OBITUARY

MARIE JOE
 The home of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Joe was sadly bereft when, after two weeks of severe illness, their beloved daughter, Marie, entered into rest. She was born and raised in Esquewaug Township and was of a cheerful and loving nature, and her first thought was always of her home. She leaves to mourn her loss her parents, three brothers, David, at home; Melvin, in Toronto; and Stanley, at Georgetown; and four sisters, Mrs. Glenn Cole, of Rochester, N.Y.; Mrs. W. J. Cox, of Acton; Mrs. R. H. Ellarby, of Toronto; and Mrs. Norman Wilson, of Georgetown.

The funeral was held on Tuesday afternoon, with service at the home, at 2:30 o'clock, conducted by her pastor, Rev. H. L. Bennis. Interment was made at Fairview Cemetery, Acton. A number of floral tributes bespoke the high esteem in which she was held. The pallbearers were: Messrs. Melvin Joe, Stanley Joe, Ronald Ellarby, Wm. Cox, Norman Wilson and Harry Barnhill.

JAMES EDWARD MCKINNEY
 After an illness of a week, James Edward McKinney passed away Sunday at Guelph General Hospital, in his 74th year. For 40 years he owned and operated a blacksmith shop in Norval village, which took care of the many horses and farm equipment in this district. A few years ago, when cars became more numerous, some of the drive-sheds were dispensed with. Nevertheless the sound of the hammer on the anvil during the day continued to break across the noise of the trucks on the now busy highway nearby. His shop was a congenial meeting place for his friends at all times, and many children paused, going to and fro, to marvel at his creation of some metal. The funeral was conducted by Rev. F. A. Gilbert, at the United Church, Tuesday afternoon. Lloyd Hustler, organist, and choir leader, accompanied Mrs. E. C. Reed, who sang a solo. Mrs. P. Laidlaw and Mrs. Guy Wilson sang a duet. Pallbearers were members of the board of sessions, of which he was a member for some years. The proceeds of floral tributes banked the casket in the church. Interment was made at Dixon's Cemetery. He is survived by his widow, formerly Miss Ellen Barker; one son, E. Harvey, of Kitchener, and a sister in the west.

WILLIAM J. HALL
 William John Hall passed away on Monday, January 9th, after a brief illness. He was born in Peel County and has resided in Acton the greater part of his life. He married Bertha Scott, of Limehouse, and had two sons, Robert, of Wingham; and William, of Toronto; and three daughters, Nellie, of Toronto; Marjorie and Laura, at home; three brothers, James of Toronto; Ernest, of Kitchener; and George, of Wingham; and two sisters, Mrs. Sarah Carnochan, of Goderich; and Mr. John Scott, of Limehouse who are left to mourn his loss. He was a member of Knox Presbyterian Church, and a faithful member of the Loyal Orange Lodge.
 The funeral service was conducted by Rev. H. L. Bennis, Knox Church, Acton, assisted by the Loyal Orange Lodge. Interment was made in Fairview cemetery. The pallbearers were Messrs. W. R. Knaul, Guelph; J. Massey, H. Massey, W. Evans, C. K. Browne and W. Cooper, Acton. Many friends attended the funeral to pay tribute to the life of Mr. Hall and those from Acton and nearby points Wingham, Guelph, Kitchener, Toronto and Hamilton.

 Floral tributes were from the Family; Brothers and Sisters; Mr. and Mrs. E. Hill, Georgetown; Mrs. E. Morrow, Messrs. Arthur and Robert Lane, Toronto; Storey Glove Co. Acton; Gurney Glove Co., Wingham; Directors and staff of Beardmore Co.; Boardroom Employees; the staff of Eglington Avenue School, Toronto; T. Eaton Co., Toronto; Acton Loyal Orange Lodge; Knox Church Choir; Mr. and Mrs. W. Elmalle, Guelph; Mrs. P. Smith and Miss Pearl Smith; Mr. and Mrs. J. Hurst and Duke of Devonshire Chapter I.O.D.E.

Three Day Celebration in Georgetown

The Lions Club plan a three day celebration in Georgetown culminating on Civic Holiday, Saturday will be featured by a Band Tattoo, while Sunday will be given over to a memorial service in Greenwood cemetery. Monday, a day of colorful variety with the predominant note. Keep these dates open and watch for further particulars.

AT GREGORY THEATRE SATURDAY

"Judge Hardy's Children," third of Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's "Hardy Family" series, with Lewis Stone, Mickey Rooney, Cecilia Parker and Fay Holden, is the current attraction at the Gregory Theatre, Georgetown, Saturday, Jan. 15th, matinee and night. It is a sequel to "You're Only Young Once" and is the same type of intimate, down-to-earth family comedy, this time taking the judge and his family to Washington where the youngsters have flirtations and the father outwits lobbyists.

