Georgetown Will Open Season with Brampton Friday Night

A Good Game Assured All who Attend — Come Out and lend Your Support to Our Intermediate Team.

Georgetown's Intermediate hockey team will open its season on Friday night when they visit the local team at Brampton. The game is expected to be a very good one as both teams are well equipped for the season. The Georgetown team has been coached by Coach McGilvray and has been keeping the public guessing as to who will play and who will not, and according to the number of players who have been turning out to practice, it will no doubt have a hard time stinging out fifteen players to start the season. However, we look forward to a big season here this year, and perhaps all will get their chance before the play-offs are over. More than ever before the hockey club needs your support this year. So be on hand Friday night and help boost your intermediate team. With Bolton and Brampton as opposition in the league this year, sport fans can hardly dare miss a single game.

Bolton Wins from Brampton 9-6 in Hectic Game

SCORE TIED IN THIRD PERIOD

Brampton and Bolton Intermediate teams opened the hockey season here last night when they met in a scheduled fixture. Owing to Brampton playing all their home games here, Georgetown hockey fans are in for a double share of the hockey schedule again this year. The game last night was a hectic affair with both teams playing rugged, wide-open hockey for the full 60 minutes. Heavy body-checking and stick-cuffs added their share to the excitement of the game, as both teams seemed keyed up to win all evening.

Going into the final canto four goals down Brampton put on a scoring spree that tied the score and added some thrilling moments to the game. However, they were unable to hold the score at a tie, and before the end Bolton had added four more goals to Brampton's one. Bolton took a wide margin in the first frame, when they collected five goals to Brampton's one. Keko, Harris, Nelson and Stubbs scored for Bolton, while McMurchy was given the credit for Brampton's goal which came in a scramble at the net. Hockey was of a rather poor brand in the first period, but as the game progressed better hockey was shown.

Both teams ran into penalties in the second period, while only two goals were scored. R. Long for the Plover Town team and Crocker for Bolton.

D. Long started the parade of Brampton goals in the third period, followed by Soloski who proved a real threat to the Blue and Whites with his clever stickhandling. Bolton broke fast on several occasions and put the game on ice with three counters to spare. In this period Harris and Anthony drew five minute penalties for fighting.

By the calibre of the first game at the arena here it looks as if we may see some good hockey here this winter. Brampton—Goal, Burrows; defense, Gibson, Soloski; centre, Anthony; wings, D. Long, Weller; subs, R. Long, Prosser, McIntosh, McMurchy.

Bolton—Goal, Hall; defense, Chapman, Norton; centre, Crocker; wings, Harris, Nelson; subs, Eard, Young, Stubbs, Keko.

Referee—"Dit" Brush, Milton.

For those who like rough, wide-open hockey, the Bolton-Brampton game last night must have pleased. However we think it can be carried a little too far and should be clamped down on by the referee before someone gets seriously injured.

While the game, as we said before, was exceptional, the strenuous, the accident suffered by Murray Ezeard, who is now playing with the Bolton squad, was purely accidental and very unfortunate. Murray stepped in the path of an incoming player who was rushing toward the goal, and was presumably off balance at the time of the accident. About ten stitches were required to close the several gashes on his face which he received when he crashed to the ice.

When the local Intermediates take the ice on Friday night against their closest rivals, Brampton, they will be wearing their new uniforms of blue and red, white and blue this year. The reason for changing the colors from blue and white is because of the new Bolton uniforms which are of that color. Why Bolton picked on the Georgetown colors we can't say; but we think the new colors will be very attractive, and may change the boys' minds as to bringing the league championship to Georgetown.

Bolton have secured some more good outside players this year in the hope of repeating their winnings of last season. Ezeard, Harris and Keko are the new recruits, but Brampton have seen plenty of opposition last night. McMurchy, who played junior hockey for Georgetown last year, is on the Brampton line-up.

