lucky number dance Miss Agnes McDonald and Elmer Stockford.

The Board of Directors have appointed Mr. Stanley Hall, well-known farmer of this district, to succeed him.

WILSON—JOE WEDDING AT KNOX CHURCH, ACTON
On Saturday, November 26th, 1938, Knox Presbyterian Church, Acton, was the setting of very pretty wedding, when Yerna Isabel, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Joe of Esqueing Township, became the bride of Norman Urwin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wilson of Norval. Rev. H. L. Bennie officiated. Wedding music was played by Mr. F. Salt.

The bride, given in marriage by her eldest brother, Mr. David Joe, was attired in midnight blue velvet with matching accessories. She carried a bouquet of white carnations and mums. Her only attendant, Miss Olive Perry, wore fuchsia velvet with matching accessories and carried a bouquet of rose mums. The groom was attended by Mr. Stanley Joe, brother of the bride.

The reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. The bride's mother received in a wine dress with matching accessories, wearing a corsage of bronze mums. The groom's mother also received, wearing black sheer with a corsage of yellow mums. Later the bride and groom left on a trip through the States, the bride travelling in a wine outfit with black accessories. On their return they will reside in Georgetown.

CARD OF THANKS
To friends and neighbors we hereby convey our very sincere thanks for the many kindnesses and expressions of sympathy extended to us in our very sad bereavement by the death of our dearly beloved husband and father—Mrs. W. G. M. Browne and Family, Norval.