George Seitz, who has piloted the series since it started with "A Family Affair," directed with deft skill many little touches of humor, pathos and dramatic thrills. Many scenes were filmed in Washington.
 Stone plays the wise old judge and father, Mickey and Cecilia the two irrepressible youngsters, Fay Holden is seen as the mother and Betty Hoss Clarke enacts Aunt Milly. Jacqueline Laurent, new find from Paris, makes her American screen debut in a flirtation with Mickey, and Robert Whitney from the New York stage is discovered as a new leading man opposite Miss Parker. Ann Rutherford, Ruth Hussey, Jonathan Haie Janet Beecher and Leonard Penn are other players in the litting story.
 Don't miss seeing this picture next Saturday.

BUILD NEW STATION

Modern Terminal at Montreal For Canadian National Railways
 Construction of a modern railway terminal to replace old Bonaventure station in Montreal is the purpose of steps announced from Canadian National Railways Headquarters to complete work on a railway terminal in the heart of that city. Hon. C. D. Howe, minister of Transport, stated.
 To aid in this work the Dominion government will make a grant to cover a share of the labor costs as a part of the unemployed relief program.
 For the main expenditure involved in the new project, which envisages an ultimate cost of $12,600,000, the Canadian National already has legislative power to borrow. It is expected the expenditures in the next twelve months might run to about $4,000,000, the minister said, but there were no definite figures settled upon at the moment.
 Started late in the regime of the 1926-30 administration of Prime Minister Mackenzie King, the original project, to cost about $50,000,000, was stopped soon after the depression set in.

Bolton - Georgetown Hockey Tilt Most Exciting of the Season

Visitors Win 4 - 3—Harris Scores Bolton's Four Goals—Penalties Costly for Georgetown—Largest Crowd of Season Attend.

By G. "Mac" McGillvray
 In one of the most exciting and breath-taking hockey games ever to be staged in the local arena, Bolton O.H.A. Intermediates emerged victors over their equally as good opponents last night by a 4 - 3 score.

While it is conceded that the Georgetown team carried at least seventy-five per cent of the play during the game, penalties again proved costly, as three of the visitors' goals came when they were short-handed. It is also conceded that the Bolton-Toronto combines play what is considered in most cases class A, intermediate hockey, but it takes no less than the home-town Georgetown boys to extend them to the limit to win their games. And it is still our opinion that Georgetown can not go on applying such pressure on this Bolton outfit, least taking one fall out of them this season.

This game was again under the direction of Honey Kuntz of Kitchener, and he made a fine job of refereeing. A game such as was staged last night could not be played fairly under a referee of a lesser calibre.
 From a goal-getting standpoint, Harris on the Bolton left wing was the most effective and starry player on the ice. He scored all of that team's goals, and there were no "softies." Ken Richardson did a splendid chore for Georgetown and no doubt should be rated well up with the team's stars. His clever stickhandling was a treat for the fans and baffling for his opponents. George Riddall at centre ice was also very effective in the first two periods, and the Georgetown defense played their best game of the year. Both goalies had some hard shots to stop, and some clever work in the net was turned in by both Alcott and Hall.

While the game was very fast, some rough tactics managed to creep in, and Bolton made nine trips to the penalty box to Georgetown's seven. The Bolton defense played a very strenuous game and as a result did not get any more penalties than they rightly deserved.
 In the initial period both teams made three trips to the penalty box, and this carried play more or less from one end of the ice to the other, depending on which team was short-handed. With Hall for Georgetown doing his time in the cooler, Harris gave Bolton the edge, when he skated from his blue line to the goal mouth to score. The period ended with three players in the penalty box and the score 1 - 0 for Bolton.

In the sandwich reel Georgetown had the advantage of the extra players at the start, but failed to chalk up any goals. Then Young went off for Bolton and the local boys evaded the count when Ken Richardson scooped in Ritchie's rebound. W. Richardson drew a stretch on the bench for holding and Harris slipped in Bolton's second goal of the game. Then came G. Riddall's chance, and he fumbled the puck around long enough to give the spectators the gutters, before finally banging it in to put Georgetown on even terms again with the Boltonites. With enthusiasm running high at this point, Walt Richardson garbed a loose puck and raced toward the Bolton goal, only to be body-checked to the ice. However, G. Riddall took up the puck and went in on Hall to put Georgetown one goal up at the end of the second frame. Score, Georgetown 3, Bolton 2.