Jack Kemshead, who is in our opinion one of the best hockey players Georgetown has brought up, is playing his usual good hockey with Acorn Juniors this season, owing to the local club not sponsoring a junior team. We wish Jack the best of luck with the Tanners.

Bob Goddard is making fine progress with Northern Vocational School hockey team in Toronto. On their trip to Timmins and four other northern cities and towns last week, Bob scored the highest number of individual points for his team. Out of five games played, Northern Vocational won four and tied one. Bob Goddard is now playing centre ice for the Norvocs.

Now that the Juvenile team, sponsored by the Lions Club, is completely organized and the schedule drawn up, local fans will be treated to some O.H.A. Juvenile hockey. The league composes teams from Acorn, Milton and Georgetown, and some keen rivalry can be expected. The Juveniles will also have new sweaters, the colors being purple and old gold. Following is the schedule:

Jan. 4th—Georgetown at Milton.
Jan. 6th—Milton at Acorn.
Jan. 9th—Acorn at Georgetown.
Jan. 12th—Milton at Georgetown.
Jan. 16th—Acorn at Milton.
Jan. 18th—Georgetown at Milton.
Jan. 19th—Georgetown at Acorn.
Jan. 20th—Acorn at Georgetown.
Jan. 24th—Acorn at Milton.
Jan. 26th—Milton at Georgetown.
Jan. 28th—Milton at Acorn.
Jan. 30th—Georgetown at Acorn.

REV. H. BELLISLE, EDUCATIONIST, DIES, AGED 47

One-Time Head of St. Michael's College Passed at Windsor in 48th Year

Rev. Henry Stanislaus Bellisle, O.S.B., M.A., one-time superior of St. Michael's College and latterly assistant head of Assumption College, Windsor, died last week in the Border City. He was in his 48th year. A native of Georgetown, he graduated from St. Michael's College in 1911 at the age of 19 with a B. A. degree. Among his class mates were Rev. E. J. McCorkell, O.S.B., present head of the college, and Father O. Coughlin, of Detroit. Subsequently he entered St. Basil's Novitiate and in September, 1915, was ordained. The following year he attended the Catholic University of America in Washington, where he obtained his Master of Arts degree.

Father Bellisle devoted his time to teaching and administrative work. As head of St. Michael's College, he was host to Cardinal Villeneuve when his Eminence received an L.L.D. from the University of Toronto in 1934. He made a special study in the philosophy of St. Augustus and lectured on the subject in the Institute of Medieval Studies, Toronto, and at annual meetings of the American Catholic Philosophical Association. In addition to this he wrote a number of booklets on education.

He caused a sensation in Ontario last summer when he declared in an address to a local service club that Marxism was being taught in Ontario schools. As a student Father Bellisle took an active interest in all sports, but was particularly noted for his ability as a hockey player. Surviving are two sisters, Mrs. Kathleen Triborne and Miss Margaret Bellisle and a brother, Edward, all of Toronto.

LESLIE-HYATT WEDDING AT CALGARY, ALBERTA

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at 10 o'clock on Monday, Dec. 28th, at Rock Cliff, the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Leslie, Calgary, A.L.A., when their daughter, Kathleen Bell, was united in marriage to John R. Hyatt, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Hyatt of Calgary. Dr. Warwick F. Kelloway officiated at the ceremony, which was performed before a beautiful altar of chrysanthemums and ferns, flanked by white tapers.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was charming in her mother's wedding gown of ivory satin, with court train and trimming of crystal and pearls. Her veil of Brussels net, which extended over the train, was held in place by a coronet of pearls and white narcissus. She carried a shower bouquet of deep red roses.

The bride's mother chose a floor-length gown of empire blue lace with a corsage of the same supreme roses. Mrs. Hyatt, mother of the groom, wore a gown of mahogany velvet and corsage of tallman roses.

The wedding music was played by Miss Marjorie McTeer, and during the signing of the register, Miss Doris Pollett sang "O Promise Me."

Following the ceremony, luncheon was served in the dining-room. Mauve chrysanthemums decorated the dining table, which was centred with the wedding cake and illuminated by ivory tapers. Dr. Kelloway proposed the toast to the bride to which the bridegroom responded.

Later in the evening the bride and groom left for Prince Albert, Sask., where they will reside. For travelling the bride chose a smart dress of black wool crepe with blue jet trimming, a black hat and matching accessories. Over this she wore a brown coat trimmed with black fur.

The bride is a grand-daughter of Mr. George Leslie, Treasurer of Esqueving.

ASHGROVE

The United Church Sunday School concert, Christmas tree and supper was held on Friday evening, Dec. 23, with a fairly good attendance. This was the children's night and they certainly enjoyed it all.

The annual young people's party was held on Thursday evening, Dec. 29th at the home of Mr. Thomas Brownridge. In the progressive games of euchre and crokinole the winners for euchre were Miss Reta Fisher and Mr. Alfred Bridgen; in crokinole, Miss Joy Ruddell and Mr. Ward Brownridge. Refreshments were served and dancing followed. Everyone present reported a lovely evening.

The Christmas meeting of Ashgrove Women's Institute was held on Dec. 13th at the home of Mrs. R. J. Graham, with the vice-president, Mrs. N. Stark, in the chair. Her motto: "Come let us be merry" as prepared by Mrs. J. Barnes and read by Miss E. Wright. The program was cheery and bright. Mrs. W. Engley favoured with a piano solo. We honoured the Christ Child by singing those lovely carols: "Silent Night," "While Shepherds Watched their Flocks by Night," "Joy to the World" and "O Come all ye Faithful." Our exchange of gifts provoked some fun and then were forwarded to the Red Cross. Miss R. Fisher gave us a very comprehensive synopsis of the annual convention. A social cup of tea closed the meeting.

CARD OF THANKS
Mrs. Bralaby and family wish to express to their many friends their heartfelt thanks for tokens of sympathy tendered them during their recent bereavement.

The Drama Institute at Milton while being run under the auspices of the Halton Juniors is open to all and according to reports quite a number from the town are planning to avail themselves of the opportunity.

CANADA'S FISH INDUSTRY

Preliminary and unrevised figures released by the Dominion Department of Fisheries for the 10-month period ending October 31 indicate likelihood of an increase in catches if present trends continue.

Recorded in hundredweights, catches thus far show an increase of 171,360 cwt., bringing the estimate for the period to a total of 8,151,060 cwt. Slight decreases in British Columbia and New Brunswick estimates are more than offset by estimated increases in other provinces, notably Nova Scotia, where estimates indicate a probable increase of almost 200,000 cwt.

Landed value for Canada as a whole increased, the total estimate amounting to $16,034,710.00 which, if sustained, suggests an approximate increase of half a million dollars when revised figures are available.

A Wise Child

After reproving her eldest son for the offense of cigar-smoking the mother thought she would improve the situation still further, and inquired of the younger son of the family, "No, if he had been smoking also."

"No, mother," was the reply, "I gave it up some time ago."

GLEN WILLIAMS

On Monday evening a fire of unknown origin totally destroyed a garage on the premises occupied by Harvey Lusty and a barn owned by R. Armstrong. The fire was discovered shortly after 9 o'clock by Monty Logan, who saw flames coming from the garage and only the prompt action of his neighbors averted what may have been a very serious fire.

FIREMEN'S BALL ANOTHER GRAND SUCCESS

The Georgetown Fire Brigade's ball held in the Arena on New Year's eve proved another grand success, as a capacity crowd greeted the firemen. This was the sixty-sixth annual affair and each year provides still a better dance. Martin's seven piece orchestra, supplied excellent music for the dancers. Mr. Reid of Brampton was floor manager. The local firemen wish to thank all those who helped in any way to make the dance a success, and promise even a better time next New Year's eve.

REQUEST PROTECTION AT SCHOOL CROSSING

Ratepayers of S. S. 4, Nelson township, will ask the department of highways for added protection at the intersection of Guelph line and the Middle Road highway. Several accidents there have caused parents anxiety, since children must cross the highway to reach school.