It was Georgetown's turn to start a man short at the beginning of the final period, as G. Riddall was left in the cooler at the finish of the second stretch. James was penalized for Bolton, but they stayed off the attack of the local team. Then came the sad ending of a perfectly good game for Georgetown, when D. Riddall went off for holding and hooking and Harris shot in quick succession. Ward was penalized and this spelled doom to Georgetown's chances of retrieving the lost goals, although Bolton played a man short three times during the balance of the period. The game ended Bolton 4, Georgetown 3.

It was a great game and a great crowd—a hard game to lose and a hard one to win.
 Bolton—Goal, Hall; defense, Kohoe, James; centre, Crocker; wings, Nelson, Harris; subs, Baftay, Stubbs, Norton, Chapman, Young; defense, Georgetown—Goal, Alcott; defense, Hall, Dewhurst; centre, G. Riddall; wings, Ward, W. Richardson; subs, K. Richardson, Ritchie, D. Riddall, Davis, Sanderson.

Georgetown Again Trounces Brampton by 9 - 4 Score

GAME WHICH WAS SUPPOSED TO BE UNDER PROTEST, EVIDENTLY WAS NOT

From the fans point of view it was a very peculiar hockey game last Friday when Georgetown met Brampton at the arena here in Brampton's home game. Georgetown was supposed to be playing the game under protest, owing to the Long brothers on the Brampton team not being able to produce certificates. At the same time Georgetown had more than the legal number of players dressed in the game. While we learn this was done for a purpose, from the fan's standpoint it still will remain a peculiar situation. However no protest seems to have been entered by either team.

This is the second time within one week that Georgetown has handed the lowly Bramptonians a severe trouncing, and by exactly the same score, 9 to 4. As in the previous game, Georgetown looked much the better team. They skated faster, backed checked consistently and did not tire as easily as their opponents. The game left no doubt as to which was the better team.
 Georgetown again took the hard way of winning the game, that of coming from behind a 2 - 0 score. In the first period the Brampton team counted two goals, while Georgetown could not get any. Richardson scored the first goal on a nice solo effort, with K. Long and Anthony combining for the second—Long getting the goal.
 The local boys swept Brampton off their feet in the sandwich reel and netted four goals to make the score 4 - 2 at the end of the period. G. Riddall, Ward, W. Richardson and D. Riddall being the goal getters. Penalties were a handicap to Brampton in this period, when they had three.

Georgetown continued their scoring in the third stanza, with Dewhurst bulging the twine on a pass from Ritchie with W. Richardson following with another. With a local player serving a penalty Brampton rallied to score when Soloski found the net in a scramble. But Ward gave W. Richardson a pass that soon regained that goal and Ward drove in another on a beautiful solo effort. He took him through the entire team. Prosser soloed for Georgetown's final goal, and Kozack ended the scoring of the game with a goal on a pass from K. Richardson. The final score Georgetown 9, Brampton 4.
 As each player turned in some fine hockey it is not fair that we should pick letars in this matter, with the Bolton battle just around the corner. Georgetown—Goal, Alcott; defense, Dewhurst, Hall; centre, G. Riddall; wings, W. Richardson, Ward; subs, K. Richardson, Ritchie, Kozack, Sanderson.
 Brampton—Goal, Burrows; defense, K. Long, Gibson; centre, Anthony; wings, D. Long, Weller; subs, MacIntosh, Prosser, McMurchy, Soloski. Referee—Johnny Jones, Guelph.

Georgetown Lions Lose to Milton in Close Game

PLAY AT MILTON TO-NIGHT—ACTON HERE FRIDAY NIGHT

While the Georgetown Lions suffered defeat in their first game of the season, they will see a smart aggregation before the schedule is advanced very far, and will be a real threat in the Milton, Acton, Georgetown circuit of O.H.A. juvenile hockey. Coach McGinnis has been giving the boys some real workouts and they will be in good condition for tonight's game in Milton.
 While Milton took the game by a 6 - 5 score it was good game and anybody's game until the final bell. The Milton Legionnaires scored twice in the first frame, as did the Lions. Sprout and H. Evans for Milton; D. Beaumont and Wilcox for the Lions. The second period also ended in a tie with each team scoring three goals. The Milton scorers were Sprout (2) and L. Evans for Georgetown; McMenemy (2) and Murphy.
 The final real was a hectic affair with Sprout coming through with the winning goal for Milton.
 If the hockey fans of Georgetown want to see some good hockey, they had better come out to the O. H. A. juvenile games, and help the boys on to victory.
 Milton—Goal, McDuffe; defense, Brush, Charlton; centre, Sprout; wings, Gowland, Scott; subs, Parry, H. Evans, Kennedy, L. Evans.
 Georgetown—Lions—Goal, Clark; defense, Golden, Roberts; centre, James; wings, Wilcox, McMurchy; subs, Raynor, Beaumont, D. Beaumont, Hale, Boyle, Marchmont.

THIS AND THAT IN SPORT

By G. "Mac" McGillvray

LAST NIGHT'S hockey sets with Bolton must have sent Georgetown coach, Scarface "Spats" McGinnis, home talking to himself; as we learn on good authority he had to set up the "coffee" in more than one instance. This man, who hails from Victoria Harbor, who spends his summer travelling some one of the "seven seas" and his winter rounding out a pack of puckchasers, must have failed to read the rule book to his care this winter, as repeated trips to the penalty box for holding, hooking and body-checking at centre-ice did not seem to go over with Referee Kuntz. The sooner he insists that the boys stay on the ice and play hockey for the full sixty minutes, the sooner he can hope to put Bolton where he almost had them, and get back the coffee which he no doubt will have to do without all week. Which you know "Spats" will be penance for his laxity in this regard.

HOWEVER this column is not out to decry the Georgetown team for defeat in such a hectic struggle as ensued here last night, but to ask why should a town like Bolton be allowed to import Toronto mercantile players to the extent of almost the entire team, and then enter into an O.H.A. group of intermediate B hockey. It is time that the O.H.A. put an end to this racket and give each district to understand they must play home and district players. It is no credit to Bolton to win games in this manner, but it is a credit to their opponents when they can extend them to the limit. How can Bolton citizens support such a team, when one half of the populace do not know from night to night who plays where on the team. Georgetown tried their hand at that importing game one season, and it proved a dirty mess to handle. But we can now boast a team of all home-brews, and we know the boys are out there giving their best win, sole or draw.

BRAMPTON play in Bolton tomorrow night, Thursday, Jan. 19th, instead of Friday as scheduled, and this should be a good game, as Brampton and Bolton players have no love for one another when on the ice. Brampton will be at Georgetown next Tuesday night. Come out and see the boys battling for the rubber disc.

THE LIONS Juvenile O.H.A. team will be a hard team to beat before the end of the season. So look out Acton and Milton here we come. Coach McGinnis is giving the boys some stiff workouts, and he says he has now a complete team of outstanding players.
 IN ORDER that no juvenile hockey players should be out of hockey for this season, a Town Juvenile League will be formed at once to give every boy a chance to play hockey. The number of teams in the group will depend on the number of boys wanting to play. A meeting for this purpose will be held in the arena (tomorrow) Thursday evening at 7:30, when all boys are asked to register, bring name and position on team if they are most suitable for. This will be the only meeting called, so all boys and register to-morrow night. We want every boy that can play juvenile hockey (other than the Lions team) to register.

First of its kind in Ireland, a coffee van will provide non-alcoholic drinks at country fairs as part of the temperance movement.

W. C. T. U.

The January meeting of the W.C.T.U. held Friday last at the home of Mrs. A. R. Speight, was in charge of the president, Mrs. A. R. Vannatter. The devotional period was conducted by Mrs. A. Hoove, who presented a helpful message based on the selected scripture reading (John IV 1-42) the story of Jesus and the woman of Samaria.

During the brief business period which followed the press secretary, Mrs. C. B. Dayfoot, reported progress in the plans for educational work and stated that no further word had been received from Mr. Blacklock regarding an opportunity for presentation of protest against the establishment of a brewery warehouse in Georgetown.

The guest speaker of the afternoon was Rev. Charles Jolliffe of Glen Williams, who had for thirty years been engaged in missionary work in West China. Mr. Jolliffe, brought in his new year message, inspiration and encouragement to continued and zealous effort in the campaign for community righteousness to which W.C.T.U. is dedicated. Reminding us of the wisdom of an occasional "stock-taking," the speaker advised looking at the work as a whole, remembering that reverses must be taken courageously, and keeping in mind that "wise men never and wall their woes, but present by prevent the woes to wall." We must take our convictions seriously, being sure that they are founded upon fact, and then act without apology or hesitation. We must remember that the war against unrighteousness is an age-long conflict and only the long look enables us to maintain a true perspective, and the faith that we are "laborers together with God" in the Divine purpose of establishing His kingdom upon earth. Co-operating with Him, by seeking to understand and obey His laws let us realize that we have at our command unseen forces against which the enemy is powerless. "Only be thou strong and very brave." (Josh. I: 7).

The president, seconded by Mrs. J. P. Sutcliffe, expressed to Mr. Jolliffe the appreciation of the gathering for his inspiring message. Thanks was also extended to Misses Alva Cripps and Norah Cleave, whose well-rendered piano duty was a pleasing item of the program.
 With thanks to our hostess, the meeting adjourned to convene on February at the home of Mrs. C. B. Dayfoot, Market St.