The ratepayers will ask the assistance of The Blacklock, M.P.P. for Halton county. They may also ask the department to construct a subway at the intersection, similar to that at the cloverleaf north of Port Credit.

By Spectator

Ottawa, Jan. 3rd.—At the opening of the year the trade treaty between Canada and the United States came into operation. It is expected that this new treaty widening the channels of commerce between the two countries and the new trade pact with which it is allied between the United States and the United Kingdom will in time fully prove their value by stimulating trade among the three great English speaking countries on a wide front. It is also naturally hoped that the pact will prove a salutary example to the world at large. There can be little doubt that substantial benefits should accrue in the new year to Canada's fishing industry, to livestock producers, to the lumber trade and to other industries affected by the reductions in American tariffs. There is of course certain to be a lot of discussion and opposition criticism of the terms of this treaty, as well as reductions in British preferences involved in the Anglo-American treaty, in the early days of the session which opens on the 12th of this month. The treaty will be presented to parliament for approval. It is contended by supporters of the new treaty that aside from the general effect it will have of increasing trade between the two countries, it will materially aid primary industries in this country, and that the British preference while curtailed in some respects is not by any means a dead letter and remains a pillar of the trading policy of this country.

Year End Reviews

At this time reviews of 1938 and forecasts for the coming year are being issued by industrial and political leaders. These reviews cover all the main phases of Canada's economic life. It is clear that Canada's trade and industry, strongly influenced by conditions in the United States have to a large extent followed trends in that country. The recession of the latter part of 1937 in the United States was felt in Canada but not so sharply as in the United States. Similarly signs of improvement as 1938 advanced were less rapid in Canada than the United States. Canada has not of course had the destabilizing influence of the economic experiments of the New Deal. In general Canadian business as the year begins seems to be looking to the future with genuine if restrained optimism. So much depends however on the European situation. There can be no general lowering of trade barriers while countries, obsessed by the war complex, feverishly endeavor to make themselves self-sufficient economically. International trade cannot flourish in such an atmosphere. Of course the industrial welfare of Canada as of other nations and the restoration of industrial confidence here as elsewhere in the world depend on the success of the "pacific" nations in keeping the international situation in control. Subject, however to the pressing effect of international uncertainty, industrial Canada is moving forward on an even keel. Among the encouraging factors of 1938 which increase confidence for the future, have been the steady expansion of the mining industry, good crops in the West although the beneficial effects of the crops suffered from low commodity prices, a favorable balance of international trade of 250 or 300 million dollars, and some improvement in the building trades.

The Session

The snow covered slopes of parliament hill are almost deserted these days. It is a pre-seasonal and holiday lull, but a few members of parliament already put in an appearance and soon they will all be striving for what is likely to be the last session of this parliament. Behind the scenes final preparations are being made for the legislative program.

There are several reasons why this session will stir the interest of the members and the country. The King and Queen will arrive in Ottawa and make a three weeks tour of the Dominion. It is the first visit of any reigning sovereign of the empire or commonwealth to the Canadian nation. The session will either be prorogued before their majesties arrive or will be adjourned during the visit. This being likely the last session the parties in the house will be giving themselves for the coming election campaign. Issues are likely to become clear cut and debate will acquire an edge. Discussions of Canada's problems, domestic and foreign, will be sharpened. Since last session there has occurred the Czechoslovakian crisis, and as shown in the Linn-conference the Western hemisphere has been rudely shaken from its feeling of relative security by the threat of totalitarian inroads in Latin America. Canada's policy both as a member of the British Commonwealth and as a state situated geographically in the Western hemisphere will be fully discussed. Defence measures will be debated. Issues loom large in debate. There will be the unemployment relief measure. It has been suggested that there will be a large works program. There will be the ever present railway problem. Canada will doubtless watch with interest the steps which President Roosevelt is likely to take towards a
